Of Borders And Margins:

Toward a New Art of Border Crossing Ananta Kumar Giri, Arnab Roy Chowdhury, David Blake Willis, 2024-11-05

Boundaries borders and margins are related concepts and realities and each of these can be conceptualized and organized in closed or open ways with degrees of closure or openness The logics of stasis and closure as well as cults of exclusivist and exclusionary sovereignty are reflected and embodied in the closed xenophobic conceptualization and organization of boundaries borders and margins But an open conceptualization of the borderlands where mixing and hybridity take place at a rapid even dizzying pace gives rise to Creolization at the threshold of sovereignties which can also be imagined At present our border zones are spaces of anxiety ridden security arrangements violence and death The existing politics of boundary maintenance is wedded to a cult of sovereignty at various levels which produces bare lives bodies and lands We need the new art of border crossing to be defined by the notion of camaraderie and shared sovereignties and non sovereignties Border zones can also be zones of meetings communication transcendence and festive celebration of the limits of our identities Thus we need a new art and politics of boundary transmutation transformation and transcendence in the broadest possible sense that entails the production of spatial scalar somatic cognitive affective and spiritual transitions

Theology on the Border Daniela Lucia Rapisarda, 2024-12-10 Focusing on the Mediterranean this book offers a theological hermeneutics from the perspective of the margin border and a theological hermeneutics of the border At the core is a case study of the Italian Protestant minority and its engagement with issues of migration While much of current migration theology is built around the principle of sacralization of the migrant person or vertical association between divinity God or Jesus and people on the move this work offers a horizontal perspective on humanization or recognition of the value of every human being based on the principle of a shared humanity created in God's image and a sense of identification first by people at the margins This approach seeks to avoid essentializing migrantness and victimhood Elaborations on the relation between identity and migration are often sustained by exclusionary logics that lead to repressive policies The book proposes a contextual theological reflection on minority identity that is at its core inclusive It offers a contribution to theology beyond confessional borders and is open to dialogue with other disciplines particularly critical border studies

Power and Identity at the Margins of the Ancient Near East Sara Mohr, Shane M. Thompson, 2023-09-15 Power and Identity at the Margins of the Ancient Near East rethinks the dichotomy between antiquated terms such as core and periphery explores lived realities in the margins of central authority and centers those margins as places of resistance and power in their own right The borderlands of hegemonic entities within the Near East and Egypt pressed against each other creating cities and societies with influence from several competing polities The peoples cities and cultures that resulted present a unique lens by which to examine how states controlled and influenced the lives political systems and social hierarchies of these subjects and vice versa This volume addresses the distinct traditions and experiences of areas beyond the core terminology used when discussing empire core periphery borderlands and frontiers conceptualization of space practices and consequences of warfare captive taking and slavery identity and secondary state formation economy and society ritual diplomacy and the negotiation of claims to power It is imperative that historians and social scientists understand the ways in which these cultures developed spread and interacted with others along frontier edges Using an intersectional approach across disciplines Power and Identity at the Margins of the Ancient Near East brings together professionals from archaeology religious studies history sociology and anthropology to make new contributions to the study of the frontier Contributors Alexander Ahrens Peter Dubovsk Avraham Faust Daniel E Fleming Mahri Leonard Fleckman Alvise Matessi Ellen Morris Valeria Turriziani Eric M Trink

Borders, Culture, and Globalization Victor Konrad, Melissa Kelly, 2021-05-18 Border culture emerges through the intersection and engagement of imagination affinity and identity It is evident wherever boundaries separate or sort people and their goods ideas or other belongings It is the vessel of engagement between countries and peoples assuming many forms exuding a variety of expressions changing shapes but border culture does not disappear once it is developed and it may be visualized as a thread that runs throughout the process of globalization Border culture is conveyed in imaginaries and productions that are linked to borderland identities constructed in the borderlands These identities underlie the enforcement of control and resistance to power that also comprise border cultures Canada's borders in globalization offer an opportunity to explore the interplay of borders and culture identify the fundamental currents of border culture in motion and establish an approach to understanding how border culture is placed and replaced in globalization Published in English      Community, Change and Border Towns H. Şenoğuz, 2018-08-06 This book provides an interdisciplinary approach to power inclusion exclusion and hierarchy in a Turkish border town with a focus on the impact of nation state border on social stratification and change Through the lens of ethnographic research and oral history the book explores social mobility among various strata within the context of transition from Ottoman rule to the Republican regime in order to reveal culturally informed strategies of border dwellers in coming to grips with new border contexts It is suggested that the border perspective will move the social analysis beyond methodological territorialism and provide a theoretical framework that explores social change at the intersection of local national and transnational processes This book will appeal to readers interested in borders and circulations social structure and power relations in border regions as well as transnational shadow networks in the Turkish Middle Eastern context The book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of border anthropology political and economic geography studies of globalization and transnationalism anthropology of illegality and Turkish and Middle Eastern studies It will be a useful grounding for humanitarian professionals who are learning about the social and economic landscape of border towns      Padding, Borders, Outlines, and Margins in CSS
