Of Chaff And Wheat Writers War And Treason:

Of Chaff and Wheat Jean Paulhan, 2004 Though perfectly able to conduct a polemic at white heat Paulhan is chiefly concerned with putting a stop to the prosecution of writers restoring their critical freedom to write to publish to make mistakes and to heal by moving forward honestly Jacket

Artmaking in the Age of Global Capitalism Bryant Jan Bryant, 2019-09-11 Jan Bryant looks at the strategies visual artists and filmmakers are using to criticise the social and economic conditions shaping our historical moment She then assesses how the world is being positively re imagined through their work today Located at the intersection of practice and theory Bryant argues that an effective contemporary political aesthetics encompasses more than just analysis of a work s conceptual or aesthetic reality It should also consider the impact the artwork has at the point of reception the methods adopted by the artists and the relationships they engender with communities

The Art of Hunger Alys Moody, 2018 When we think of writers today we often think of them as thin and poor as starving artists This book traces the history of this idea and asks why hunger has been such a compelling metaphor for thinking about writing in modern times

Paths to Contemporary French Literature John Taylor, 2017-07-05 The first volume of Paths to Contemporary French Literature offered a critical panorama of over fifty French writers and poets With this second volume John Taylor an American writer and critic who has lived in France for the past thirty years continues this ambitious and critically acclaimed project Praised for his independence curiosity intimate knowledge of European literature and his sharp reader s eye John Taylor is a writer critic who is naturally skeptical of literary fashions overnight reputations and readymade academic categories Charting the paths that have lead to the most serious and stimulating contemporary French writing he casts light on several neglected postwar French authors all the while highlighting genuine mentors and invigorating newcomers Some names Patrick Chamoiseau Pascal Quignard Jean Philippe Toussaint Jean Rouaud Francis Ponge Aime Cesaire Marguerite Yourcenar J M G Le Clezio may be familiar to the discriminating and inquisitive American reader but their work is incisively re evaluated here The book also includes a moving remembrance of Nathalie Sarraute and an evocation of the author s meetings with Julien Gracq Other writers in this second volume are equally deserving authors whose work is highly respected by their peers in France yet little known in English speaking countries Taylor s pioneering elucidations in this respect are particularly valuable This second volume also examines a number of non French originally non French speaking writers such as Gherasim Luca Petr Kral Armen Lubin Venus Ghoura Khata Piotr Rawicz as well as Samuel Beckett who chose French as their literary idiom Taylor is in a perfect position to understand their motivations struggles and goals In a day and age when so little is known in English speaking countries about foreign literature and when so little is translated the two volumes of Paths to Contemporary French Literature are absorb

The Censorship Files Alejandro Herrero-Olaizola, 2012-02-01 Drawing on extensive research in the Spanish National Archive Alejandro Herrero Olaizola examines the role played by the censorship apparatus of Franco s Spain in bringing about the Latin American literary Boom of the 1960s and 1970s He reveals the negotiations and behind the scenes maneuvering among those involved in the Spanish publishing industry Converging interests made strange bedfellows of the often left wing authors and the staid officials appointed to stand guard over Francoist morality and to defend the supposed purity of Castilian Spanish Between these two uneasily allied groups circulated larger than life real world characters like the Barcelona publisher Carlos Barral and the all powerful literary agent Carmen Balcells The author details the fascinating story of how novels by Mario Vargas Llosa Guillermo Cabrera Infante Gabriel Garc a M rquez and Manuel Puig achieved publication in Spain and in doing so reached a worldwide market This colorful account underpins a compelling claim that even the most innovative and aesthetically challenging literature has its roots in the economics of the book trade as well as the institutions of government and the exigencies of everyday politics and ideology

Paralyses John Culbert, 2011-01-01 Modernity has long been equated with motion travel and change from Marx s critical diagnoses of economic instability to the Futurists glorification of speed Likewise metaphors of travel serve widely in discussions of empire cultural contact translation and globalization from Deleuze s nomadology to James Clifford s traveling cultures John Culbert in contrast argues that the key texts of modernity and postmodernity may be approached through figures and narratives of paralysis motion is no more defining of modern travel than fixations resistance and impasse concepts and figures of travel he posits must be rethought in this more static light Focusing on the French and Francophone context in which paralyzed travel is a persistent motif Culbert also offers new insights into French critical theory and its often paradoxical figures of mobility from Blanchot spas au dela and Barthes s derivate to Derrida saporias and Glissant s diversions Here we see that paralysis is not merely the failure of transport but rather the condition in which travel by coming to a crisis calls into question both mobility and stasis in the language of desire and the order of knowledge Paralyses provides a close analysis of the rhetoric of empire and the economy of tourism precisely at their points of breakdown which in turn enables a deconstruction of master narratives of exploration conquest and exoticism A reassessment of key authors of French modernity from Nerval and Gautier to Fromentin Paulhan Beckett Leiris and Boudjedra Paralyses also constitutes a new theoretical intervention in debates on travel translation ethics and postcoloniality

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower, 2013-01-17 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don t know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English And even if we don t read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present It is also a particularly rich literature espousing every genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English     On Poetry and Politics Jean Paulhan,2008 The first English translation of Jean Paulhan s major essays     French XX Bibliography William J. Thompson,2006-09 Provides a listing available of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885 This work is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture The bibliography is divided into three major divisions general studies author subjects arranged alphabetically and cinema     Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2006     Publications of the State of Illinois ,2004     Publications of the State of Illinois Illinois. Office of Secretary of State,2004     Longings and Belongings Nancy Huston,2005 Longings and Belongings is a collection of twenty four essays published by Nancy Huston in English or French or both over the past two decades 1981 2002 They can be seen as milestones on her path as novelist and expatriate mother and intellectual dreamer and realist body and soul In these non fiction pieces Huston discusses a number of authors who have inspired or infuriated her over the years Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir Marguerite Duras Milan Kundera Sylvia Plath Simone Weil and especially Romain Gary Though the essays cover a wide ranging number of topics motherhood eroticism war madness exile the search for identity the transgression of taboo the moral implications of creation they all revolve in one way or another around a single theme the mind body problem     American Book Publishing Record ,2004     Illinois Documents List ,2004     The European War ,1917     The New York Times Current History ,1917     Incidents and Anecdotes of the War Orville James Victor,1866     Current History ,1916     Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-12
