Notes and Materials for an Adequate Biography of the Celebrated Divine and Theosopher, William Law ,1854 The Signature of all Things Jacob Boehme, 2014-05-29 It is not to be thought that the life of darkness is sunk in misery and lost as if in sorrow There is no sorrowing For sorrowing is a thing swallowed up in death and death and dying are the very life of the darkness Jacob Boehme s mystical pantheism and dialectical conception of God in which good and evil are rooted in one and the same being soon brought him into conflict with Lutheran orthodoxy It is in The Signature of all Things Signatura Rerum that the tenets of Boehme s theosophy are related in their greatest detail Casting the reader into the vortex of his cosmological universe Boehme s endeavour to express a new sense of the human divine and natural realms attains its apotheosis in his conception of the Ungrund the uncertainty that precedes the divine will s arousing itself to self awareness Challenging and rewarding in equal measure this is a profound text deeply influential upon devotional writers such as William Law visionaries such as William Blake informing The Marriage of Heaven and Hell and more recently upon cultural production as diverse as the psychology of Carl Jung and Philip Pullman s His Dark Materials trilogy

The Missions and Missional Purpose of Ephesians Timothy A. van Aarde,2023-01-12 The purpose of the letter to the Ephesians is unknown The book suggests that the purpose of Ephesians is about missions and being missional The author of Ephesians committed the task of missions to the church The author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of God The redemptive plan oikonomia of God consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of Israel the mission of Christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church The term missional has been used ambiguously The existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of Ephesians The mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 1 3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 4 6 The author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church He intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church The mission of the church has been grounded in the Great Commission The missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in Eph 4 6

The Doctrine of Spiritual Perfection Anselm Stolz,2013-10-01 First published in 1938 this book made a significant contribution to the scholarship on mysticism by approaching the problems of mysticism from the theological angle adopted by the church fathers and medieval scholastics Seeking to strike a balance with the psychological method Stolz began his study with an examination not of John of the Cross or Teresa de Avila but of St Paul s account of his rapture Stolz s analysis clarified the theological foundation of mysticism and its development in the ecclesiastical tradition with his assertion that mysticism is built on the sacramental and therefore the liturgical life and is thus bound up intrinsically with Christian life of which it is the conscious intensification and perfection at the third annual meeting of the Church Pastoral aid Society May 8 1838 Divine Presence as Activity and the Incarnation Alexander S. Jensen,2024-07-22 This book offers an original perspective on the doctrine of incarnation through a discussion of divine presence and action arguing for the plausibility of Chalcedonian Christology It draws on a range of theological and philosophical sources from St Athanasius of Alexandria s approach regarding the presence of the logos asarkos in the world to the relational understanding of personhood put forward by John Zizioulas Christos Yannaras and others The suggestion is that divine presence needs to be understood in consistently Trinitarian terms and the book sets out the possibility of a theology of presence which understands God as present and immanent in the world while at the same time remaining transcendent and ineffable Alexander Jensen maintains that the classical understanding of divine presence which sees God as being present according to God s activity is much more useful in Christology than today s predominant modern notion of presence as occupying space and combines this with an ontological understanding of personhood The book gives an account of the person and work of Christ that takes seriously the insights of historical research and critical biblical interpretation It takes seriously the full humanity of Jesus of Nazareth and asserts that in this man we encounter God It will be of particular interest to systematic theologians as well as those concerned with the history of Christian theology and philosophical theology The Church of England Magazine Anonymous,2025-06-30 Reprint of the original first published in 1839 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Deacons: The diakon-word group in the New Testament and the ministry of the deacon Gert Breed,2023-08-31 Deacons The diakon words in the New Testament and the ministry of the deacon offers an in depth analysis of the concept of deacon in the New Testament and its significance for present day congregational practices The essence and content of the service of the deacon within the community of God forms the focus of the study Significant passages in the New Testament are considered in fine exegetical manner to determine the guidelines offered within the context of these NT texts In this way different perspectives are highlighted that enrich the overall understanding of the concept of deacon Obviously this challenges some of the views held on this topic that even influence the way several churches organise their diaconal service and suggests some novel ideas related to the topic Certain focal points are described for instance the centrality of the covenant and Kingdom in exercising diaconal service or the interrelatedness of koinonia diakonia and worship This book offers a rich and responsible study of the concept of deacons in congregations both on theoretical and practical levels Prof Dr Jan van der Watt The World in the Trinity Joseph A. Bracken,2014 Joseph A Bracken argues that the failure of theology and science to generate cohesion is the lack of an integrated system of interpretation of the Christian faith that consciously accords with the insights and discoveries of contemporary science Bracken utilizes the language and conceptual structures of systems theory as a philosophical and scientific grammar to show traditional Christian beliefs in a new light that is accessible and rationally plausible to a
