Of Things Unseen and Other Poems Lee Bain Chiaro, Jodi Torpey, 2002-11 This book is the result of the author's search for Truth and the meaning of Life After the loss of her family in the Holocaust of World War II and later divorce she found no comfort or comforter for her grief She then began to pour out her pain through poetry Although she began writing at age twelve when she became fluent in English this book is a compilation of only the past forty years of her writings Her soul search began in 1961 at which time she produced several sonnets One sonnet in particular Celestial Lapidary revealed to her a startling message from God that our suffering serves an ennobling purpose This breakthrough enabled her to persevere In 1965 she met her Jewish Messiah Jesus through the reading of The New Testament given her by a kind friend Thereafter the poems reflect her deep devotion to The God of All Comfort who gave her the Love and Hope to live an overcoming and victorious life In 1996 she began to share publicly her Scriptural teachings as well as the poems which they had inspired She continues to do so to the present Of Things Unseen and Other Poems Family Worship Center, 2002-11-24 Voices of the night. Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic s perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine and for ever Edward Henry Bickersteth, 1873 Poems and Short Stories Sangharakshita, 2020-04-07 This volume contains all of Sanghrakshita's poems and six short stories It is prefaced by a foreword and two essays introducing the poems in different ways It also includes edited versions of two talks Sangharakshita gave about specific poems and a sequence of conversations about his poetry that were recorded towards the end of his life Last Things Jacques Khalip, 2018-03-27 The arrival of the Anthropocene brings the suggestion that we are only now beginning to speculate on an inhuman world that is not for us only now confronting fears and anxieties of ecological political social and philosophical extinction While pointing out that reflections on disaster were not foreign to what we historically call romanticism Last Things pushes romantic thought toward an altogether new way of conceiving the end of things one that treats lastness as neither privation nor conclusion Through quieter non emphatic modes of thinking the end of human thought Khalip explores lastness as what marks the limits of our life and world Reading the fate of romanticism and romantic studies within the key of the last Khalip refuses to elegize or celebrate our ends instead positing romanticism as a negative force that exceeds theories narratives and figures of survival and sustainability Each chapter explores a range of romantic and contemporary materials poetry by John Clare Emily Dickinson John Keats Percy Shelley and William Wordsworth philosophical texts by William Godwin David Hume Immanuel Kant and Jean Jacques Rousseau paintings by Hubert Robert Caspar David Friedrich and Paterson Ewen installations by Tatsuo Miyajima and James Turrell and photography by John Dugdale Peter Hujar and Joanna Kane Shuttling between temporalities Last Things undertakes an original reorganization of romantic thought for contemporary culture It examines an archive on the side of disappearance perishing the inhuman and lastness Past and Present.
