Of Time And Place Comparative World Literature In Translation:

Handbook of Anglophone World Literatures Stefan Helgesson, Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-09-07 The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2011-09-14 In the age of globalization the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in World Literature including gender politics and ethics a global perspective on the politics of World Literature The forty eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History May Hawas, 2018-04-19 The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History is a comprehensive and engaging volume combining essays from historians and literary academics to create a space for productive cross cultural encounters between the two fields In addition to the 27 essays the Companion includes general introductions from two of the leading scholars of history and literature David Damrosch and Patrick Manning as well as personal testimonies from artists working in the area and editorials asking provocative questions The volume includes sections on People with essays looking at World Literature Intellectual Commerce Religion language and war and Indigenous ethnography Networks and methods examining maps geography morality and the crises of world literature Transformations including essays on race colonialism and the non human Interdisciplinary and groundbreaking this volume brings to light various ways in which scholars of literature and history analyse assimilate or reveal the intellectual heritage of the past at the same moment as they try consciously to deal with an unending amount of new information and an awareness of global connections and discrepancies Including work from leading academics in the field as well as newer voices the Companion is ideal for students and scholars alike World Literature After Empire Pieter Vanhove, 2021-07-28 This book makes the case that the idea of a world in the cultural and philosophical sense is not an exclusively Western phenomenon During the Cold War and in the wake of decolonization a plethora of historical attempts were made to reinvent the notions of world literature world art and philosophical universality from an anticolonial perspective Contributing to recent debates on world literature the postcolonial and translatability the book presents a series of interdisciplinary and multilingual case studies spanning Europe the United States and China The case studies illustrate how individual anti imperialist writers and artists set out to remake the conception of the world in their own image by offering a different perspective centered on questions of race gender sexuality global inequality and class The book also discusses how international cultural organizations like the Afro Asian Writers Bureau UNESCO and PEN International attempted to shape this debate across Cold War divides The

Routledge Concise History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2013-03 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to and overview of World Literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism to postmodernism this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation and postcolonial studies and anyone with an interest in these or related topics Turkish Literature as World Literature Burcu Alkan, Çimen Günay-Erkol, 2020-12-10 Essays covering a broad range of genres and ranging from the late Ottoman era to contemporary literature open the debate on the place of Turkish literature in the globalized literary world Explorations of the multilingual cosmopolitanism of the Ottoman literary scene are complemented by examples of cross generational intertextual encounters The renowned poet Nâzım Hikmet is studied from a variety of angles while contemporary and popular writers such as Orhan Pamuk and Elif Şafak are contextualized Turkish Literature as World Literature not only fills a significant lacuna in world literary studies but also draws a composite historical political and cultural portrait of Turkey in its relations with the broader world Literature, Theory, History J. Hart, 2011-10-24 This book discusses literature theory and history in close relation Its main focus is on comparative literature and history culture poetics rhetoric theatricality genre and gender and balances close reading with theory and historical context Literary Translation and Cultural Mediators in 'Peripheral' Cultures Diana Roig-Sanz, Reine Meylaerts, 2018-07-20 This book sets the grounds for a new approach exploring cultural mediators as key figures in literary and cultural history It proposes an innovative conceptual and methodological understanding of the figure of the cultural mediator defined as a cultural actor active across linguistic cultural and geographical borders occupying strategic positions within large networks and being the carrier of cultural transfer Many studies on translation and cultural mediation privileged the major metropolis of Paris London and New York as centres of cultural production and translation However other cities and megacities that are not global centres of culture also feature vibrant translation scenes This book abandons the focus on innovative centres and imitative peripheries and follows processes of cultural exchange as they develop Thus it analyses the role of cultural mediators as customs officers or smugglers or both in different proportions in so called peripheral cultures and offers insights into an under analysed body of actors and institutions promoting intercultural transfer in often multilingual and less studied venues such as Trieste Tel Aviv Buenos Aires Lima Lahore or Cape Town Gender in Literary Exchange Anka Ryall, Anne Birgitte Rønning, 2021-03-28 Can the recovery of women's contributions to literary culture be compared to a salvage operation In that case for what purpose The essays in this book explore the role of women writers and readers in Nordic literary culture within a European and worldwide network of literary exchange Specifically they consider the transnational transmission of women's literary texts during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Textual exchange is as a migratory practice entailing processes of textual export import translation reception and dissemination across national boundaries These essays are case studies that not only explore the various transformations that happen when texts migrate from one cultural and linguistic framework to another but also highlight the gendered nature of such transformations and the significance of transcultural exchange for perceptions of gender Spanning from digital humanities and world literature libraries and reading societies to the transnational reception of authors such as Selma Lagerl f Simone de Beauvoir and Monika Fagerholm the essays contribute to an exciting and expanding field of humanities research The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of NORA Nordic Journal of Feminist and Gender Research

Against World Literature Emily Apter, 2014-06-10 Against World Literature On the Politics of Untranslatability argues for a rethinking of comparative literature focusing on the problems that emerge when large scale paradigms of literary studies ignore the politics of the Untranslatable the realm of those words that are continually retranslated mistranslated transferred from language to language or especially resistant to substitution In the place of World Literature a dominant paradigm in the humanities one grounded in market driven notions of readability and universal appeal Apter proposes a plurality of world literatures oriented around philosophical concepts and geopolitical pressure points The history and theory of the language that constructs World Literature is critically examined with a special focus on Weltliteratur literary world systems narrative ecosystems language borders and checkpoints theologies of translation and planetary devolution in a book set to revolutionize the discipline of comparative literature

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology Federico Zanettin, Christopher Rundle, 2022-03-10 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology provides a comprehensive overview of methodologies in translation studies including both well established and more recent approaches The Handbook is organised into three sections the first of which covers methodological issues in the two main paradigms to have emerged from within translation studies namely skopos theory and descriptive translation studies The second section covers multidisciplinary perspectives in research methodology and considers their application in translation research The third section deals with practical and pragmatic methodological issues Each chapter provides a summary of relevant research a literature overview critical issues and topics recommendations for best practice and some suggestions for further reading Bringing together over 30 eminent international scholars from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds this Handbook is essential reading for all students and scholars involved in translation methodology and research

Politicising World Literature May Hawas, 2019-04-12 Politicising World Literature Egypt Between Pedagogy and the Public engages with postcolonial and world literature approaches to examine the worldly imaginary of the novel genre and assert the political imperative to teaching world literature How does canonising world literature relate to societal political or academic reform Alternating between close reading of texts and literary history this monograph studies a corpus of novels and travelogues in English Arabic French Czech and Italian to historicise Egypt s literary relations with different parts of the world in both the modern period and the pre modern period In this rigorous study May Hawas argues that protagonists particularly in times of political crises locate themselves as individuals with communal or political affiliations that supersede if not actually resist national affiliations

Stranger Fictions Rebecca C. Johnson, 2021-01-15 Zaynab first published in 1913 is widely cited as the first Arabic novel yet the previous eight decades saw hundreds of novels translated into Arabic from English and French This vast literary corpus influenced generations of Arab writers but has until now been considered a curious footnote in the genre s history Incorporating these works into the history of the Arabic novel Stranger Fictions offers a transformative new account of modern Arabic literature world literature and the novel Rebecca C Johnson rewrites the history of the global circulation of the novel by moving Arabic literature from the margins of comparative literature to its center Considering the wide range of nineteenth and early twentieth century translation practices including bad translation mistranslation and pseudotranslation

Johnson argues that Arabic translators did far more than copy European works they authored new versions of them producing sophisticated theorizations of the genre These translations and the reading practices they precipitated form the conceptual and practical foundations of Arab literary modernity necessitating an overhaul of our notions of translation cultural exchange and the global Examining nearly a century of translations published in Beirut Cairo Malta Paris London and New York from Qiat R binun Kur z The story of Robinson Crusoe in 1835 to pastiche crime stories in early twentieth century Egyptian magazines Johnson shows how translators theorized the Arab world not as Europe's periphery but as an alternative center in a globalized network Stranger Fictions affirms the central place of mis translation in both the history of the novel in Arabic and the novel as a transnational form itself
