Intimations of Immortality Gerald Leinwand, 2010 My grandfather died when he was sixty five my father died at seventy At eighty eight I am the eldest of three brothers all of us older than our father was at his death Given a reasonable degree of vitality however I would like to live to forever Wouldn't you I would like to be at my grandchildren and great grand children's weddings Wouldn't you I would like to see how it all comes out in the end of time for my family my country for the world Wouldn't you Wouldn't it be great if the intellectual giants of centuries past could be with us yet Many of them achieved their best work in literature art philosophy science or mathematics at advanced ages Wouldn't the world be a better place if the accumulated wisdom of these talented people could still be around to set us straight The poet William Wordsworth thought so when he eulogized John Milton Milton thou shouldst be living at this hour England hath need of thee she is a fen Of stagnant waters With England traumatized by Napoleon Wordsworth sought Milton's help Surely these greats of yesteryear could contribute to our own trauma of global terrorism It is asserted by some that the search for immortality is pornographic Yet it will be remembered of the twenty first century that a conscious effort was made to confront and perhaps conquer death Wasserman helped conquer sexually transmitted diseases Salk the anti polio vaccine Pornographers Nonsense Death be not proud wrote the poet John Donne He was right While searching for immortality we are baffled by age My first wife for forty three years died of rampaging breast cancer my second wife for six years died of virulent brain cancer How does one make sense as to why we are attacked by Parkinson's and Alzheimers by heart disease and cancer Why the Holocaust Why the terror of 9 11 Thus the young may see things as they are and ask Why while the old may still dream of things that never were and ask Why not

Food and the Self Isabelle de Solier, 2013-10-10 We often hear that selves are no longer formed through producing material things at work but by consuming them in leisure leading to meaningless modern lives This important book reveals the cultural shift to be more complex demonstrating how people in postindustrial societies strive to form meaningful and moral selves through both the consumption and production of material culture in leisure Focusing on the material culture of food the book explores these theoretical questions through an ethnography of those individuals for whom food is central to their self foodies It examines what foodies do and why they do it through an in depth study of their lived experiences The book uncovers how food offers a means of shaping the self not as a consumer but as an amateur who engages in both the production and consumption of material culture and adopts a professional approach which reveals the new moralities of productive leisure in self formation The chapters examine a variety of practices from fine dining and shopping to cooking and blogging and include rare data on how people use media such as cookbooks food television and digital food media in their everyday life This book is ideal for students scholars and anyone interested in the meaning of food in modern life
