New Selected Poems of Philip Levine Philip Levine, 2011-09-07 LIGHTS I HAVE SEEN BEFORE The children are off somewhere and when I waken I hear only the buzz of current in the TV and the refrigerator groaning against the coming day I rise and wash there is nothing to think of except the insistent push of water and the pipe s
Off the Map Gloria Fuertes, Philip Levine, Ada Long, 1984

Unselected Poems Philip Levine, 1997 For over 30 years now readers of contemporary poetry have known Levine s work for its elegiac narrative its forceful rhythms and rhetoric and its Vivas praising the dignity of the human spirit With Unselected Poems he rescues many of his best earlier poems and offers a selection of stunning new and uncollected work Christopher Buckley His poems are about endurance in all its senses and that is their affirmation They are about the kind of courage people have when courage fails In short they are such poems as possess beyond their technical strength and emotional urgency a kind of necessity whatever it is the truth must exist for all our sakes Hayden Carruth Bookletter
My Lost Poets Philip Levine, 2018-04-03 Now in paperback essays speeches and journal entries from one of our most admired and best loved poets that illuminate how he came to understand himself as a poet the events and people that he wrote about and the older poets who influenced him In prose both as superbly rendered as his poetry and as down to earth and easy as speaking Levine reveals the things that made him the poet he became In the title essay originally the final speech of his poet laureate year he recounts how as a boy he composed little speeches walking in the night woods near his house and how he later realized these were his first poems He wittily takes on the poets he studied with in the Iowa Writers Workshop John Berryman who was his great teacher and lifelong friend and Robert Lowell who was neither His deepest influences jazz Spain the working people of Detroit are reflected in many of the pieces There are essays on the Spanish poets he admires on William Carlos Williams Wordsworth Keats and others A wonderful moving collection of writings that add to our knowledge and appreciation of Philip Levine both the man and the poet
In Her Words Margaret H. Persin, 2011-04-29 During her lifetime Gloria Fuertes achieved the status of a controversial cultural icon both through her poetry for adults and through her poetry recorded readings and television programs for juveniles This collection of lively essays by authors who specialize in contemporary Spanish poetry approaches the works of Gloria Fuertes from various theoretical and critical perspectives In Her Words speaks to the inherent complexity of Gloria Fuertes poetry as manifested in its ultimate indeterminacy and indecision yet attests to this poet s abiding value as the voice of the marginalized women the poor children all the invisible members of society who were silenced during the years of Spanish dictatorship under Franco This book manifests the prescience of Fuertes stands on a variety of social and cultural issues from women s changing roles in society gender and sexuality identity within a society held captive by a dictatorial regime to more universal themes such as love justice ethics nature and obsolete societal norms In Her Words decisively addresses and ultimately rejects the Spanish cultural elite's inclination to disavow Fuertes influence and reveals how her voice has shaped succeeding generations of Spanish poets and underscored the ubiquity of her verse in contemporary Spanish literature and culture The subtlety and diversity of the essays included in this volume attest to the power of Gloria Fuertes poetic creativity her ability to appeal to a wide audience both in Spain and abroad and her place in the contemporary Spanish poetic canon The Mercy Philip Levine, 2000-10-24 Philip Levine's new collection of poems his first since The Simple Truth was awarded the Pulitzer Prize is a book of journeys the necessary ones that each of us takes from innocence to experience from youth to age from confusion to clarity from sanity to madness and back again from life to death and occasionally from defeat to triumph The book's mood is best captured in the closing lines of the title poem which takes its name from the ship that brought the poet's mother to America A nine year old girl travels all night by train with one suitcase and an orange She learns that mercy is something you can eat again and again while the juice spills over your chin you can wipe it away with the back of your hands and you can never get enough The Last Shift Philip Levine, 2018-04-03 Now in paperback the final collection of new poems from one of our finest and most beloved poets The poems in this wonderful collection touch all of the events and places that meant the most to Philip Levine There are lyrical poems about his family and childhood the magic of nighttime and the power of dreaming tough poems about the heavy shift work at Detroit's auto plants the Nazis and bosses of all kinds telling poems about his heroes jazz players artists and working people of every description even children Other poems celebrate places and things he loved the gifts of winter dawn a wall in Naples an English hilltop Andalusia And he makes peace with Detroit Slow learner that I am it took me one night to discover that rain in New York City is just like rain in Detroit It gets you wet It is a peace that comes to full fruition in a moving goodbye to his home town in the final poem in the collection The Last Shift Breath Philip Levine, 2011-09-07 Always a poet of memory and invention Philip Levine looks back at his own life as well as the adventures of his ancestors his relatives and his friends and at their rites of passage into an America of victories and betrayals He transports us back to the street where he was born early in the final industrial century to help us envision an America he's known from the 1930s to the present His subjects include his brothers a great uncle who gave up on America and returned to czarist Russia a father who survived unspeakable losses the artists and musicians who inspired him and fellow workers at the factory who shared the best and worst of his coming of age Throughout the collection Levine rejoices in song Dinah Washington wailing from a jukebox in midtown Manhattan Della Daubien hymning on the crosstown streetcar Max Roach and Clifford Brown at a forgotten Detroit jazz palace the prayers offered to God by an immigrant uncle dreaming of the Judean hills the hoarse notes of a factory worker who completing another late shift serenades the sleeping streets Like all of Levine's poems these are a testament to the durability of love the strength of the human spirit the persistence of life in the presence of the coming dark Poetry and Islands Rajeev S. Patke, 2018-03-01 In all cultures and times the poetic imagination has fed on the natural attributes of islands An island is either a destination or a home or a place of exile and imprisonment or simply a place to sojourn It is an ideal vehicle for journeys treated as allegories or for acts of finding that turn into acts of losing or the reverse transformation An island is not a continent yet it can be an archipelago An island is both a place in itself and a pretext for imaginings that need a local habitation and a name It can give relief and pleasure or it can frustrate isolate and negate Above all it both invites and resists or contains or constrains the imagination Poetry and Islands explores how islands become repositories of human longings and desires a locus for some of our deepest fears and fantasies It balances historical and geographical reference with a selective approach to poems and poets in English and in translations into English The study of particular poems in which islands figure in exemplary ways is balanced by a more detailed discussion of the poets who have played a major role in shaping human responses to islands on a global scale

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States News of the World Philip Levine, 2011-02-15 A superb new collection from a great American poet still at work on his almost song of himself The New York Times Book Review In both lively prose poems and more formal verse Philip Levine brings us news from everywhere from Detroit where exhausted workers try to find a decent breakfast after the late shift and Henry Ford supremely bored in his mansion clocks in at one of his plants from Spain where a woman sings a song that rises at dawn like the dust of ages through an open window from Andorra where an old Communist can now supply you with anything you want a French radio a Cadillac or if you have a week an American film star The world of his poetry is one of questionable magic a typist lives for her only son who will die in a war to come three boys fish in a river while a fine industrial residue falls on their shoulders This is a haunted world in which exotic animals travel first class an immigrant worker in Detroit yearns for the silence of his Siberian exile and the Western mountains maintain that huge silence we think of as divine A rich deeply felt collection from one of our master poets The Best of Border Voices, 2007 San Diego's Border Voices has been one of the nation's largest poetry festivals for fourteen years featuring nationally renowned poets prize winning student poets from San Diego county and a cadre of poetry teachers from throughout the school district This poetry book collects together the best poems from fourteen years of festivals featuring poems by students teachers and national poets Includes biographical notes on major poets Major poets include Francisco X Alarcn Billy Collins Robert Creeley Dana Gioia Galway Kinnell Steve Kowit Philip Levine Sharon Olds Robert Pinsky Adrienne

Rich Luis Rodriguez Gary Snyder Gary Soto and Mark Strand Contemporary Spanish Poetry Cecile West-Settle, Sylvia Sherno, 2005 Debicki's illuminating application of varied critical methodologies and theoretical approaches in books such as Poetry of Discovery and Spanish Poetry of the Twentieth Century is reflected in all the essays included in this book The Simple Truth Philip Levine, 2011-08-31 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1995 Written in a voice that moves between elegy and prayer The Simple Truth contains thirty three poems whose aim is to weave a complex tapestry of myth history both public and private family memory and invention in a search for truths so basic and universal they often escape us all Talking with Poets Harry Thomas, 2010-07-13 The five interviews in this book were conducted by students in The Art of Poetry a course that Harry Thomas taught for several years The students depth of knowledge and keenness of insight into the poets work is an affirmation of American education The poets respond to the students with a frankness and feeling of fraternity that mounts at times to a sort of communion The poets take up a great range of matters in the interviews the nature of artistic creation the varieties and difficulties of poetic translation poetry and politics religion popular culture the contemporary readership for poetry and the experience of living as a poet in a country not your own They speak with familiarity and enthusiasm of a number of writers including Eliot Joyce Rilke Brodsky Pound Ovid Dante Raleigh Wordsworth Keats Mandelstam and Wilde One of the delights of reading these interviews is to observe the poets responding to the same matter for instance Seamus Heaney speaking of Robert Pinsky's translation of Czeslaw Milosz's great poem The World and Robert Pinsky speaking at length of Seamus Heaney's essay in The Government of the Tongue on Pinsky's translation This is an intimate look into the minds of five of our most celebrated contemporary poets and an invigorating meditation on some of our most human concerns Books in Spanish for Children and Young Adults Isabel Schon, 1987 Like its predecessors this book serves as a guide to any adult interested in selecting books in Spanish for children in preschool through high school Most of the books included in the guide have been published since 1984 and come from Argentina Chile Colombia Costa Rica Cuba Dominican Republic Mexico Nicaragua Puerto Rico Spain Sweden the U S Uruguay and Venezuela The author has identified books that highlight the lifestyle folklore history fiction poetry theater and classical literature of Hispanic cultures as expressed by Hispanic authors and has also included nonfiction and bilingual books and Spanish translations of popular fiction and nonfiction With appendices and indexes New Collected Poems George Oppen, 2008 Michael Davidson has done a masterful job of editing this new edition of the Collected Poems Few poets significantly alter and enhance the state of the art Oppen is one of them Michael Palmer Bookforum The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959 the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry One of the country's oldest programs its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes National Book Awards and many other honors At a time when other programs are being phased out

Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition. Drawing from some 250 volumes, editor Michael Collier documents the wide ranging impact of these works. In his introduction he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades, tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose lyric style. Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators, no other program has had such a fundamental impact. Works by the eighty-six poets included here both document and celebrate that contribution.

PRISMATICS: LARRY LEVIS & CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN POETRY Gregory Donovan, Michele Poulos, 2020-03-04

Prismatics Larry Levis: he was the star risen out of a constellation of poets coming from Fresno. In Prismatics, many of our most notable poets offer insightful, personal and detailed responses to and assessments of Larry's life and work. Especially touching and salient are the interviews with Philip Levine, Peter Everwine, C. G. Hanzlicek, and David St. John. Fresno poets and friends who knew him best and who knew Larry from the start. They testify to his talent, humanity, and unmatched originality and voice. For lovers of Larry's poetry of contemporary poetry, this is an invaluable collection. Christopher Buckley, author of A Condition of the Spirit: As I read through the interviews in Prismatics, I found myself pausing in the middle of chapters rather than between them, so as to savor the feeling of always being immersed in a rich and rewarding conversation. I love the cumulative warmth of this book of so many poets speaking affectionately and thoughtfully about one of the great American poets of the 20th century as friend, colleague, lover, co-conspirator, and cynosure. But more than a commemoration of Larry Levis, Prismatics offers meditations on passion, creativity, self-destruction, ambition, and the nature of literary legacy. It's a book as capacious and complex as the poetry of Levis itself. Nicky Beer, author of The Octopus Game and The Diminishing House.
