W. Hull,2020-07-15 Jefferson Parish is the story of a boy Matthew Laurent Born during the post desegregated south but before full acceptance of races other than his own the white race While much of the overt racism of the old south was gone it was not totally eradicated In fact in the early 1980 s there were still plenty of racist holdouts unwilling to let their old oppressive way die Not long after the death of his brother Matthew s life would dramatically change forever Feeling alone and struggling to make sense of the world Matthew befriended a new classmate Jamal Jamal a black boy new to Jefferson Parish shy and reserved at first he and Matt would form a bond that would last a lifetime Both Matthew and Jamal had big dreams The boys each in search of something but something very different from each other wanted more than Jefferson Parish could offer Matthew would eventually find himself working in the Middle East where he would meet a beautiful young woman that made him feel something he had thought he had lost forever Events would compel Matt to return to Jefferson Parish and force him to address both old and new wounds Back in the parish he soon realized that while some people were willing to change others were not Matt s life is one of turmoil though he himself is not tumultuous Searching for meaning and stability Matt s journey seems fraught with pain yet he can t give up Happiness might be right around the corner Jefferson Parish is the story of family by blood or other racial intolerance friendship and most of all forgiveness
