Noir Alain Silver, James Ursini, 2005-10-01 Los Angeles has always been as much a star in film noir as any actor be it Humphrey Bogart Barbara Stanwyck Burt Lancaster Ava Gardner or Jack Nicholson In L.A. Noir The City as Character renowned film historians Alain Silver and James Ursini explore the world of noir cinema in the context of Los Angeles The book features dozens of noir and neo noir landmark films from Double Indemnity Criss Cross Sunset Boulevard Gun Crazy The Big Heat Kiss Me Deadly and Touch of Evil in the classic period 1940-1960 to such neo noir notables as Chinatown L.A. Confidential Mulholland Drive and Pulp Fiction L.A. Noir illustrates how these noir films use L.A.'s diverse cityscape and architecture to convey a unique vision of urban corruption and existential fatalism not only in the ever changing chaotic downtown of Bunker Hill Main Street and Chinatown but in its affluent coastal communities Santa Monica Malibu as well as its deceptively sunny suburbs South Bay San Fernando Valley The authors deftly analyze the key films of noir while integrating them into the geography and history of this dark city which became such an important icon of noir literature and film L.A. Noir is profusely illustrated with approximately 150 photographs many of them appearing in print for the very first time including production stills from the movies discussed archival photos of the locations from the films and
