Life and Labor in Pueblonuevo, 1887-1939 Patricia A. Schechter, 2024-07-12 This book is a biography of Pueblonuevo del Terrible a mining town located in Andalusia Spain Based on previously unexamined sources the study paints a fresh portrait of industrial workers and their families in C rdoba province enriching our understanding of this mostly agricultural region Previous studies of laboring communities in Spain have identified radical workers miners among them as a destabilizing element due to their insurgent protest activity including lethal violence This study by contrast describes both worker activism and cross class organizing as constructive not destructive and aimed at integration into Spanish society Economically the mining zone was dominated by a French company in the Rothschild portfolio But by running their own city waging peaceful labor strikes raising a church building housing and honoring their dead residents turned a quasi colonial outpost into a pueblo worth defending and they rallied in defense of the Republic at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War In the making of Pueblonuevo del Terrible Spanish men and women contended with the perils of mine work the jolts of industrial capitalism creeping fascism and civil war As such this book tells a village scale story of global events that defined the twentieth century

Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations Héctor Olásolo, 2008 Death and destruction are unavoidable effects of war and combat situations The fact that people have been killed or injured or property has been destroyed should not encourage anyone to rush to the conclusion that war crimes have been committed On the contrary before reaching such a conclusion it is necessary to carefully analyze the conduct of the person causing death injury or damage in order to ascertain whether such conduct is consistent with international humanitarian law Technology law and public opinion on what is acceptable has greatly evolved since World War II The issue of civilian damage caused in combat operations has become an important topic in public opinion since Operation Desert Storm in 1991 Public pressure to limit incidental civilian damage has notably increased following the NATO aerial campaign in Kosovo in 1999 and the subsequent conflicts in Afghanistan in 2001 Iraq in 2003 and Lebanon 2006 Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations focuses on the manner in which unlawful attacks launched during the conduct of hostilities have been dealt with in the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court the international treaty which to date deals most comprehensively with war crimes committed in international and non international armed conflicts and in the case law of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia the first international judicial body that has investigated and prosecuted crimes committed during the conduct of hostilities since World War II

M. de la Portilla, Marco Ceccarelli, 2011-06-04 This volume contains a selection of papers whose content have been presented at the International conferences CIPHI on Cultural Heritage and History of Engineering at University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria in the Canary Islands Spain in recent years The conference series is aimed at bringing together researchers scholars and students from a broad range of disciplines referring to the History of Engineering and Cultural Heritage in a unique multidisciplinary forum to stimulate collaboration among historians architects restaurateurs and engineers These papers illustrate by treating specific emblematic topics and problems technical developments in the historical evolution of engineering concerning cultural heritage Thus emphasis is given to a discussion of matters of cultural heritage with engineering history by reporting authors experiences and views Topics treated include reutilization of industrial heritage the unique example of the Royal Segovia Mint in Spain the image of factories Pedro Juan De Lastanosa and the twenty one books of devices and machines of Juanelo the historical development of paper mills and their machines in South Latium during 19th century a virtual reconstruction of a wave powered flour mill from 1801 3D modelling and animation study of the industrial heritage wonders a new model of the hydraulic machine known as el artificio de Juanelo and the mystery of one Havana portrait on the first steam machine in Cuba This work has been made possible thanks to the invited authors who have enthusiastically shared this initiative and who have spent time and effort in preparing the papers in much more detail than in the conference presentations Cinema of Contradiction Sally Faulkner, 2006-02-22 A key decade in world cinema the 1960s was also a crucial era of change in Spain A Cinema of Contradiction the first book to focus in depth on this period in Spain analyses six films that reflect and interpret these transformations The coexistence of traditional and modern values and the timid acceptance of limited change by Franco's authoritarian regime are symptoms of the uneven modernity that characterises the period Contradiction the unavoidable effect of that unevenness is the conceptual terrain explored by these six filmmakers

One of the most significant movements of Spanish film history the New Spanish Cinema art films explore contradictions in their subject matter yet are themselves the contradictory products of the state's protection and promotion of films that were ideologically opposed to it A Cinema of Contradiction argues for a new reading of the movement as a compromised yet nonetheless effective cinema of critique It also demonstrates the possible contestatory value of popular films of the era suggesting that they may similarly explore contradictions This book therefore reveals the overlaps between art and popular film in the period and argues that we should see these as complementary rather than opposing areas of cinematic activity in Spain

Data Profiling and Insurance Law Brendan McGurk KC, 2019-03-21 The winner of the 2020 British Insurance Law Association Book Prize this timely expertly written book looks at the legal impact that the use of Big Data will have on the provision and substantive law of insurance Insurance companies are set to become some of the biggest consumers of big data which will enable them to profile prospective individual insureds at an increasingly granular level More particularly the book explores how i insurers gain access to information relevant to assessing risk and or the pricing of premiums ii the impact which that increased information will have on substantive insurance law and in particular duties of good faith disclosure and fair presentation of risk and iii the impact that insurers new knowledge may have on individual and group access to insurance This raises several consequential legal questions i To what extent is the use of big data analytics to profile risk compatible at least in the EU with the General Data Protection Regulation ii Does insurers ability to parse vast quantities of individual data about insureds invert the information asymmetry that has historically existed between insured and insurer such as to breathe life into insurers duty of good faith disclosure And iii by what means might legal challenges be brought against insurers both in relation to the use of big data and the consequences it may have on access to cover Written by a leading expert in the field this book will both stimulate further debate and operate as a reference text for academics and practitioners who are faced with emerging legal problems arising from the increasing opportunities that big data offers to the insurance industry
