

propose to take McPherson, 23,000, Thomas, 30,000, and you, 12,000, with Garrard's cavalry at Villanow; McCook between this and Villanow, and Stoneman north of the tunnel. On the contrary, I am glad to have you at all times give me your unqualified opinion freely and frankly. Call in that regiment at Red Clay, and caution the force at Charleston to keep on the north bank and guard the bridge. Thomas will instruct the Cleveland garrison, and I will have a construction train run down to Varnell's and take up a train-load of iron and run it to Chattanooga, so that the enemy cannot use the road whilst we are in the heels. I'll risk that. I think all the chances are in favor of the move. McPherson is already there. Hooker has gone in support, and the defenses of Dalton will not avail Johnston if we interpose between him and Georgia. Buzzard Roost is as hard to pass out as in.

Yours,

W. T. SHERMAN,
Major-General.

I wish you would have Stoneman come to see me the moment you can. He can bring his cavalry near you and send here for corn.

W. T. S.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO,
May 10, 1864—2 p. m.

General SHERMAN:]

GENERAL: I believe one division is enough here. I am ready to march with the other two.

Respectfully,

J. M. SCHOFIELD,
Major-General.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO,
May 10, 1864—5.35 a. m.

Brig. Gen. J. D. COX,

Commanding Third Division, Twenty-third Army Corps:

GENERAL: The commanding general desires you to push your skirmish line forward on your left center and feel the enemy, in order to develop any movement that may be in progress, and find out whether the force on your front has been weakened.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. A. CAMPBELL,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

[Indorsement.]

HDQRS. THIRD DIVISION, TWENTY-THIRD ARMY CORPS,
May 10, 1864—6.10 a. m.

Brig. J. A. CAMPBELL:

MAJOR: The within just received. My skirmish line on left was advanced an hour ago, anticipating the general's desire. We did not develop the enemy's line of battle, and could not without advancing

The Protection of Indigenous Peoples and Reduction of Forest Carbon Emissions Handa Abidin, 2015-07-14 In The Protection of Indigenous Peoples and Reduction of Forest Carbon Emissions Handa Abidin identifies three main approaches that can be used by indigenous peoples to protect their rights in the context of REDD plus Further he discusses how the available protection for indigenous peoples in the context of REDD plus is currently insufficient to quickly address cases where the rights of indigenous peoples have been violated through REDD plus activities Abidin recommends the establishment of a committee and a panel on REDD plus that could convey greater benefits to the context of REDD plus and indigenous peoples as well as to wider contexts such as climate change human rights and international law Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for 2008 Vol.1 , Country Reports on Human Rights Practices For 2006, Vol. 1, April 2008, 110-2 Joint Committee Print, S. Human Rights Committee, 1992 Manual on International Courts and Tribunals Ruth Mackenzie, Cesare P. R. Romano, Yuval Shany, Philippe Sands, 2010 The dramatic rise in the number of international courts and tribunals and the expansion of their legal powers has been one of the most significant developments in international law of the late 20th century The emergence of an international judiciary provided international law with a stronger than ever law enforcement apparatus and facilitated the transformation of many aspects of international relations from being power based to being law based The first edition of the Manual on International Courts and Tribunals published in 1999 was the first book to survey systematically this new institutional landscape by describing in an accessible and uniformly structured manner the legal powers and operating procedures of all major international judicial and quasi judicial bodies In doing so it laid the groundwork for comparative study and research of the law and practice of international courts and tribunals an emerging field of international legal research which has already spurred a series of publications conferences and academic courses This second edition updates the first edition by describing the many legal changes that have taken place in the last decade including important reforms in the laws and procedures of many international courts and tribunals relevant developments in their increasingly rich jurisprudence and the creation of new judicial fora Moreover it assesses the overall record of these judicial bodies The data and legal analysis offered in the book provide both practitioners and academics with an important basis of knowledge that will help them better understand the details of international adjudication and its context The Morals of the Market Jessica Whyte, 2019-11-05 The fatal embrace of human rights and neoliberalism Why did the rise of human rights in the 1970s coincide with the institutionalisation of neoliberalism And why has the neoliberal age also been the age of human rights Drawing on detailed archival research on the parallel histories of human rights and neoliberalism Jessica Whyte uncovers the place of human rights in neoliberal attempts to develop a moral framework for a market society In the wake of World War Two neoliberals saw demands for new rights to social welfare and self determination as threats to civilisation Yet rather than rejecting rights they developed a distinctive account of human rights as tools to depoliticise civil society protect private investments and shape liberal subjects Honing in on neoliberal political thought Whyte shows that the neoliberals developed a stark dichotomy between politics conceived as conflictual coercive and violent and civil society which they depicted as a realm of mutually beneficial voluntary market relations between individual subjects of rights In mobilising human rights to provide a moral language for a market society neoliberals contributed far more than is often realised to today's politics of human rights The UN Human Rights Treaty System Anne Bayefsky, 2021-10-18 Human rights treaties are at the core of the international system for the promotion and protection of human rights Every UN member state has ratified at least one of these treaties making them applicable to virtually every child woman or man in the world over six billion people At the same time human rights violations are rampant The problem is that the implementation scheme accompanying the core human rights standards was drafted during a period of history when effective international monitoring was neither intended nor achievable Today there is a gap between universal right and remedy that is inescapable and inexcusable threatening the integrity of the international human rights legal regime There are overwhelming numbers of overdue reports untenable backlogs minimal individual complaints from vast numbers of potential victims and widespread refusal of states to provide remedies when violations of individual rights are found This landmark Report prepared by Professor Bayefsky envisions a wide ranging number of reforms most of which can be accomplished without formal amendment The recommendations generally assume a six treaty body regime and focus primarily on offering concrete suggestions for improvements in working methods of the treaty bodies and procedures at the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights OHCHR Professor Bayefsky details numerous proposals for bolstering national level partnerships and for following up the output of the treaty monitoring system as a key missing component of the implementation regime One major reform requiring amendment is ultimately recommended namely consolidation of the human rights treaty bodies and the creation of two permanent committees one for the consideration of state reports and one for complaints All individuals agencies and organizations involved in the promotion implementation review analysis and study of human rights protection for all peoples will find this Report an indispensable resource for their work It contains a unique overview of all the working methods of the six human rights treaty bodies a detailed and thorough statistical analysis of the operation of the human rights treaty system and a number of additional annexes which together provide a thorough and comprehensive understanding of the treaty system The international human rights legal system is at a crossroads with the ideal of universality threatened by the fundamental shortfalls in effective implementation This Report offers a clear and substantive path to moving universality beyond rhetoric and towards a treaty regime meaningful and effective in the lives of everyday people Israel Yearbook on Human Rights, Volume 13 (1983) Yoram Dinstein, 2020-10-26 The Israel Yearbook on Human Rights an annual published under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of Tel Aviv University since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in Israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the State of Israel and the Jewish people The Yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to Israel and the Administered Areas which are not otherwise available in English including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations Volume 25 contains among others articles on The Israel Supreme Court and the Law of Belligerent Occupation The Gaza and Jericho Autonomy and Human Rights and The Contribution of Latin America to the Development of the International Court of Justice Diplomatic Interference and the Law Paul Behrens, 2016-05-05 Diplomatic interference carries considerable potential for disruption In this context diplomats have been accused of insulting behaviour the funding of political parties incitement to terrorism and even attempts to topple the host government Reactions can be harsh expulsions are common and occasionally diplomatic relations are severed altogether But an evaluation under international law faces challenges Often enough charges of interference are made when legitimate interests are involved for instance when diplomats criticise the human rights record of their hosts In such cases diplomats may be able to invoke grounds which are recognised under international law On the basis of more than 300 cases of alleged diplomatic interference and the practice of about 100 States and territories Diplomatic Interference and the Law provides an examination of the main areas in which charges of meddling have arisen such as lobbying activities contacts with the opposition propaganda the use of threats and insults and the granting of asylum It analyses situations in which the sovereignty of the receiving State meets competing interests and offers solutions which avoid a conflict of norms It concludes with useful advice for foreign offices and diplomatic agents and underlines the most efficient ways of dealing with situations of alleged interference A book that is here to stay It is essential reading for diplomats academics journalists students and everyone who has an interest in international law and justice Based on rigorous research Paul Behrens book offers new and thoughtful perspectives on the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations which we drafted in 1961 It demonstrates just how important it is to have a lawyer of his impartiality and integrity if we want to reach peaceful and lasting solutions in international relations Diplomatic Interference and the Law has the makings of an instant classic and I have no doubt that it will pave the way for the sorely needed reform of diplomatic law Dr Nelson Iri iz Cas s Vice President of the Committee of the Whole of the Vienna Conference on Diplomatic Relations in 1961 former Head of the diplomatic missions of Uruguay to Austria Czechoslovakia

Hong Kong Denmark and Sweden author of Corruption en la ONU Dr Behrens's book rigorously analyses the legal doctrine of non interference by diplomats in their hosts internal affairs and how it may conflict with legal obligations to combat for example denial of self determination and breaches of human rights Exhaustively researched and in accessible language with copious often entertaining examples it will be an indispensable guide for diplomats Behrens on diplomatic interference will be cited as the definitive authority on the matter for the foreseeable future I recommend this book to diplomats lawyers and the general reader they will all read and refer to it with profit and immense pleasure Sir Brian Barder KCMG BA Cantab is a former British ambassador to Ethiopia Benin and Poland and High Commissioner to Nigeria and Australia Paul Behrens book breaks new ground It is the first study to focus on the vexed question of diplomatic meddling in the domestic affairs of the receiving State It has heightened topicality as many Western governments in their concern to promote human rights and democracy urge their diplomats to be active in their support of civil society particularly in countries with authoritarian governments This book is replete with case studies covering the 50 years since the signature of the Vienna Convention and provides an invaluable pathway through this legal minefield Sir Ivor Roberts KCMG FCIL President of Trinity College Oxford Former British Ambassador to Yugoslavia Ireland and Italy Foreign Relations of the United States United States.
