

The background of the slide features a close-up, slightly angled view of an antique map. The map is made of aged, yellowish-brown paper with intricate, hand-drawn geographical details and some printed text. A dark, polished wooden instrument, possibly a quadrant or a similar navigational tool, is positioned diagonally across the map. The instrument's frame is visible, and it appears to be resting on the map's surface. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the paper and the wood.
