Science Of The Times A New York Times Survey:

"The Progress of Science and Useful Arts" Marjorie Heins, 2002 This report examines the ongoing debate concerning copyright control and free expression with an emphasis on the influence that new technologies have had on this issue A Socioeconomic History of the American Consumer Lawrence R. Samuel, 2025-07-28 This work whose target audience includes both historians and practitioners is a socioeconomic history of American consumers The author shows how over the past century Americans personal and national identities became heavily defined by how they spent money in the marketplace The American consumer is presented as a character on the national stage whose role changed significantly over time based on varying social economic and political conditions What did not change over the course of five different eras however was a continual transformation of Americans from citizens to consumers as the private sphere steadily eclipsed the public or civic arena The principal argument of the work is that alongside critics justifiable claims that American style consumption is ultimately unsustainable consumer culture has consistently served as a principal source of meaning and purpose in people's lives Key insights into the American idea and experience are revealed by charting the trajectory of consumers Book Review Digest, 1927 Winning the Presidency 2008 William J. Crotty, 2015-11-17 The presidential election of 2008 is unique in a history of memorable campaigns for the highest office in the U S Never before has an African American captured the nomination of a major political party Never before have the Republicans nominated a woman for vice president Never before has a woman come so close to capturing the nomination of a major party And with at once one of the oldest and youngest candidates contending for the office never before has the campaign been stretched over such a range of voters and issues Add to that the multiple threats to the U S economy and the longest war the country has ever waged and the electoral context is set This book is the first to describe and assess these monumental developments with original analysis by an all star cast of contributors No other book captures both the range and depth of this one in its early look at the meaning of the most significant election in years one with unprecedented institutional constitutional and policy consequences for all of us
New York State Education Department Bulletin, 1910 Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1914 Surveying the Record Edward Carlos Carter, 1999 Papers given at a conference on Scientific Exploration in North America to 1930 with topics including Cartography Oceanic Exploration Art Anthropology Lewis and Clark and the West This book adds much to our quest for knowledge of who and where we are by illuminating such themes as the role of maps and mapmaking in defining our national identity the origins of Western exploration the cultural clash found in the best selling account of a 19th century physician explorer with Arctic peoples the role of art in the service of science in bringing these newly discovered places and peoples into the American parlor and the impact of Mormon farming techniques on John Wesley Powell's famed 1878 Arid Region Report Black and white maps and illus American Lawyers Richard L. Abel, 1989 This comprehensive picture of the contemporary American legal profession traces its development over the last hundred years Abel examines a variety of topics including the nature and effect of entry barriers the rise and fall of restrictive practices efforts to create demand for lawyers services self regulation the income and status of lawyers the growth of public and private employment the displacement of solo and small firms and the allocation of lawyers to roles
