Practice brings together key authors in the field of qualitative research to critique current trends and expand discourse about the challenges and practices of writing qualitative research. This book is located in the context of professional practice and the practice world. It scopes and maps the broad horizons of qualitative research on practice and explores writing in major qualitative research traditions. A key issue addressed in writing qualitative research particularly the narrative forms is finding a way to write that encapsulates the goals and genre of the research project. Writing is presented as a process and journey and also a way of thinking and creating knowledge. Within research writing is an essential expression of the research frame of reference and a key element of the research genre. This book explores writing for a range of publications including books, chapters, theses and papers for journals. The practical and accessible style of this book makes it an invaluable resource for postgraduate research students, teachers and supervisors and scholars of qualitative research.

Manual on Scientific Communication for Postgraduate Students and Young Researchers in Technical, Natural and Life Sciences Luciano Saso, Oswald Van Cleemput, 2017-08-23. The Manual on Scientific Communication for Postgraduate Students and Young Researchers in Technical, Natural and Life Sciences is meant to be a practical guide for the preparation of theses, papers, posters and other scientific documents. Upon going through the different chapters, the readers should be able to critically search for relevant literature to correctly define and execute a research topic or project, to correctly write a scientific document, to know the characteristics of the different parts of a MSc degree or PhD degree thesis and a scientific paper, to correctly interpret publishing ethically sensitive material, to understand problems about falsification, fabrication of data, plagiarism and ranking of authors and to prepare and present a good poster.

Writing for Publication Mary Renck Jalongo, Olivia N. Saracho, 2016-05-24. This book offers systematic instruction and evidence-based guidance to academic authors. It demystifies scholarly writing and helps build both confidence and skill in aspiring and experienced authors. The first part of the book focuses on the author's role, writing's risks and rewards, practical strategies for improving writing and ethical issues. Part Two focuses on the most common writing tasks: conference proposals, practical articles, research articles and books. Each chapter is replete with specific examples, templates to generate a first draft and checklists or rubrics for self-evaluation. The final section of the book counsels graduate students and professors on selecting the most promising projects, generating multiple related yet distinctive publications from the same body of work and using writing as a tool for professional development. Written by a team that represents outstanding teaching award-winning writing and extensive editorial experience, the book leads teacher-scholar authors to replace the old 'publish or perish' dictum with a different growth-seeking orientation: 'publish and flourish'.
