Homemaking Anindya Raychaudhuri, 2018-10-19 Is it possible to think of a counter hegemonic progressive nostalgia that celebrates and helps sustain the marginalised What might such a nostalgia look like and what political importance might it have Homemaking Radical Nostalgia and the Construction of a South Asian Diaspora examines diasporic life in south Asian communities in Europe North America and Australia to map the ways in which members of these communities use nostalgia to construct distinctive identities Using a series of examples from literature cinema visual art music computer games mainstream media physical and virtual spaces and many other cultural objects this book argues that it is possible and necessary to read this nostalgia as helping to create a powerful notion of home that can help to transcend international relations of empire and capital and create instead a pan national space of belonging This homemaking represents the persistent search for somewhere to belong on one's own terms Constructed through word image and music preserved through dreams and imagination the home provides sustenance in the continuing struggle to change the present and the future for the better

The Perfect Matrimony: The Door to Enter into Initiation Samael Aun Weor, 2025-02-01 Love is the highest religion Samael Aun Weor The First Public Revelation of the Sexual Teachings in Every Religion All religions have symbols myths and cryptic scriptures that point towards sex but their real meanings were kept secret The Perfect Matrimony was the first book to reveal those secrets to the public The Western religions say that our suffering began when Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit an obviously sexual symbol that was never before explained to the public We are suffering today because we are still eating that forbidden fruit When we stop repeating that mistake we can return to Eden a Hebrew word that literally means bliss pleasure delight The forbidden fruit is related to sex Sex is a terrific power that can create or destroy Everything that lives was created through sex Sex is the source of all life even spiritual life Even the soul is created through sex but not the sexual act of the common person To create something divine requires divine sacred sexuality which is very different from the common sexual act To create spiritually we need sexuality that is pure divine holy This is not a book of theories or beliefs but a practical handbook that empowers you to experience the truth for yourself It is filled with practical exercises of sacred sexuality for singles and couples meditation astral projection mantras awakening kundalini and chakras and much more After putting these teachings into daily practice the scriptures of all religions become radiantly clear your spiritual practices become truly effective and powerful and the empty feeling in your heart is replaced by something magical and alive You will then know that real religion is not found in organizations buildings or books it is found in the heart that is inflamed with divine love If you only want one book about real spiritual practice The Perfect Matrimony has everything you need Are you ready for a spiritual and sexual revolution
