Excerpt from Scottish Philosophy A Comparison of the Scottish and German Answers to Hume In the winter of 1882 83 the question of establishing Lectureships in different departments of study was several times under the consideration of the Senatus of the University of Edinburgh It appeared however that the Senatus had no legal right to use the University funds for such an experiment in intramural extension In these circumstances Mr A J Balfour M P most generously offered to supply the endowment of the contemplated Lectureship in Philosophy for the first term of three years The thanks of all friends of the University and of philosophical students in particular are due to Mr Balfour for this act of public spirit About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Scottish Philosophy Andrew Seth, 2000-03 This Elibron Classics title is a reprint of the original edition published by William Blackwood and Sons 1890 London Edinburgh Scottish Philosophy Andrew Seth, 1885
