Jean Baudrillard, 2014-01-07 Watching the president's Christmas message produces this necropolar white mass sensation Seeing the video broadcast of the Christmas service in the cathedral itself with these pathetic screens and the young worshippers slumped around them here and there you tell yourself that God and religion deserved better Deserved to die yes but not this However watching the presidential figure and his sonorous inanity you tell yourself that here at least you got what you deserved Chirac is useless that goes without saying but so are we all Uselessness of this kind has no origin it exists immediately reciprocally like a shared secret you savour it implicitly with its warm bitterness particularly in these cold snaps as the very essence of the social bond Sanctioned by that other interactive uselessness the uselessness of the screen In this stimulating collection of journalistic essays Jean Baudrillard delves into a host of subjects ranging from those of his familiar stomping ground virtual reality Disney television to topics further afield such as children's rights holocaust revisionism AIDS Formula One racing mad cow disease and cloning These intriguing articles demonstrate the true range of Baudrillard's thought and the versatility of the concepts that founded his philosophy Coverage of Psychologists' Services Under the Medicare Program, Including H.R. 774 United States.
