The Medieval Mediterranean between Islam and Christianity Sami Luigi De Giosa, Nikolaos Vryzidis, 2025-05-13 Christian Islamic encounters through religious arts architecture and material culture in the medieval era The coexistence of Christianity and Islam in the medieval Mediterranean led to an interchange of knowledge in architecture and material culture that went well beyond religious and geographical boundaries The use of Islamic objects in Christian contexts the conversion of churches into mosques and the mobility of craftsmen are only some manifestations of this process From crosses found in mosques to European Christian coins with pseudo shahada inscriptions medieval material culture is rich with visual evidence of the two faiths intermingling in both individual objects and monuments In this volume thirteen international scholars explore various aspects of pan Mediterranean Christian Islamic encounters in material culture and art from textiles to precious oils and from metalwork to ceramics covering most of the Mediterranean as well as parts of its extended hinterland from Spain and Italy to Egypt and Georgia Within this frame one of the most relevant yet underexplored lines of investigation is that of the aesthetic space the notion that aesthetic pleasure transcends boundaries paving the way to a cross religious experience and appreciation Indeed God is beautiful and He loves beauty as mentioned in a Hadith narration a universal cry of visual beauty that resonates with all cultures and civilizations Contributors Paschalis Androudis Aristotle University of Thessaloniki Thessaloniki Greece Faruk Bilici Inalco Paris France Maria Bormpoudaki Hellenic Ministry of Culture and Sports Piraeus Greece Sami Luigi De Giosa University of Sharjah Sharjah United Arab Emirates H l ne Fragaki University of Augsburg Augsburg Germany Hani Hamza Independent scholar Cairo Egypt Ana Cabrera Lafuente Instituto de Turismo de Espa a Turespa a Tours Spain Madrid Spain Alison Ohta Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland London United Kingdom Richard Piran McClary University of York York United Kingdom Nino Simonishvili Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University Tbilisi Georgia Nikolaos Vryzidis Aristotle University of Thessaloniki Thessaloniki Greece Arielle Winnik Yale University Art Gallery New Haven United States

The Liturgical Past in Byzantium and Early Rus Sean Griffin,2019-08-15 The first major study of the relationship between liturgy and historiography in early medieval Rus The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W. Hughes,Robert Jewett,2021-10-19 In The Corinthian Correspondence Frank W Hughes and Robert Jewett argue that there were eight original letters by the Apostle Paul to the church in Corinth In the first part of the book they use literary and redaction criticism to show the reasons for the partition theory of 1 and 2 Corinthians Analyzing each of the eight letters and letter fragments using rhetorical criticism they show how the original Corinthian letters were edited and reshaped into 1 and 2 Corinthians in the New Testament After reflections on the rhetoric of these letters and the historical meaning of the reshaping of the images of Paul a final chapter traces the consequences of the reshaping of the Corinthian correspondence and the adoption of the bound book codex instead of the original papyrus scrolls Several figures help the reader understand the redactional process and a new translation of the eight reconstructed Corinthian letters is provided

Fragmented Nature: Medieval Latinate Reasoning on the Natural World and Its Order Mattia Cipriani,Nicola Polloni,2022-06-09 The Latin Middle Ages were characterised by a vast array of different representations of nature These conceptualisations of the natural world were developed according to the specific requirements of many different disciplines with the consequent result of producing a fragmentation of images of nature Despite this plurality two main tendencies emerged On the one hand the natural world was seen as a reflection of God s perfection teleologically ordered and structurally harmonious On the other it was also considered as a degraded version of the spiritual realm a world of impeccable ideas separate substances and celestial movers This book focuses on this tension between order and randomness and idealisation and reality of nature in the Middle Ages It provides a cutting edge profile of the doctrinal and semantic richness of the medieval idea of nature and also illustrates the structural interconnection among learned and scientific disciplines in the medieval period stressing the fundamental bond linking together science and philosophy on the one hand and philosophy and theology on the other This book will appeal to scholars and students alike interested in Medieval European History Theology Philosophy and Science

Looted Libraries, Looted Books Peter Sjökvist,2024-12-02 Supported by the legal ideas of Hugo Grotius the Swedish armies exploited opportunities to seize books as spoils of war from conquered enemies to an unparalleled degree in the seventeenth century They took books from countries such as today s Latvia Poland

Germany the Czech Republic and Denmark distributing the goods to recently founded institutions and private manors in their native country In Looted Libraries Looted Books The Swedish Case Peter Sj kvist gives a summarizing overview of these plunders from which regions and owners full libraries or selected books were taken during the conflicts where they subsequently tended to end up when arriving in Sweden and how they have been received and curated over the years It is argued that it can be questioned whether large portions of the spoils have served any proper user needs in their new contexts

The Old French William of Tyre Philip D. Handyside, 2015-01-27 William of Tyre's history of the Kingdom of Jerusalem has long been viewed as one of the most useful sources for the Crusades and the Latin East from the beginnings of the First Crusade to William's death shortly before Saladin's conquest of Jerusalem However this text was most popular during the medieval period in an Old French translation In The Old French of William of Tyre Philip Handyside identifies the differences between the Latin and French texts and analyses the translator motives for producing the translation and highlights significant changes that may provide a better understanding of the period in question Handyside also argues for a complex manuscript tradition that developed across the medieval Mediterranean

Reimagining Jerusalem's Architectural Identities in the Later Middle Ages Cathleen A. Fleck, 2022-10-10 How can medieval art explain Jerusalem's centrality in the world faiths of Christianity and Islam This book delves into that topic by examining how Jerusalem was creatively represented and reimagined in several intriguing Christian and Islamic artworks in the later Middle Ages c. 1187 to 1356 The book considers how European Catholic crusaders Eastern Christian sects and diverse Muslim factions displayed Jerusalem's architecture to express their interpretation of the holy city's sanctity and influence These examples demonstrate how artworks can reflect Jerusalem's importance to these faiths in the past and illuminate our understanding of its status into the modern era

From Reliable Sources Martha C. Howell, Walter Prevenier, 2001 A lively introduction to historical methodology an overview of the techniques historians must master in order to reconstruct the past Gregory of Nyssa: On the Human Image of God John Behr, 2023-02-22 This book presents the first modern critical edition of the work of Gregory of Nyssa On the Human Image of God formerly known as On the Making of Man De hominis opificio and the first English translation since the nineteenth century This treatise is one of the most important of Gregory's texts Paralleling the structure of Plato's Timaeus Gregory's work begins by offering two analyses of the human being The first presents the human being as the culmination of the ascent made by nature through the various levels of life and as made body and soul in the image of God The second considers why this is not immediately apparent the need for time to be able to grow individually and collectively to this status as the body of Christ the image of God and the role of sexuality within this growth The third part of the work brings both analyses together to see the same movement in the life span of each person The extensive introduction provided in this volume examines the philosophical and theological background of Gregory's text beginning with Anaxagoras Plato the Timaeus Philo and Origen and also compares aspects of Gregory's work with that of Irenaeus of Lyons and Maximus the Confessor "Genizat Germania" - Hebrew and Aramaic Binding Fragments from Germany in Context Andreas Lehnardt, 2010-03-08 Genizat Germania is a project at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz focused on the search for and analysis of Hebrew and Aramaic binding fragments found in the books and files of archives and libraries In recent years this systematic search has revealed several hundred new fragments including some rare Talmudic Midrashic and liturgical fragments The new discoveries both in Germany and elsewhere in Europe have broadened the knowledge of Jewish literature in the Middle Ages and Early Modern periods This volume collects the papers of international scholars which cover recent discoveries in Germany the European Genizah or fragments found in Italy Poland Great Britain and Austria the approaches of similar projects in Austria and the Czech Republic as well as an extensive bibliography Chants, Hypertext, and Prosulas Luisa Nardini, 2021 Chants Hypertext and Prosulas presents the first comprehensive study to integrate textual and musical analyses of liturgical prosulas as they were recorded in medieval Beneventan manuscripts Bibliographie Internationale De L'Humanisme Et De La Renaissance., 2001 The Carole: A Study of a Medieval Dance Robert Mullally, 2017-07-05 The carole was the principal social dance in France and England from c 1100 to c 1400 and was frequently mentioned in French and English medieval literature However it has been widely misunderstood by contributors in recent citations in dictionaries and reference books both linguistic and musical The carole was performed by all classes of society kings and nobles shepherds and servant girls It is described as taking place both indoors and outdoors Its central position in the life of the people is underlined by references not only in what we might call fictional texts but also in historical or quasi historical writings in moral treatises and even in a work on astronomy Dr Robert Mullally's focus is very much on details relevant to the history choreography and performance of the dance as revealed in the primary sources This methodology involves attempting to isolate the term carole from other dance terms not only in French but also in other languages Mullally's groundbreaking study establishes all the characteristics of this dance
