Bawcom,2023-10-18 The way you think of prayer will influence the way you approach praying If perceived as mere duty and obligation there will be no relational joy experienced However if prayer is participation in a vital connection an essential lifeline between your soul and your God through Jesus Christ prayer moves into a different light a new perspective a living relationship Prayer presents itself as God s gift and the only avenue to enjoy communion with the Godhead the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit Think of it actual connection and companionship between you and the Almighty Understanding this relationship purchased by Christ is the purpose of the book you hold in your hands The Lord Jesus found great delight in the presence of his Father The bond of eternal love satisfaction and enriching fulfillment clearly displayed itself in the atmosphere of his prayers If you heard him you would want him to teach you to pray God the Father knew this about you The disciples witnessed Christ praying and it compelled them to ask Lord teach us to pray This little volume expounds his answer The nurturing influence of Christ through the indwelling Holy Spirit gives life to genuine prayer in the child of God Prayer is not overcoming God s reluctance to bless us Rather it is laying hold of his great willingness to do so Come and enter the heavenly atmosphere of this reality Developing an effectual prayer life is a process of growth in the believer s relationship with God It is an invitation to be a colaborer with God in Christian maturity It is a lifelong pursuit This book expounds on some of the essential ways Christ nourishes the soul in effectual prayer

Eat the Bible Micah E. Chung, 2024-07-19. People love their metaphors for the Bible. The Bible is a sword, a mirror, a script, a score, a cathedral, a rule book, a user's manual, a lamp, a love letter. But how did metaphor, which in the eighteenth century was seen as a deceptive rhetorical trick, become such a prominent tool for speaking of Scripture? And how does one judge between a good metaphor and a bad one? This book explores the theological use of metaphor to describe the nature and interpretation of Scripture. It interrogates three such models: the Bible as musical score (Anthony Thiselton), the Bible as theo-dramatic script (Kevin Vanhoozer), and the Bible as light (John Feinberg), seeking to evaluate their faithfulness to Scripture and church tradition, their fittingness to the current culture, and their fruitfulness for understanding and practicing the biblical text. The author then proposes and explores what he considers a better model, one drawn from the Bible itself, namely that of Scripture as food.
