The Author in Criticism Elio Attilio Baldi, 2020-03-11 The Author in Criticism Italo Calvino's Authorial Image in Italy the United States and the United Kingdom explores the cultural and historic patterns and differences in the critical readings of Italian author Italo Calvino's works in the United States of America the United Kingdom and Italy It considers the external factors that contribute to create recognizable patterns in the readings of Calvino's texts in different contexts This volume therefore covers most notably matters of genre science fiction postmodernism cultural perceptions and conventions the re current image of the author in different media academic schools curricula and canons biographical information such as gender and background and translation and the language in which the author speaks or fails to speak to us It traces the influence of these aspects in the academic discourse on Calvino The Author in Criticism also analyzes Calvino's various professional roles as writer editor essayist journalist private correspondent and public cosmopolitan intellectual reappraising their often little acknowledged importance for academic criticism An important underlying idea is that the preconceived image that every critic has of Calvino before even opening one of his books is often solidified and repeated even in the most refined and complex critical analyses This volume purposefully foregrounds the textual and non textual parts that are usually considered peripheral to the works of an author such as book covers blurbs reviews talks interviews etc In this way this book provides insight into the reception of Calvino s works in different countries Moreover it forms a broader reflection of and on important constants in the workings of literary criticism and on the way academic discourses have developed in various cultural contexts over the last decades Scribner's Magazine Edward Livermore Burlingame,Robert Bridges,Alfred Sheppard Dashiell,Harlan Logan,1916 Teaching the Taboo Rick Ayers,William Ayers,2014-04-01 Rick and William Ayers renew their challenge to teachers to teach initiative to teach imagination to teach the taboo in the new edition of this bestseller Drawing from a lifetime of deep commitment to students teaching and social justice the authors update their powerful critique of schooling and present classroom stories of everyday teachers grappling with many of today s hotly debated issues They invite educators to live a teaching life of questioning to imagine classrooms where every established and received bit of wisdom common sense orthodoxy and dogma is open for examination interrogation and rethinking Teaching the Taboo Second Edition is an insightful guide to effective pedagogy and essential reading for anyone looking to evolve as an educator A Natural History of Love Diane Ackerman,2011-06-01 The bestselling author of A Natural History of the Senses now explores the allure of adultery the appeal of aphrodisiacs and the cult of the kiss Enchantingly written and stunningly informed this audaciously brilliant romp through the world of romantic love Washington Post Book World is the next best thing to love itself Without a Flock William Flewelling,2020-10-05 In the free church tradition the pastoral prayer has long assumed an important place in the worship of the congregation It is expected that the pastor will have a more or less extended prayer pertinent to the day and or to the run of the service in general Under the circumstances of normal practice these would involve awareness of a congregation or a flock for a pastor to tend After ending a normal pastorate and entering retirement and the far more occasional happenstance of entering a pulpit as a guest the regular preparation for a worship leading practice became desirable personally As a part of that preparation most often without entering the leadership of worship least of all as pastor the pastoral prayer was prepared This book collects eleven years worth of pastoral prayers linked to the preaching text of the day by way of the sermon prepared As there is no flock as reference point these are indeed Without A Flock Singing Wilderness Sigurd F. Olson,2012-05-30 To do with the calling of loons with northern lights and the great silences of land lying northwest of Lake Superior It is concerned with the simple joys the timelessness and perspective found in a way of life which is close to the past I have heard the singing in many places but I seem to hear it best in the wilderness lake country of the Quetico Superior where travel is still by pack and canoe over the ancient trails of the Indians and voyageurs Thus the author sets the theme and tone of this enthralling book of discovery about one of the few great primitive areas in our country which have withstood the pressures of civilization Acute natural perceptivity and a profound knowledge of the relationships to be found in nature combine here in vivid evocations of the sights the sounds the vast stillnesses and the events of the wilderness as the seasons succeed each other But Mr Olson is not content merely to describe he probes for meanings that will lead the reader to a different and more revealing way of looking at the out of doors and to a deeper sense of its eternal values In each of the thirty four chapters of The Singing Wilderness he has sought to capture an essential quality of our magnificent lake and forest heritage He shows us what can be read from the rocks of the great Canadian Shield he offers a delightful essay on the virtues of pine knots as fuel he writes of the ways of a canoe of flashing trout in the pools of the Isabella of tamarack bogs caribou moss the flight of wild geese timber wolves and the birds of the ski trails And much more with something to satisfy every taste for wilderness experience Superbly illustrated with 38 black and white drawings by Francis Lee Jaques The Singing Wilderness is a book that no lover of nature will want to be without To anyone who contemplates a vacation in the lake country of northern Minnesota and adjoining Canada it is the perfect vade mecum

Some Reflective Prayers William Flewelling,2011-09-16 The prayer poems of this collection are spiritual reflections on my engagement with the three readings listed at the top of each reflective prayer They are intended to invite the reader into a world of engagement with the spirit in the texts As poems they are meant to become poets writing meaning in the engagement of a reader with the words and rhythms and images portrayed

An Eighth Collection of Reflective Prayers William Flewelling,2023-02-15 These Reflective Prayers are the result of permitting a gentle reading of the lectionary texts for a given service to resonate in me and emerge as a searching engagement of the word with my spirit in a mood of settled joy The ninety samples are the most recent in order at the time of publication

LINK Lucella Campbell,2017-09-01 The story is about an adventuresome non physical being Link who rediscovers Earth and the concept of the physical during his explorations of other worlds He gets fascinated with Earth and makes regular visits to this planet bringing back much information to his realm Altura But because he is formless he can observe but cannot truly experience what it is to be physical He wants to have this experience Over time that desire grows in him and eventually he chooses to trade his non physical state to become instead human And so the book starts with Link finding himself under a tree on Earth as he slowly discovers his physical condition He is stunned by the fact that he cannot easily penetrate the tree and moreso that he cannot consciously access the wider realm of thought and is instead stuck in an individualized body which is seemingly prone to constantly shifting emotions controlled by a pendulum that swings between love and a sense of well being on the one hand and fear on the other Dax comes upon Link in this state of self discovery as he is in the process of learning to move his limbs Dax is a young 12 year old boy who is the village

favorite He is very curious and lovable and often wanders out to the forested area beyond the village to rediscover nature This is where he meets Link the new human naked They engage in conversation and Link unfolds knowledge about creation different life forms in the universe physical and non physical how physicality came to be and the essential role of death in returning us to the realm of spirit and the possible option of choosing not to return to the turmoil of the physical existence all very new and enthralling for Dax and maybe for the reader The rest of the book is about Link's experience and observations of the human condition He learns about how central greed competition and dominance is to the human way of being as he outmanoeuvres Wall St and is asked to leave He learns about mistrust as he loses another job because he far outperforms his peers and is considered a freak He learns about the driving attraction between the genders when he meets Ria Through his final job as a social worker he goes on to learn much more about the highs and lows of being human and how best to help those who are more ready to move on to a higher level of being and understanding He recognizes that all life struggles are a misplaced attempt to connect to something higher and to find the wholeness we have lost when we unknowingly chose identification with form over spirit We are all on a journey into our wholeness In all of this Link has as his grounding Granma Hale Dax's grandmother who is always there to give him a listening ear learn from his constant unfoldings and facilitate his adjustment to Earth It was she for instance who brought together some key people in the village to a discussion at her house to build acceptance of this strange boy from another realm who suddenly finds himself here It was she too who found him his jobs Toward the end of the book she passes away peacefully enjoying the beautiful sunset which both herself and Link loved so much and which occurs often in the book The story ends with a poem which attempts to trigger in us the freedom to experience what we are at our core and create that LINK
