Writing Kit Carson Susan Lee Johnson,2020-10-28 In this critical biography Susan Lee Johnson braids together lives over time and space telling tales of two white women who in the 1960s wrote books about the fabled frontiersman Christopher Kit Carson Quantrille McClung a Denver librarian who compiled the Carson Bent Boggs Genealogy and Kansas born but Washington D C and Chicago based Bernice Blackwelder a singer on stage and radio a CIA employee and the author of Great Westerner The Story of Kit Carson In the 1970s as once celebrated figures like Carson were falling headlong from grace these two amateur historians kept weaving stories of western white men including those who married American Indian and Spanish Mexican women just as Carson had wed Singing Grass Making Out Road and Josefa Jaramillo Johnson's multilayered biography reveals the nature of relationships between women historians and male historical subjects and between history buffs and professional historians. It explores the practice of history in the context of everyday life, the seductions of gender in the context of racialized power and the strange contours of twentieth century relationships predicated on nineteenth century pasts. On the surface it tells a story of lives tangled across generation and geography. Underneath run probing questions about how we know about the past and how that knowledge is shaped by the conditions of our knowing.

Successful Student Writing through Formative

Assessment Harry Grover Tuttle, 2013-09-13 Use formative assessment to dramatically improve your students' writing. In Successful Student Writing Through Formative Assessment, educator and international speaker Harry G. Tuttle shows you how to guide middle and high school students through the prewriting, writing, and revision processes using formative assessment techniques that work. This brand new set of strategies includes real writing samples plus easy-to-use applications that will allow you to monitor, diagnose, and provide continual feedback to your students. You'll help them perfect their written communication skills and ready them for further growth. Tuttle offers tips on breaking large writing assignments into several smaller tasks, identifying red flags, varying your feedback methods, and more. Enhance your instruction by assessing students at specific points throughout the writing process and help them to become better writers as a result.

Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms Donna Kalmbach Phillips, Mindy Legard

Larson, 2015-12-22 Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms nurtures teachers' identities as writers, connects to the realities of writing instruction in real and diverse classrooms, and encourages critical and creative thinking. This text is about writing instruction as a journey teachers and students embark on together. The focus is on learning how to teach writing through specific teaching and learning structures found in the Writing Studio: mini lessons, teacher and peer conferencing, guided writing, and sharing, celebrating, and broadcasting writing. Pedagogical features include teaching structures and strategies, Problematising Practice, classroom scenarios, assessment resources, and a Companion Website. Because a teacher who views him or herself as a writer is best positioned to implement the Writing Studio, a parallel text, Becoming a Writer, gives readers space to consider who they are as a writer, their personal process as a writer, and who they might become as a writer.
