Glover, 2022-11-13 This 2nd book is a continuation of the 1st book The index at the back of the book is brilliant The contents list at the front of the book is in alphabetical order and is a list of the horses names gives paragraph numbers Whereas the Index gives the Rider Owner in alphanumeric order and gives paragraph numbers So if you do not know the name of a person's horse you would look up the person in the Index and it would indicate the paragraph numbers to find the answer For instance Steptoe and Son would be under S in the Index and this would lead you to Hercules the strong man from Greek Mythology Or Toy Story 2 would lead you to Bullseye Books 3 and 4 are in the process of compiling it's a Never Ending Story

Mouse Morality Annalee R. Ward, 2010-01-01 2004 Clifford G Christians Ethics Research Award The Carl Couch Center for Social and Internet Research Kids around the world love Disney animated films and many of their parents trust the Disney corporation to provide wholesome moral entertainment for their children Yet frequent protests and even boycotts of Disney products and practices reveal a widespread unease with the sometimes mixed and inconsistent moral values espoused in Disney films as the company attempts to appeal to the largest possible audience In this book Annalee R Ward uses a variety of analytical tools based in rhetorical criticism to examine the moral messages taught in five recent Disney animated films The Lion King Pocahontas The Hunchback of Notre Dame Hercules and Mulan Taking the films on their own terms she uncovers the many mixed messages they purvey for example females can be leaders but male leadership ought to be the norm stereotyping is wrong but black means evil historical truth is valued but only tell what one can sell etc Adding these messages together Ward raises important questions about the moral ambiguity of Disney's overall worldview and demonstrates the need for parents to be discerning in letting their children learn moral values and life lessons from Disney films

The Protection of Non-Traditional Trademarks Martin Senftleben, 2019-01-11 This volume offers a detailed analysis of the issues related to the protection of non traditional marks In recent years the domain of trademark law and the scope of trademark protection has grown exponentially Today a wide variety of non traditional marks including colour sound smell and shape marks can be registered in many jurisdictions However this expansion of trademark protection has led to heated discussions and controversies about the impact of the protection of non traditional marks on freedom of competition and more generally on socially valuable use of these or similar signs in unrelated non commercial contexts These tensions have also led to increasing litigation in this area across several jurisdictions This book provides an overview of the debate and state of the law surrounding non traditional marks at the international regional and national level In particular this book addresses relevant international treaties administered by the World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO and the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects to Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS as well as several regional and national legislations and leading judicial decisions in order to examine current law and practice culminating in critical reflections and suggestions on the topic This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 3 0 licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations
