Looking For Trouble And Other Stories:

Looking for Trouble and other Mostly Yeoville Stories Colleen Higgs, 2012-03-25 Looking for Trouble is a collection of short stories set in Yeoville from the mid 1980s to the early 1990s. The stories capture with a dark humour the lives of young people trying to make a go of things given the constraints of the country and the volatile period. Most of the stories have been published in literary magazines or in collections in South Africa, the UK and Uganda. Erceldoune & Other Stories Richard Leigh, 2006-10-01 Three narratives and an essay by New York Times bestselling author Richard Leigh. Mr Leigh is co-author with Michael Baigent and Henry Lincoln of Holy Blood Holy Grail, the controversial international bestseller. With Michael Baigent, Mr Leigh has co-authored The Messianic Legacy, Secret Germany, The Inquisition and The Elixir, and the Stone Here. Leigh weaves three tales of magic and timeless mystery: Two novellas, Erceldoune and The Oisín Society, one short story Druidesse and an essay Mythic Logic explore the forces at play where the past, present and future of Ireland intersect. Looking for Trouble Leslie Cockburn, 2013-07-31 News correspondent Leslie Cockburn has dined with the Cali Cartel, marched with the Khmer Rouge, hunted down the Black Turban in Afghanistan, pursued the Russian mafia to the Arctic Circle, shared pomegranate sauce with the Ayatollahs and stopped a small Kurdish war, but she has never told these stories in a book until now. Cockburn was one of the first women to break into the tight fraternity of combat and third world reportage when she began work at the London bureau of NBC News in 1976, where successful news gathering required unorthodox tactics, stamina and, for best results, a criminal mind. By the time she moved to CBS's 60 Minutes, Cockburn had interviewed Muammar Qaddafi and Margaret Thatcher, been arrested as a spy in Gambia and effectively eliminated whatever doubts her colleagues might have had about a woman's ability to tackle the news business's most dangerous assignments. A mother of three who has made a career of breaking down barriers, Leslie Cockburn has exposed the tobacco lobby in Washington and human rights violations in Cambodia, and her impact on foreign and domestic policy has been as powerful as her impact on the rights and prerogatives of working women. In an industry in which, as late as 1973, women had to lobby to wear trousers to work, Leslie Cockburn was determined to combine a strong family life with a strong professional life, sacrificing neither. With a cast of generals, drug lords, rock stars and kings, LOOKING FOR TROUBLE is the incredible story of a career that has spanned the history-making news events of the last two decades. The Betrayal and Other Stories Sivasankari, 2024-11-20 Sivasankari, born October 14, 1942, is a renowned Tamil writer and activist. She has carved a niche for herself in the Tamil literary world during the last four decades with her works that reflect an awareness of social issues, a special sensitivity to social problems, and a commitment to set people thinking. She has many novels, novellas, short stories, travelogues, articles, and biographies to her credit. Her works have been translated into several Indian languages, English, Japanese, and Ukrainian. Eight of her novels have been made into films, having been directed by renowned directors like K. Balachander, S.P. Muthuraman, and Mahendran. Her novel Kutti on girl child labour, filmed by the director Janaki Viswanathan, won the President's Award.

Sivasankari's novels have also been made as teleserials and have won the national as well as regional Best Mega Serial awards. As a multi-faceted personality she has won many prestigious awards including Kasturi Srinivasan Award, Raja Sir Annamalai Chettiyar Award, Bharatiya Bhasha Parishad Award, Woman of the year 1999-2000 by the International Women's Association and so on. Knit India Through Literature is her mega project involving intense sourcing, research and translations of literature from 18 Indian languages with a mission to introduce Indians to other Indians through culture and literature.

CRASH and other STORIES Dick Donaghue, 2013-02-28. This collection of short stories deals with a wide gambit of underlying emotions of love, dedication, mistrust, hope and many of the traits and elements that make up the complexity of human beings from all walks of life and settings. It is these diverse characteristics that make our fellow humans so interesting. Many of these stories have been published both locally and nationally in Ireland. Mexico is Missing and Other Stories J. David Stevens, 2006. What's America to do when one day Mexico suddenly disappears? That question asked by the title story in Mexico Is Missing sets the tone for a collection whose individual stories have been described as provocative, intensely relevant and wickedly macabre. Thematically and formally diverse, these pieces are unified by their devotion to the offbeat, even insane moments of contemporary life. A widow hears a voice from her computer that claims to be God. An unnamed narrator develops an unhealthy fascination with his mailman. Several characters from a joke come to life and wonder what to do with themselves. A poet married to a porn star considers the real meaning of love. The subjects of this volume range widely. From Snoopy to Southern Baptists, from witch trials to infomercials, from the President's golf game to well, the President's penis, anything is fair game in a collection that blends satire with a sincere desire to find meaning in the jumbled world that we daily inhabit. A literary critic and author, Stevens also demonstrates his formal range by juxtaposing traditional linear stories against micro-fictions and longer fractured narratives. The result is a book that traverses the literary map with impressive dexterity. Individually, the stories in Mexico Is Missing will provide various pleasures for every reader. But taken together, they represent a more profound effort to blend those diametric impulses, formal, cultural and sociopolitical, which so often define contemporary experience. This collection of 23 short stories by J. David Stevens is clever, sardonic and humorous. While you're laughing, Stevens also gives you plenty of things to think about: spirituality, the negligence of the mass media, American politics and relationships. Book jacket. Other People's Children and Other Stories Cecilia Kato, 2014-12-02.

The Nigerian Civil War left behind unsung heroines and children. Some of them had befriended soldiers to ensure the survival of their families. These children and others born out of wedlock constitute a community of people who have identity crises rocking their lives. Also, veterans of the war, abandoned by the authorities, were left as ordinary individuals to contend with the war's destructive impact. This is the focus of the title story Other People's Children. Homeless captures the helplessness of isolated communities that are ill-prepared to battle the insurgency in northern Nigeria. Habib's Triumph tells of the phenomenon of forced marriages even in literate families. Literacy, however, offers a victim the freedom of choice, which people of previous generations did not enjoy Broken Lives exposes the pain of broken relationships on college campuses While a young man walks away unscathed to enter another relationship a young woman is left to nurse the wounds for a lifetime The Peoples Court is a reflection of peoples rush to Nigerias capital city Abuja in search of greener pastures Some leave home only to compete with rodents in settlements that are constantly demolished without adequate notice or compensation by the authorities so as to ensure conformity to the citys master plan Temples of Desire and other Stories K.R.
