Multiculturalism And The Politics Of Recognition An Essay:

Multiculturalism and the Politics of Recognition Charles Taylor, 1992 Essay om minoritetsgruppers anerkendelse i samfundet ud fra to forskellige modeller Multiculturalism Charles Taylor, 1994-08-22 A new edition of the highly acclaimed book Multiculturalism and The Politics of Recognition this paperback brings together an even wider range of leading philosophers and social scientists to probe the political controversy surrounding multiculturalism Charles Taylor's initial inquiry which considers whether the institutions of liberal democratic government make room or should make room for recognizing the worth of distinctive cultural traditions remains the centerpiece of this discussion It is now joined by Jürgen Habermas's extensive essay on the issues of recognition and the democratic constitutional state and by K Anthony Appiah's commentary on the tensions between personal and collective identities such as those shaped by religion gender ethnicity race and sexuality and on the dangerous tendency of multicultural politics to gloss over such tensions These contributions are joined by those of other well known thinkers who further relate the demand for recognition to issues of multicultural education feminism and cultural separatism Praise for the previous edition Multiculturalism and "The Politics of Recognition" Charles Taylor, 1992

White Backlash and the Politics of Multiculturalism Roger Hewitt, 2005-06-23 The murder of Stephen Lawrence led to the widest review of institutional racism seen in the UK Sections of the white working class communities in south London near to the scene of the murder however displayed deep hostility to the equalities and multiculturalist practice of the local state and other agencies Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book relates these phenomena to the backlash to multiculturalism evident during the 1990s in the USA Australia Canada the UK and other European countries It examines these within the unfolding social and political responses to race equalities in the UK and the USA from the 1960s to the present in the context of changes in social class and national political agendas This book is unique in linking a detailed study of a community at a time of its critical importance to national debates over racism and multiculturalism to historically wider international economic and social trends Multiculturalism and Moral Conflict Maria Dimova-Cookson, Peter Stirk, 2009-10-16 Bringing together leading scholars on multiculturalism this book confronts the reality of moral conflict in the debate on multiculturalism while resisting the simplification which frequently accompanies commentary on both sides of a polarised debate

The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism Duncan Ivison, 2016-03-23 The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism brings together a collection of new essays by leading and emerging scholars in the humanities and social sciences on some of the key issues facing multiculturalism today It provides a comprehensive and cutting edge treatment of this important and hotly contested field offering scholars and students a clear account of the leading theories and critiques of multiculturalism that have developed over the past twenty five years as well as a sense of the challenges facing multiculturalism in the future Key leading scholars including James Bohman Barbara Arneil Avigail Eisenberg Ghassan Hage and Paul Patton discuss multiculturalism in different cultural and national contexts and across a range of disciplinary approaches In addition to contributions Duncan Ivison also provides a comprehensive Introduction which surveys the field and offers an extensive guide to further reading This is a key volume for anyone interested in multiculturalism and its political premise The Play of Reason Linda J. Nicholson,1999 Women morality and history Feminism and Marx integrating kinship with the economic Feminist theory the private and the public Interpreting Gender The myth of the traditional family Social criticism without philosophy an encounter between feminism and postmodernism with Nancy Fraser Bringing it all back home reason in the twilight of foundationalism To be or not to be Charles Taylor and the politics of recognition Emotion in postmodern public spaces Multiculturalism and International Law Sienho Yee,Jacques-Yvan Morin,2009-01-01 This volume examines the role and influence of multiculturalism in general theories of international law in the composition and functioning of international organizations such as the ICJ the ILC the UN and the ICC and in the progressive development of substantive international law regarding issues such as anti terrorism cultural identity the Danish cartoons controversy indigenous peoples and cultural exemptions at the WTO With Forewords from Boutros Boutros Ghali and Shigeru Oda this authoritative volume contains contributions from 36 distinguished scholars from every continent of the world tackling multiculturalism and international law an ever more topical issue in honour of appropriately Edward McWhinney an eminent scholar who has spent a substantial part of his life promoting multiculturalism

Multiculturalism and Integration Michael Clyne,James Jupp,2011-07-01 Multiculturalism has been the official policy of all Australian governments Commonwealth and State since the 1970s It has recently been criticised both in Australia and elsewhere Integration has been suggested as a better term and policy Critics suggest it is a reversion to assimilation However integration has not been rigorously defined and may simply be another form of multiculturalism which the authors believe to have been vital in sustaining social harmony Research Handbook on Multiculturalism Geoffrey Brahm Levey,2025-03-12 This Research Handbook presents a comprehensive assessment of multiculturalism in political theory and practice from an international perspective Geoffrey Brahm Levey brings together 30 leading experts from around the world to assess the current state of the field charting lines of inquiry for further research Multiculturalism and Identity Politics Kalika Shah,2019-12-20 This book aims at analysing the fiction produced by the expatriate Parsee writers of the Indian subcontinent Bapsi Sidhwa Rohinton Mistry and Boman Desai These Parsee writers of the South Asian origin have emigrated to Canada and USA in the latter part of the twentieth century Their works offer several possibilities seen from the multicultural point of view The fiction of these Parsee diasporic writers examines the problem of migration relocation and changing identities from a vantage point of distance gained by an insider s view of their community and an outsider s view from the host country Dislocations even when voluntary always have a traumatic side to it due to the process of acculturation assimilation into or differences with the host country and the issue of rights and privileges in the new location For the diasporic communities of different backgrounds their memory history and cultural beliefs are the important factors that determine their identities These Parsee novels demonstrate how individual and group collective identities of the Parsees get constructed and reconstructed redefined against the changing multinational contexts Multicultural and Marginalized Voices of Postcolonial Literature Varun Gulati, Garima Dalal, 2017-05-30 Women and the word marginalization have never remained oxymoronic the cross cultural texts and Engels interest on subjugation make a perfect recipe for this incongruity Multicultural and Marginalized Voices of Postcolonial Literature traces multifarious facets of marginalized literature across the world giving a brilliant overview of the historical roots of multiculturalist and marginalized sections The fourteen chapters relate key literary and cultural texts and cover a broad spectrum of historical linguistic and theoretical issues There are three sections in the book section I has four chapters dealing specifically theoretical constructions and representations Section II consists of four chapters that offer varied spectrum of discourses on world literature intersecting with the frameworks of literary theories Section III comprises six chapters that explore the mind of dalits subalterns colonial women and gender issues of a variety of Indian English Writers and draw varied perspectives of it The Politics of Judgment Kennan Ferguson, 2007-03-06 This innovative and theoretically sophisticated book investigates how aesthetic judgment forms the groundwork for understanding political identities It posits aesthetics as central to conceptions of politics that are based on how people understand the relationship between themselves and larger communities Ferguson focuses not only on how different theoretical conceptions of political judgment relate to one another but also on their historical development and potential meaning for contemporary scholarship across the humanities and social sciences Drawing on recent contributions to philosophy economics cultural studies feminism psychology and anthropology The Politics of Judgment demonstrates how modern political identities depend upon and are formed by aesthetic judgment Political theorists social scientists philosophers and cultural critics will find this book especially useful though general readers will also be attracted by the author s keen insight into contemporary political questions Multiculturalism, Chinese Identity, and Education Jason Cong Lin, 2022-11-02 In Chinese societies Chinese identity is an important yet controversial topic This book examines official understandings of Chinese identity in Mainland China and Hong Kong exploring how the latest governments of Mainland China and Hong Kong conceptualize Chinese identity how government endorsed textbooks frame it in different subjects and how a multicultural approach can enhance understanding of identity in both societies Using content analysis to support his theoretical arguments Lin offers an in depth updated and detailed picture of how the governments of Mainland China and Hong Kong and their endorsed textbooks encourage people in these societies to respond to the question of who are we He also elaborates on how the current approach to understanding Chinese identity can be harmful and examines how a multicultural approach could better fit these Chinese contexts and enhance understanding of who are we Given that the question of identity causes trouble everywhere and many countries are debating approaches to understanding diverse identities in their own societies this book provides valuable insights into the Chinese perspective to allow readers to more fully understand global frameworks of identity This book will interest researchers and students in the fields of multiculturalism multicultural education national identity identity politics and China and Hong Kong studies Liberals and Cannibals Steven Lukes, 2017-01-31 With debates on the meaning of liberal society more heated than ever this is a timely re issue of a classic text Can the tension between relativism and the moral universalism current in contemporary politics be resolved within the framework of liberalism How is liberal society to interpret the diversity of morals Is pluralism the appropriate response How does pluralism differ from the widely condemned ethnocentric relativism liberalism for the Liberals cannibalism for the cannibals Confronting liberal thought with its own limitations Steven Lukes work is more relevant than ever While recognizing the dangers of moral imperialism Lukes argues that a relativist position based on identifying clearly distinct cultural and moral communities is incoherent Drawing on work in anthropology and philosophy he examines the nature of social justice the politics of identity and human rights theory Handbook of European Social Policy Patricia Kennett, Noemi Lendvai-Bainton, 2017-08-25 This Handbook will comprise of 29 original pieces from key contributors to the field of European social policy It is intended to capture the state of the art in European social policy and to generate and contribute to debates on the the future of European social policy in the 21st Century It will be a comprehensive and authoritative resource for research and teaching covering themes and policy areas including social exclusion pensions education children and family as well as mobility and migration multiculturalism and climate change Constitutional Design for Divided Societies Sujit Choudhry, 2008 How should constitutions respond to the challenges raised by ethnic linguistic religious and cultural differences In this volume leading scholars of constitutional law comparative politics and political theory address this debate at a conceptual level as well as through numerous country case studies Reconciling Canada Jennifer Henderson, Pauline Wakeham, 2013-06-17 Truth and reconciliation commissions and official governmental apologies continue to surface worldwide as mechanisms for coming to terms with human rights violations and social atrocities As the first scholarly collection to explore the intersections and differences between a range of redress cases that have emerged in Canada in recent decades Reconciling Canada provides readers with the contexts for understanding the phenomenon of reconciliation as it has played out in this multicultural settler state In this volume leading scholars in the humanities and social sciences relate contemporary political and social efforts to redress wrongs to the fraught history of government relations with Aboriginal and diasporic populations The contributors offer ground breaking perspectives on Canada s culture of redress broaching questions of law and constitutional change political coalitions commemoration testimony and literatures of injury and its aftermath Also assembled together for the first time is a collection of primary documents including government reports parliamentary debates and redress movement statements prefaced with contextual information Reconciling Canada provides a vital and immensely relevant illumination of the dynamics of reconciliation apology and redress in contemporary Canada Ethics and Politics Peter Kemp, Noriko Hashimoto, 2015 The main theme of volume 4 of Eco ethica is Ethics and Politics In the first and second part the authors examine the sometimes conflictual relationship between ethics and politics from an eco ethical perspective They investigate how our conceptions of both ethics and politics have been shaped historically as well as by today s technological conjuncture The third part continues the discussion of French philosopher Paul Ricoeur 1913 2005 begun in volume 3 The essays here focus on how his conception of the connections and differences between ethics and politics led him to embrace certain paradoxes in politics and forced him to become suspicious of apolitical thinking Multiculturalism and Minority Religions in Britain Malory Nye, 2012-12-06 A detailed case study of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON in Britain The book studies the particular development of a new religious movement within the context of Britain and issues relating to minority religions place within a multicultural but still hegemonically Christian society
