Transracial Adoption, Identity, and Racism in the United States , Kyrai E. Antares, 2023-06-21 Transracial Adoption Identity and Racism in the United States Between Two Worlds places racial literacy and anti racism at the center of the transracial adoption debate The author argues that transracial adoption stems from systemic issues of racial injustice and that those problems will not be solved quickly for they are still being realized While the work to raise awareness of and correct the disproportionate number of Black children in foster care is done transracial adoption will continue to occur In the meantime the author suggests an intentional examination of the narratives of Black transracial adoptees experiences of race to learn about the racial socialization in transracial adoptive households during childhood teen years and into adulthood Adoptees share what they learned about race in White families what they needed in terms of racial socialization that they didn t get the myriad feelings they have toward their families and how they make sense of race in their lives as young adults in the United States The stories told by adoptees in this book are centered to inspire a change in how transracial adoption is approached by White parents adoption professionals social workers researchers and counseling psychologists

Sister Sylvia Bell White, Jody LePage, 2013-06-06 Raised with twelve brothers in a part of the segregated South that provided no school for African American children Sylvia Bell White went North as a teenager dreaming of a nursing career but in Milwaukee she and her brothers found only racial discrimination and she had to persevere through racial rebuffs to find work When a Milwaukee police officer killed her younger brother in 1958 the Bell family suspected a racial murder but could do nothing to prove it until twenty years later when one of the officers involved in the incident unexpectedly came forward Sylvia was the driving force behind the family's four year quest for justice through a civil rights lawsuit Ebony, 1986-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Women of Color Forum Toni Constantino, 1979

The American Dream for Students of Color Gretchen Givens Generett, Amy M. Olson, 2021-03-24 In The American Dream for Students of Color the tenets of the American Dream as a merit narrative enacted in schools are examined to better understand how beliefs about talent hard work and perseverance support the status quo rather than critically analyze barriers to educational success for students of color and students from a poverty context Using narrative methodologies this book explores the connections and consistencies within and between their personal narratives and the narratives of school youth and educators that work with them Based on analysis of these shared stories the authors argue for the importance of moving from individualized success stories that reify hard work and perseverance to collective communal stories that serve to break down myths of meritocracy critically examine inequities and move educational advocates forward in authentic audacious hopeful ways Detroit's Got Soul Marc Humphries, 2010-06-10 Following the devastating 1967 rebellion in Detroit Frank Waterman searches his soul for what he can do to give his family and community hope Negroes have become blacks whites have taken flight to the suburbs and the Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit wants to close nearly all of its inner city schools including Visitation where the Waterman family attends school and church But the Watermans have a different idea save the schools save the children Frank has quit the security and comfort of his position as an insurance salesman in order to direct a yet to be established City Club community center near Dexter Blvd on Detroit's west side Things heat up for the Waterman family as heroin use explodes in Detroit like an atomic bomb and the police seem to run amuck under a new tactical unit called STRESS Meanwhile Mike the eldest of the three Waterman children and his St Martin DePorres newly merged basketball team prepare to compete for the city title against neighborhood rival Central High School Some of the elders in the neighborhood warn the children Be careful where you step its a mine field out there But Frank tells his family and community to Keep pushing we can reach our higher goal because Detroit's got soul Diversity, Inclusion and
