Ann Goldstein who also was the translator of Elena Ferrante's Neapolitan quartet There is something stronger than pain and that is habit Eleven year old Nicola knows this well Each night he is tied up in the cellar by his mother the wife of Calabria's biggest bergamot producer There he waits for the sun to rise and with it a sliver of freedom On the other side of the sea Barbara has just arrived in Messina and plans to escape her father who pulls her towards marriage with a man she does not love Liberty will be granted to both but it will come at a very high price On December 28th 1908 the earth shakes Europe's most devastating earthquake razes the cities of Messina and Reggio Calabria and along with them everything Nicola and Barbara have known From the ruins each must piece back together a life and start anew Written in Nadia Terranova's distinctively lyric style The Night Trembles is a melancholic ode to human resilience and the promise of the unknown

The Night of the Hunter Jeffrey Couchman, 2009-02-12 In the first major study of the long lost first draft screenplay by James Agee Jeffrey Couchman confronts a fifty year controversy about the authorship of the film He explores many levels of artistic convergence between novelist and director director and actor and cinematic form and audience expectations The talents that clashed or came together along the road from book to movie created a film of rich stylistic contradiction Combining biographical and historical analysis with a critical study of both the novel and the film Couchman makes the case that this initially overlooked cinematic gem is a prismatic work that continually reveals new aspects of itself
