Nursing Home And Its Organizational Climate An Ethnography:

A Nursing Home and Its Organizational Climate Bonnie C. Farmer, 1996-06-18 Nursing home reform Professor Farmer asserts calls for increased emphasis upon issues related to life rather than care Organizational climate which reflects the nursing home's unique position to impact life issues provides a conceptual framework for effective interventions evaluations and ultimately meaningful reform The general atmosphere of most nursing homes remains overwhelmingly negative in spite of those few homes that are credited with excellence Professor Farmer believes that the concept of organizational climate holds promise for better understanding the complexities and impact of atmosphere in any one nursing home At the same time organizational climate as a concept is poorly understood There is a need to rethink the concept and return to the original notion of weather as its metaphor Farmer attempts this in her case study by describing organizational climate where it can best be captured Practitioners of long term care from the fields of administration gerontology nursing nutrition policy makers occupational and physical therapy social work and therapeutic recreation will find the insights of this study of great value as will graduate students scholars and others concerned with organizational studies and issues in gerontology

Bureaucratic Culture and Escalating World Problems Bernard S Phillips, J. David Knottnerus, 2015-12-03 On the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of The Sociological Imagination by C Wright Mills the bureaucratic ethos that he described continues to define our world more than ever before In Bureaucratic Culture and Escalating World Problems eleven contributors systematically continue and develop Mills broad vision of the scientific method They analyse escalating bureaucratic barriers that prevent us from solving our many pressing social environmental and economic problems Elder Care Catastrophe Jason Ulsperger, J. David Knottnerus, 2015-12-03 Portraying people who have lived and worked in long term nursing home facilities Elder Care Catastrophe reveals how organizational dynamics and everyday rituals have unintentionally led to resident neglect and abuse Backed up by research and grounded in sociological theory this book offers alternative models for lessening the maltreatment of people living in nursing homes It provides critical information for family members struggling with nursing home issues nursing home employees policy makers students and researchers concerned with elder care issues Ageing selves and everyday life in the north of England Cathrine Degnen, 2018-02-28 Seeking to explore what it means to grow older in contemporary Britain from the perspective of older people themselves this richly detailed ethnographic study engages in debates over selfhood and people's relationships with time Based on research conducted in a former coal mining village in South Yorkshire England Cathrine Degnen explores how the category of old age comes to be assigned and experienced in everyday life through multiple registers of interaction including that of social memory in a postindustrial context of great social transformation Challenging both the notion of a homogenous relationship with time across generations and the idea of a universalised middle aged self Degnen argues that the complex interplay of social cultural and physical attributes of ageing means that older people can come to have a different position in relation to time and to the self than younger people unseating normative conventions about narrative and temporality Journal of Gerontological Nursing ,1998 Qualitative Research in Nursing Helen Streubert Speziale,Helen J. Streubert,Dona Rinaldi Carpenter,2011 Qualitative Research in Nursing is a user friendly text that systematically provides a sound foundation for understanding a wide range of qualitative research methodologies including triangulation It approaches nursing education administration and practice and gives step by step details to instruct students on how to implement each approach Features include emphasis on ethical considerations and methodological triangulation instrument development and software usage critiquing guidelines and questions to ask when evaluating aspects of published research and tables of published research that offer resources for further reading Provided by publisher Carers, Care Homes and the British Media Hannah Grist,Ros Jennings,2020-05-20 This book focuses on the relationship between the media and those who work as paid care assistants in care homes in Britain It explores this relationship in terms of the contemporary cultural and personal understandings of care work and care homes that have developed as the role has emerged as increasingly socially and economically significant in society Three strands of analysis are integrated an examination of the representations of paid care workers in the British media the experiences of current and former care workers and the autoethnographic reflections of the authors who have experiences of working as care assistants The book offers a rich contextual and experiential account of the responsibilities challenges and emotions of care work in British society Grist and Jennings make a case for the need to better value and more accurately represent care work in contemporary media accounts How We Die Now Karla Erickson,2013-09-27 As we live longer and die slower and differently than our ancestors we have come to rely more and more on end of life caregivers These workers navigate a changing landscape of old age and death that many of us have little preparation to encounter How We Die Now is an absorbing and sensitive investigation of end of life issues from the perspectives of patients relatives medical professionals and support staff Karla Erickson immersed herself in the daily life of workers and elders in a Midwestern community for over two years to explore important questions around the theme of how we die now She moves readers through and beyond the many fears that attend the social condition of old age and reveals the pleasures of living longer and the costs of slower sometimes senseless ways of dying For all of us who are grappling with the elder boom How We Die Now offers new ways of thinking about our longer lives Institutional Mealtimes and Family Caregiving for Chinese Nursing Home Residents Shirley Wu,2006 Reading, Understanding, and Applying Nursing Research James A. Fain,1999 This new combination text and workbook offers a comprehensive approach to evaluating and applying nursing research It introduces the student to the process and explains why nursing research is important to the profession The text covers the 11 steps of the research process to show what is being done and why it is important in the process It will enable the student to critically review published research and apply useful research findings to his her practice Development of an Autobiographical Group Work Process for Use with Oriented Nursing Home Residents Phyllis
