The Music of Herbert Howells Phillip A. Cooke, David Nicholas Maw, 2013 Herbert Howells 1892 1983 was a prodigiously gifted musician and the favourite student of the notoriously hard to please Sir Charles Villiers Stanford Throughout his long life he was one of the country's most prominent composers writing extensively in all genres except the symphony and opera Yet today he is known mostly for his church music and there is as yet relatively little serious study of his work This book is the first large scale study of Howells's music affording both detailed consideration of individual works and a broad survey of general characteristics and issues Its coverage is wide ranging addressing all aspects of the composer's prolific output and probing many of the issues that it raises The essays are gathered in five sections

Howells the Stylist examines one of the most striking aspect of the composer's music its strongly characterised personal voice

Howells the Vocal Composer addresses both his well known contribution to church music and his less familiar but also important contribution to the genre of solo song

Howells the Instrumental Composer shows that he was no less accomplished for his work in genres without words for which in fact he first made his name

Howells the Modern considers the composer's rather overlooked contribution to the development of a modern voice for British music and

Howells in Mourning explores the important impact of his son's death on his life and work

The composer that emerges from these studies is a complex figure technically fluent but prone to revision and self doubt innovative but also conservative a composer with an improvisational sense of flow who had a firm grasp of musical form an exponent of British musical style who owed as much to continental influence as to his national heritage

This volume comprising a collection of outstanding essays by established writers and emergent scholars opens up the range of Howells's achievement to a wider audience both professional and amateur

Charles Villiers Stanford wrote two cycles of songs for baritone with orchestra and chorus setting nautical verses by the popular poet Henry

Newbolt From its premiere at the Leeds Musical Festival in October 1904 Songs of the Sea was a great success Songs of the Fleet followed in 1910 and was transparently modeled on it even quoting from the earlier work Both works became very popular among amateur choral societies Songs of the Sea was published in full score a year after its composition it now appears in a critical edition for the first time in the present volume which also includes the first publication of the orchestral version of Songs of the Fleet Both works demonstrate Stanford s mastery of orchestral technique and sureness of touch Newbolt s texts alternate between heroic and sentimental moods Stanford responded with music that is dramatic and atmospheric indeed with some of the most remarkable textures of his whole oeuvre     Pruden: Collected Edition, Vol.8

Larry Pruden,2018-07-01 Featured in this volume are the popular brass band works Lambton Quay 1957 and Haast Highway 1975 along with Festival Salute 1958 for wind orchestra All three works turn their attention to a particular pocket of 20th century New Zealand the bustling inner city of Wellington the alpine pass to Westland in the South Island and the Taranaki region where Pruden grew up
