MLN. ,1914 MLN pioneered the introduction of contemporary continental criticism into American scholarship Critical studies in the modern languages Italian Hispanic German French and recent work in comparative literature are the basis for articles and notes in MLN Four single language issues and one comparative literature issue are published each year New Testament Manuscripts Thomas J Kraus,Tobias Nicklas,2006-05-01 New Testament Manuscripts Their Texts and Their World comprises twelve essays dealing with manuscripts of the New Testament and or what we can learn from them today Starting from different angles the contributors distinguished scholars of international reputation focus on the fascinating and thrilling stories manuscripts tell for instance about the times they were produced in or the people who handled them The multitude of manuscripts used for establishing the critical text of the New Testament is often only perceived as abbreviations in form of single letters or numerals and today s biblical scholars may hardly ever take notice of the specific features of an original manuscript above all those not mentioned in a critical edition Therefore three sets of contributions deals with the conditions under which manuscripts from the early days of Christianity were produced and transmitted specific individual manuscripts and then special features observed in and with the help of various manuscripts In a final essay the usual method of how to organize and categorize New Testament manuscripts is challenged and an alternative method proposed The essays are linked with each other so that readers may get a feeling of how astounding an occupation with the original manuscripts of the New Testament and the days of the early Christians can be Ode Consciousness Robert G. Eisenhauer,2009 Ode Consciousness examines a preeminent literary form in its three thousand year history navigating between philosophy and literature offering cross cultural perspectives on a poetic logic informed by polar intensities of sensuous cognition Making a double incision on the corpus Robert Eisenhauer interprets works by Henry Vaughan and the modernist Frank O Hara foregrounding the text but also the text ile message and the dialogical weave of enunciation The ancient Chinese ode translated by Karlgren and estranged by Pound anchors sentience in the flora and fauna of physical nature and the I Jing or Book of Changes offers insights on poetry psychoanalysis and aleatoriness per se The rise of the ode in the West is contemporary with that of a philosophical discourse concerning clarity and obscurity of thought While Milton widens the esoteric scope Lovelace concretizes ode consciousness through the image of a frozen grasshopper green ice whose non longevity is contrasted with the human capacity for survival through friendship Translating the Polish Horace Sarbiewski

Coleridge prepares the ground for the lyricism of Keats and Shelley raising the neural stakes through passages of lingering delay and intoxication A negative capability inclusive of desire as well as nihilation inhabits Jalal al Din Rumi and the Arabic gasida Affliction a key concept for the Baroque is discussed in the context of film noir while Hegel's privileging in the Aesthetics of Schiller's Song of the Bell is seen as part of a larger attempt to censure the radical re-Pindarization and revolutionary retexting of the ode most notably in Klopstock and Hölderlin The author analyzes the role played by impersonality in Yeats's attempt to recrystallize Keatsian and Confucian sensibility through annotated seeing and the opening of windows of clairvoyant perception Eisenhauer also suggests parallels between O'Hara's autumnal glimpses of New York City at the height of modernism and Keatsian sensibility Ode Consciousness concludes by examining the return of the repressed in the graphic novels of Osamu Tezuka thereby enriching our understanding of the ode's perennial relevance
