Odoratus Sexualis A Scientific And Literary Study Of Sexual Scents And Erotic Perfumes:

Odoratus Sexualis Iwan Bloch, 1934 Odoratus Sexualis Iwan Bloch, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1933 edition Odoratus Sexualis Eugen Dühren (pseud. van Iwan Bloch.), 1934 A Scientific and Literary Study of Sexual Scents and Erotic Perfumes Iwan Bloch, 1934 Scents & Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017 Explores Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses A selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility Scent and Subversion Barbara Herman, 2013-11-05 An intriguing look at vintage perfume's powerful past including reviews of more than 300 scents with stunning period advertisements throughout The Scent of Eros , The Problem with Pleasure Laura Frost, 2013-07-09 Aldous Huxley decried the horrors of modern pleasure or the proliferation of mass produced widely accessible entertainment that could degrade or dull the mind He and his contemporaries including James Joyce T S Eliot Gertrude Stein D H Lawrence and Jean Rhys sought to radically redefine pleasure constructing arduous and indirect paths to delight through their notoriously daunting work Laura Frost follows these experiments in the art of unpleasure connecting modernism's signature characteristics such as irony allusiveness and obscurity to an ambitious attempt to reconfigure bliss In The Problem with Pleasure Frost draws upon a wide variety of materials linking interwar amusements such as the talkies romance novels the Parisian fragrance Chanel no 5 and the exotic confection Turkish Delight to the artistic play of Joyce Lawrence Stein Rhys and others She considers pop cultural phenomena and the rise of celebrities such as Rudolph Valentino and Gypsy Rose Lee against contemporary sociological scientific and philosophical writings on leisure and desire Throughout her study Frost incorporates recent scholarship on material and visual culture and vernacular modernism recasting the period's high low elite popular divides and formal strategies as efforts to regulate sensual and cerebral experience Capturing the challenging tensions between these artists' commitment to innovation and the stimulating amusements they denounced yet deployed in their writing Frost calls attention to the central role of pleasure in shaping interwar culture Past Scents Jonathan Reinartz, 2014-03-30 In this comprehensive and engaging volume medical historian Jonathan Reinartz offers a historiography of smell from ancient to modern times Synthesizing existing scholarship in the field he shows how people have relied on their olfactory sense to understand and engage with both their immediate environments and wider corporal and spiritual worlds This broad survey demonstrates how each community or commodity possesses or has been thought to possess its own peculiar scent Through the meanings associated with smells osmologies develop what cultural anthropologists have termed the systems that utilize smells to classify people and objects in ways that define their relations to each other and their relative values within a particular culture European Christians for instance relied on their noses to differentiate Christians from heathens whites from people of color women from men virgins from harlots artisans from aristocracy and pollution from perfume This reliance on smell was not limited to the global North Around the world Reinartz shows people used scents to signify individual and group identity in a morally constructed universe where the good smelled pleasant and their opposites reeked With chapters including Heavenly Scents Fragrant Lucre and Odorous Others Reinartz's timely survey is a useful and entertaining look at the history of one of our most important but least understood senses

The Magic of Fashion Brian Moeran, 2016-06-16 Drawing on 20 years of ethnographic fieldwork and anthropological theory anthropologist Brian Moeran argues that fashion magazines are able to cast a spell over their readers by using practices and rituals found in age old magical and religious rites

Headspace Amber Marks, 2011-12-31 Crime detection has gone to the dogs and squirrels are being busted for espionage If you've never wondered about the new direction of intelligence led policing in our society now is the time to start It was a chance encounter with a police sniffer dog that drew criminal lawyer Amber Marks into the hidden world of the science of smell and its law enforcement applications Soon she stumbled into a wonderland of contemporary surveillance where the spying skills of bees dolphins and a myriad other critters were being harnessed to build a secure world of bio intelligence From the businesses scientists and military departments developing new smell based surveillance technologies to good old fashioned police dogs Amber discovered a secret world of security forces where animals and scent are as important as intelligence agents and CCTV Part polemical exploration of our burgeoning surveillance society part humorous memoir this intriguing book will capture your imagination and get you wondering just who stands to benefit from all this security
