hobbled by misplaced priorities Part I provides an in depth description of this system centered on the federal Environmental Protection Agency and the labyrinthine laws it must implement The authors evaluate the federal legislative administrative decisionmaking and the state federal division of labor that defines the system Davies and Mazurek assess the effectiveness and efficiency of U S pollution control They discuss the performance of U S laws and regulations in comparison with those of other nations assess the ability of the U S pollution control system to meet future problems and consider proposals for reform and repair Within this far reaching analysis they include criteria that are often overlooked by policymakers and analysts including social values equity nonintrusiveness and public participation
