You Shot My Dog and I Love You Anonymous,2019-10-18 My parents were now dabbling with drugs and Southern Comfort even going so far as to put a selection of hallucinogens into my bottle to witness the effects for their own amusement I only know this because my mum made no attempt to hide it often speaking openly about their experiments with my milk supply Her only regret being the time she added a small amount of speed to my formula to see how long it would take me to fall asleep Set in the UK and Ireland in the late 1970s and early 1980s You Shot My Dog and I Love You is a harrowing story of horrific physical and mental abuse inflicted on the author at the hands of his parents In addition the author s parents demanded that he assist them in their life of crime go on the run in Europe to evade the law and hide out in a caravan from the local police force This is just some of the trauma that the author writes about The story is intertwined with darkly comic elements to provide relief from the disturbing events of a tumultuous childhood Due to the nature of the content You Shot My Dog and I Love You is written anonymously

Ostension Chad Engelland,2014-10-31 An examination of the role of ostension the bodily manifestation of intention in word learning and an investigation of the philosophical puzzles it poses Ostension is bodily movement that manifests our engagement with things whether we wish it to or not Gestures glances facial expressions all betray our interest in something Ostension enables our first word learning providing infants with a prelinguistic way to grasp the meaning of words Ostension is philosophically puzzling it cuts across domains seemingly unbridgeable public private inner outer mind body In this book Chad Engelland offers a philosophical investigation of ostension and its role in word learning by infants Engelland discusses ostension distinguishing it from ostensive definition in contemporary philosophy examining accounts by Quine Davidson and Gadamer and he explores relevant empirical findings in psychology evolutionary anthropology and neuroscience He offers original studies of four representative historical thinkers whose work enriches the understanding of ostension Wittgenstein Merleau Ponty Augustine and Aristotle And building on these philosophical and empirical foundations Engelland offers a meticulous analysis of the philosophical issues raised by ostension He examines the phenomenological problem of whether embodied intentions are manifest or inferred the problem of what concept of mind allows ostensive cues to be intersubjectively available the epistemological problem of how ostensive cues notoriously ambiguous can be correctly understood and the metaphysical problem of the ultimate status of the key terms in his argument animate movement language and mind Finally he argues for the centrality of manifestation in philosophy Taking ostension seriously he proposes has far reaching implications for thinking about language and the practice of philosophy
