Of Brahmins and Lesser Folk Adele Visel, 1979-06-01 The Politics of the Peace Corps & VISTA T. Zane Reeves, 1988 This book traces the ongoing conflict between partisan ideology and organizational culture formulated during the Kennedy years Jacket Folklore as Discourse M. D. Muthukumaraswamy, 2006 Contributed articles with reference to India Mountain Echoes: Reminiscences of Kumaoni Women Namita Gokhale, 2015-08-17 The history of women is left to us in folklore and tradition in faintly remembered lullabies and the half forgotten touch of a grandmother's hand in recipes ancestral jewellery and cautionary tales about the limits of a woman's empowerment Mountain Echoes describes the Kumaoni way of life through the eyes of four highly talented and individualistic women Their recollections mirror a social universe that no longer exists that has been dissolved in the mainstream of modernization and urbanization of democracy education and emancipation Shivani Tare Pande Jiya and Shakuntala Pande were all alive and well when this book was first published in 1998 In the midst of all the rapid and unrecognizable change that surrounds us their stories and their memories are distilled into an even more precious evocation of times past Print, Folklore, and Nationalism in Colonial South India Stuart H. Blackburn, 2006 Folk-rituals of Eastern India Pradyot Kumar Maity, 1988 Proverbs & Folklore of Kumaun and Garwhal Garigādatta Upreti, 1894 South Asian Folklore in Transition Frank J. Korom, Leah K. Lowthorp, 2020-05-21 The Indian Subcontinent has been at the centre of folklore inquiry since the 19th century yet while much attention was paid to India by early scholars folkloristic interest in the region waned over time until it virtually disappeared from the research agendas of scholars working in the discipline of folklore and folklife This fortunately changed in the 1980s when a newly energized group of younger scholars who were interested in a variety of new approaches that went beyond the textual interface returned to folklore as an untapped resource in South Asian Studies This comprehensive volume further reinvigorates the field by providing fresh studies and new models both for studying the lore and the life of everyday people in the region as well as their engagement with the world at large By bringing Muslims material culture diasporic horizons global interventions and politics to bear on South Asian folklore studies the authors hope to stimulate more dialogue across theoretical and geographical borders to infuse the study of the Indian Subcontinent's cultural traditions with a new sense of relevance that will be of interest not only to areal specialists but also to folklorists and anthropologists in general This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture The Hindus Wendy Doniger, 2009 An engrossing and definitive narrative account of history and myth that offers a new way of understanding one of the world's oldest major religions The Hindus elucidates the relationship between recorded history and imaginary worlds The Hindus brings a fascinating multiplicity of actors and stories to the stage to show how brilliant and creative thinkers have kept Hinduism alive in ways that other scholars have not fully explored In this unique and authoritative account debates about Hindu traditions become platforms to consider history as a whole Communism, Subaltern Studies and

Postcolonial Theory Nissim Mannathukkaren,2021-08-05 This book is a thematic history of the communist movement in Kerala the first major region in terms of population in the world to democratically elect a communist government It analyzes the nature of the transformation brought about by the communist movement in Kerala and what its implications could be for other postcolonial societies The volume engages with the key theoretical concepts in postcolonial theory and Subaltern Studies and contributes to the debate between Marxism and postcolonial theory especially its recent articulations The volume presents a fresh empirical engagement with theoretical critiques of Subaltern Studies and postcolonial theory in the context of their decades long scholarship in India It discusses important thematic moments in Kerala s communist history which include the processes by which it established its hegemony its cultural interventions the institution of land reforms and workers rights and the democratic decentralization project and ultimately communism s incomplete national popular and its massive failures with regard to the caste question A significant contribution to scholarship on democracy and modernity in the Global South this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of politics specifically political theory democracy and political participation political sociology development studies postcolonial theory Subaltern Studies Global South Studies and South Asia Studies

The Encounter Never Ends Isabelle Clark-Deces,2008-06-05 The Encounter Never Ends offers a thoughtful meditation on the relationship between fieldwork and anthropological knowledge through the analysis of Tamil ritual practice in a South Indian village Isabelle Clark Dec s revisits field notes taken more than fifteen years earlier and reveals what she intended when she took the notes what she came to understand and record and why she proceeded to ignore her ethnography until recently Returning to these notes with fresh eyes and matured experience Clark Dec s gains insight into Tamil rural society that complicates anthropological analyses of the Indian village She realizes that the village she lived in was neither a community nor a system but rather a loose hodgepodge of caste groups and advises that the social order is not necessarily the best place to start looking for important insights into the ways in which cultures construe ritual action Drawing on the recent work of Don Handelman to discuss the two Tamil ritual complexes recovered from her field notes a drought removal ritual and a post funeral ceremony the author shows how they articulate complex notions regarding knowledge reflexivity and action Throughout the author shares her own story including the mixture of frustration and fascination she felt while conducting fieldwork illustrating how extraordinarily difficult ethnographic description is
