Of Bridles And Burnings:

Of Bridles and Burnings E. J. Burford, Sandra Shulman, 1992 Holy Estates Sid Ray, 2004-11 This volume examines analogies between marital and political ideology in early modern culture analyzing sixteenth and seventeenth century marriage tracts and the appropriation of their rhetoric by Shakespeare Mary Wroth Francis Beaumont and John Fletcher and John Webster Just as the marriage tracts draw explicitly on political metaphors to prescribe marital decorum early modern political treatises adopt the language of the marriage tracts using their construction of the family unit as a model for exercising power on important often subversive meanings when they are redeployed in prose fiction and drama The woman s place within these marital and political discourses and how she fares within early modern domestic and political hierarchies are the book s primary concerns Included here are detailed discussions of Wroth s Urania Shakespeare s Taming of the Shrew Titus Andronicus Othello and The Tempest Beaumont and Fletcher s The Maid s Tragedy and Webster s The Duchess of Malfi Sid Ray is Associate Professor of English at Pace University in New York Of Bridles and Burnings E. J. Burford, Sandra Shulman, 1992-01-01 Prostitution, Women and Misuse of the Law Helen J. Self, 2004-08-02 This is an examination from a feminist historian s standpoint of the background to the present system of regulating prostitution in Britain which is generally admitted to be not only unjust and discriminatory but ineffective even in achieving its stated aims Concentrating on the 1950s and especially on the Wolfenden Report and the 1959 Street Offences Act it is a thorough exposure of the sexual double standard and general misogynist assumptions underlying legislation relating to prostitution In addition to the detailed analysis of the 1950s legislation and the background to it there is an exposition of the subsequent workings of the Act and of attempts to amend or repeal it History of Criminal Justice Mark Jones, Peter Johnstone, 2011-07-22 Covering criminal justice history on a cross national basis this book surveys criminal justice in Western civilization and American life chronologically from ancient times to the present It is an introduction to the historical problems of crime law enforcement and penology set against the background of major historical events and movements Integrating criminal justice history into the scope of European British French and American history this text provides the opportunity for comparisons of crime and punishment over boundaries of national histories The text now concludes with a chapter that addresses terrorism and homeland security Narratives of Women and Murder in England, 1680-1760 Kirsten T. Saxton, 2009 Arguing for the centrality of the female criminal subject to the rise of the British novel Kirsten Saxton compares representations of homicidal women in legal documents with those in the early novels of Behn Manley Defoe and Fielding She demonstrates that legal narratives informed the novel s evolution and fictional texts shaped the development of legal narratives and suggests that Augustan configurations of the murderess continue to influence our legal and social conceptions of femininity The Works of Jack London: Burning Daylight Jack London, 1917 Burning Daylight Jack London, 1910 The Confident Woman Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz, 2012-01-04 How Confident Are You Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz has won

national awards for her work in women's health and has enjoyed the success some people only dream of a prosperous professional life a long happy marriage two Stanford educated children and a bestselling book The Superwoman Syndrome which coined a term for a generation of women Despite all of her accomplishments however she struggled with the issue of confidence After conducting extensive research she found that she was far from alone Many women experience the paradox of enjoying success in their business and personal lives while lacking confidence in themselves The Confident Woman focuses on the issues that women face in growing up as girls in this society Using a series of seven steps complete with techniques and questions Shaevitz presents an accessible and proven program that helps women regain their confidence It is written for women of all ages ending with an epilogue for mothers who want practical tips for raising confident daughters In clear concise prose filled with anecdotes and humor The Confident Woman focuses on what women say they want practical advice that they can use now

Burning Daylight Джек Лондон, 2022-01-29 Burning day-light Jack London, 1910 Burning Daylight Jack London, 2019-06-17 Turning Daylight is a 1910 novel by Jack London John Griffith London 1876 1916 commonly known as Jack London was an American journalist social activist and novelist He was an early pioneer of commercial magazine fiction becoming one of the first globally famous celebrity writers who were able to earn a large amount of money from their writing London is famous for his contributions to early science fiction and also notably belonged to The Crowd a literary group in San Francisco known for its radical members and ideas Turning Daylight was among the best selling books of the year it was published as well as London's best selling book during his lifetime The story takes place in the Yukon Territory in 1893 and follows a man who became the most successful entrepreneur during the Alaskan Gold Rush This volume will appeal to those with an interest in American history and literature and it is not to be missed by fans of London's seminal work Other notable works by this author include The Cruise of the Dazzler 1902 The Kempton Wace Letters 1903 and The Call of the Wild 1903 Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive It is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author

Economic Ethics and Chinese Culture Xuanmeng Yu, 1997 Crime, Gender and Social Order in Early Modern England Garthine Walker, 2003-06-12 An extended study of gender and crime in early modern England It considers the ways in which criminal behaviour and perceptions of criminality were informed by ideas about gender and order and explores their practical consequences for the men and women who were brought before the criminal courts Dr Walker's innovative approach demonstrates that contrary to received opinion the law was often structured so as to make the treatment of women and men before the courts incommensurable For the first time early modern criminality is explored in terms of masculinity as well as femininity Illuminating the interactions between gender and other categories such as class and civil war have implications not merely for the historiography of crime but for the social history of early modern England as a whole This study therefore goes beyond conventional studies and challenges hitherto accepted views of social interaction in the period Encyclopedia of Cremation Lewis H. Mates, 2016-04-29 The Encyclopedia of Cremation is the first major reference resource focused on cremation Spanning many world cultures it documents regional histories ideological movements and leading individuals that fostered cremation whilst also presenting cremation as a universal practice Tracing ancient and classical cremation sites historical and contemporary cremation processes and procedures of both scientific and legal kind the encyclopedia also includes sections on specific cremation rituals architecture art and text Features in the volume include a general introduction and editorial introductions to sub sections by Douglas Davies an international specialist in death studies appendices of world cremation statistics and a chronology of cremation cross referencing pathways through the entries via the index individual entry bibliographies and illustrations This major international reference work is also an essential source book for students on the growing number of death studies courses and wider studies in religion anthropology or sociology Women, Murder, and Equity in Early Modern England Randall Martin, 2007-12-12 This book presents the first comprehensive study of over 120 printed news reports of murders and infanticides committed by early modern women It offers an interdisciplinary analysis of female homicide in post Reformation news formats ranging from ballads to newspapers Individual cases are illuminated in relation to changing legal religious and political contexts as well as the dynamic growth of commercial crime news and readership

Women's Roles in Eighteenth-Century Europe Jennine Hurl-Eamon, 2010-04-09 This concise historical overview of the existing historiography of women from across eighteenth century Europe covers women of all ages married and single rich and poor During the 18th century the Enlightenment the French Revolution protoindustrialization and colonial conquest made their marks on women s lives in a variety of ways Women s Roles in Eighteenth Century Europe examines women of all ages and social backgrounds as they experienced the major events of this tumultuous period of sweeping social and political change The book offers an inclusive portrayal of women from across Europe surveying nations from Portugal to the Russian Empire from Finland to Italy including the often overlooked women of Eastern Europe It depicts queens an empress noblewomen peasants and midwives Separate chapters on family work politics law religion arts and sciences and war explore the varying contexts of the feminine experience from the most intimate aspects of daily life to broad themes and conditions

Witness and Vision of the Therapists MR Colin Feltham, 1998-07-16 This fascinating book presents the views of experienced therapists and counsellors on what is learnt about aspects of human nature from the many hours spent witnessing clients stories Contributors write about their observations on working with people whose suffering is associated with social marginalization family breakdown the gay community the AIDS epidemic the Holocaust and with people in groups those who have experienced disaster and personal trauma or depression and those who have murdered The book takes us to some of the depths of human suffering in order to illustrate the value and impact of therapy and some of the failings and disillusionment of therapy The material provides insights and hypotheses bearing on the human condition itself and the

The Top Books of the Year Of Bridles And Burnings The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Of Bridles And Burnings : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
