The Politics of Teacher Education Reform National Commission on Teaching & America's Future (U.S.),2000-04-18
Yearbook of the Politics of Education Association A competent caring and qualified teacher for every student in the United States This audacious goal is taken right from the opening pages of the report of the National Commission on Teaching and America's Future NCTAF What Matters Most Teaching for America's Future The NCTAF findings are so powerful and unique that The Politics of Teacher Association PTA uses them as the basis for this 2000 Y yearbook Editors Gallagher and Bailey along with leading educators explore the controversies and ramifications of the Commission's major recommendations Get serious about standards for both students and teachers Reinvent teacher preparation and professional development Overhaul teacher recruitment and put qualified teachers in every classroom Encourage and reward teaching knowledge and skill Create schools that are organized for student and teacher success The contributors to this book speak to the underlying assumptions research bases and values found in the recommendations Long time and persistent issues about teaching teacher education programs and public policy making are examined under the new light of the latest research Real life successes of the recommendations in action are shown in two state level stories and an urban school partnership This PEA 2000 yearbook will prove a valuable resource for students researchers and all educators interested in teacher education reform in the 21st century

ERIC Annual Report Educational Resources Information Center (U.S.),1999 Catalog of ERIC Clearinghouse Publications , IJER Vol 11-N2 International Journal of Educational Reform,2002-07-02 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world

Tep Vol 14-N3 Teacher Education and Practice,2003-06-02 Teacher Education and Practice a peer refereed journal is dedicated to the encouragement and the dissemination of research and scholarship related to professional education The journal is concerned in the broadest sense with teacher preparation practice and policy issues related to the teaching profession as well as being concerned with learning in the school setting The journal also serves as a forum for the exchange of diverse ideas and points of view within these purposes As a forum the journal offers a public space in which to critically examine current discourse and practice as well as engage in generative dialogue Alternative forms of inquiry and representation are invited and authors from a variety of backgrounds and diverse perspectives are encouraged to contribute Teacher Education Practice is published by Rowman Littlefield Resources in Education ,1999-04 Of Course It Matters ERIC Clearinghouse on Teaching and Teacher Education,American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education,1998-01-01 This volume of essays responds to What Matters Most Teaching for America s Future a 1996 report of the National Commission on Teaching America s Future NCTAF The report says that every child has the right to a caring competent and qualified teacher As a result politicians and educators strove to implement its recommendations in order to begin building an infrastructure of good teaching The foreword to this volume David G Imig suggests there is no need for another model program or demonstration project but rather a systemic response that will enable novices to learn to teach more powerfully than before The purpose of this volume is to examine efforts of leaders at each level of the educational enterprise as they consider NCTAF report recommendations Chapter 1 Creative Solutions for Essential Change Newark Public Schools Beverly L Hall discusses change and innovation highlighting New Jersey s takeover of the Newark public schools Chapter 2 Audacious Goal or Deja Vu Karen S Gallagher acknowledges the familiarity of NCTAF recommendations but finds five major transformative changes that may be fruitful Chapter 3 Give and Take NCTAF and Indiana s Partnership Marilyn M Scannell provides a rationale for using the NCTAF report to further one s own ends and discusses how to bring the new system of performance licensing to scale emphasizing the importance of coalition building and adaptation of national agendas to fit local needs Chapter 4 Professional Development at the Center of School Reform Dennis Sparks describes the National Staff Development Council s work to create standards providing a benchmark for accomplished practice that can guide professional development and school improvement An afterword Building Capacity for What Matters Most Linda Darling Hammond addresses the issues of developing organizational capacity conducting efforts in a decentralized system and conflicts arising from competing constituencies and goals for education Contains 37 references SM European Competition Law Annual 2004 Claus-Dieter Ehlermann,Isabela Atanasiu,2006-06-02 The European Competition Law Annual 2004 is ninth in a series of volumes following the annual workshops on EU Competition Law and Policy held at the Robert Schuman Centre of the European University Institute in Florence The volume reproduces the materials of the roundtable debate that took place at the ninth edition of the workshop 11 12 June 2004 which examined the relationship between competition law and the regulation of liberal professions The liberal professions and the rules governing their functioning have become of interest for EC competition law enforcement since the early nineties making the object of a series of

Commission decisions and judgments of the European courts The subject has gained in importance in the perspective of the recent decentralisation of EC antitrust enforcement The regulation of liberal professions is also a matter of increasing concern from the perspective of freedom of services in the internal market The workshop participants a group of senior representatives of the Commission and the national competition authorities of some Member States reknown international academics and legal practitioners discussed the economic legal and political institutional issues that arise in the relationship between competition law and the regulation of liberal professions International commissions and the power of ideas
