Of Love War Chayavad Anthology

AN Whitehead

Of Love War Chayavad Anthology:

Of Love and War David Rubin, 2005 This is an anthology of the works of four leading Hindi poets in translation of the genre and period roughly between the two world wars known as Chayavad This volume comes with a critical introduction by David Rubin who contextualizes this literary movement within the larger socio political movement of the time Cold War Genres Gregory Goulding, 2024-10-01 Cold War Genres explores post independence Hindi literature framing it within the sociopolitical backdrop of Nehruvian India during the early Cold War The book underscores the pivotal role of Hindi's claims to be a national language following independence which fostered a unique moment of literary innovation Central to its narrative is the work of Gajanan Madhav Muktibodh a pivotal figure in modern South Asian literature Using Muktibodh's poetry criticism and fiction as a primary example the book shows how literary form shapes a response to the internal contradictions of 1950s India one that must be read in light of both the antinomies of Hindi literature and North India as well as the aesthetic debates and emerging ideas of global space during this time Cold War Genres therefore functions as a lens to evaluate questions of genre and form shared by a range of literary cultures in the mid twentieth century decolonizing world This book features extensive translations from Muktibodh's poetry and prose including full translations of two poems Brahmar k as The Brahman Demon and A dhere me In the Dark Beyond English Bhavya Tiwari, 2021-11-04 Honorable Mention Harry Levin Prize 2022 American Comparative Literature Association Beyond English World Literature and India radically alters the debates on world literature that hinge on the model of circulation and global capital by deeply engaging with the idea of the world and world making in South Asia Tiwari argues that Indic words for world vishva jagat sansar offer a nuanced understanding of world literature that is antithetical to a commodified and standardized monolingual globe She develops a comparative study of the concept of world literature vishva sahitya in Rabindranath Tagore's works the desire for a new world in the lyrics of the Hindi shadowism chhayavaad poets and world making in Thakazhi Sivasankara Pillai's Chemmeen 1956 and Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things 1997 By emphasizing the centrality of literature sahitya through a close reading of texts Tiwari orients world literature toward comparative literature and comparative literature toward a worldliness that is receptive to the poetics of a world in its original language and in translation Kāma's Flowers Valerie Ritter, 2011-09-01 Kama's Flowers documents the transformation of Hindi poetry during the crucial period of 1885-1925 As Hindi was becoming a national language and Indian nationalism was emerging Hindi authors articulated a North Indian version of modernity by reenvisioning nature While their writing has previously been seen as an imitation of European Romanticism Valerie Ritter shows its unique and particular function in North India Description of the natural world recalled traditional poetics particularly erotic and devotional poetics but was now used to address sociopolitical concerns as authors created literature to advocate for a national character and to address a growing audience of female readers Examining Hindi classics translations from English poetry literary criticism and little known popular works Ritter combines translations with fresh literary analysis to show the pivotal role of nature in how modernity was understood Bringing a new body of literature to English language readers Kama s Flowers also reveals the origins of an influential visual culture that resonates today in Bollywood cinema Krishna Sobti's Views on Literature and the Poetics of Writing Rosine-Alice Vuille,2022-10-03 How does a writer discuss her creative process and her views on a writer s role in society How do her comments on writing relate to her works The Hindi writer Krishna Sobti 1925 2019 is known primarily as a novelist However she also extensively wrote about her views on the creative process the figure of the writer historical writing and the position of writers within the public sphere This study is the first to examine in detail the relationship between Sobti s views on poetics as exposed in her non-fictional texts and her own literary practice The writer s self representation is analysed through her use of metaphors to explain her creative process Sobti s construction of the figure of the writer is then put in parallel with her idiosyncratic use of language as a representation of the heterogeneous voices of her characters and with her conception of literature as a space where time and memory can be held At the same time by delving into Sobti s position in the debate around women s writing especially through the creation of a male double the failed writer Hashmat and into her views on literature and politics this book also reflects on the literary debates of the post Independence Hindi literary sphere Fighting Cane and Canon

Rashi Rohatgi,2014-08-20 Fighting Cane and Canon Abhimanyu Unnuth and the Case of World Literature in Mauritius joins the growing field of modern Indian Ocean studies The book interrogates the development and persistence of Hindi poetry in Mauritius with a focus on the early poetry of Abhimanyu Unnuth His second work The Teeth of the Cactus brings together questions about the value of history of relationships forged by labour and of spirituality in a trenchant examination of a postcolonial people choosing to pursue prosperity in an age of globalization It captures a distinct point of view Unnuth s connection to the Hindi language is an unusual reaction to the creolization of the island but also a common experience both of Indian immigrants and of the reevaluation of their experience by Mauritians reaching adulthood as Unnuth did with the Independence of the Mauritian nation in 1968 The book argues that for literary scholars reading Abhimanyu Unnuth s poetry raises important questions about the methodological assumptions made when approaching so called marginal postcolonial works assumptions about translation language and canonicity through the emerging methodologies of World Literature

Modernizing Composition Garrett Field,2017-03-22 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The study of South Asian music falls under the purview of ethnomusicology whereas that of South Asian literature falls under South Asian studies As a consequence of this academic separation scholars rarely take notice of connections between South Asian song and poetry Modernizing Composition overcomes this disciplinary fragmentation by examining the history of Sinhala language song and poetry in twentieth century Sri Lanka Garrett Field describes how songwriters and poets modernized song and poetry in response to colonial and postcolonial formations The story of this modernization is significant in that it shifts focus from India's relationship to the West to little studied connections between Sri Lanka and North India Banaras: Urban Forms and Cultural Histories Michael S. Dodson, 2021-01-31 The book presents a rich and surprising account of the recent history of the north Indian city of Banaras Supplementing traditional accounts which have focused upon the city's religious imaginary this volume brings together essays written by acknowledged experts in north Indian culture and history to examine the construction of diverse urban identities in and after the British colonial period Drawing on fields such as archaeology literature history and architecture these accounts of Banaras understand the narratives which inscribe the city as having been forged substantially in the experiences of British rule But while British rule transformed the city in many respects the essays also emphasize the importance of Indian agency in these processes The book also examines the essential ambiguity of modernization schemes in the city as well as the contingency of elements of religious narrative The introduction moreover attempts to resituate Banaras into a wider tradition of urban studies in South Asia The book will be of interest to not only scholars and students of north Indian culture and urban history but also anyone looking to gain a deeper appreciation of this remarkable and complex city The Book Review ,2005 Encyclopaedia of Indian Literature Ravi Narayan Pandey, 2007 The Indian National Bibliography B.
