The third edition, etc.) With a portrait John Locke, 1727 Dickens and the Despised Mother Shale Preston, 2013-01-25 This work offers an original interpretation of the mothers of the protagonists in Dickens's autobiographical novels Taking Julia Kristeva's psychoanalytic concept of abjection and Mary Douglas's anthropological analysis of pollution as its conceptual framework the book argues that Dickens's primary emotional response towards the mother who abandoned him to work in a blacking warehouse was disgust and suggests that we can trace similar signs of disgust in the narrators of his fictional autobiographies David Copperfield Bleak House and Great Expectations The author provides a close reading of Dickens's autobiographical fragment and opens up the possibility that Dickens's feelings towards his mother actually bore a significant influence on his fiction The book closes with a provocative discussion of Dickens's compulsive Sikes and Nancy public readings Philosophic Classics: From Plato to Derrida Forrest Baird, 2016-05-23 First published in 1961 Forrest E Baird's revision of Philosophic Classics continues the tradition of providing generations of students with high quality course material Using the complete works or where appropriate complete sections of works this anthology allows philosophers to speak directly to students Esteemed for providing the best available translations Philosophic Classics From Plato to Derrida features complete works or complete sections of the most important works by the major thinkers as well as shorter samples from transitional thinkers The Philosophical Works of John Locke.
