Reading the Modernist Long Poem Brendan C.

Gillott,2020-12-10 How do readers approach the enigmatic and unnavigable modernist long poem Taking as the form s exemplars the highly influential but critically contentious poetries of John Cage and Charles Olson this book considers indeterminacy the fundamental feature of the long poem by way of its analogues in musicology mycology cybernetics and philosophy It addresses features of these works that figure broadly in the long poem tradition such as listing typography archives mediation and mereology while articulating how both poets broke with the longform poetic traditions of the early 1900s Brendan C Gillott argues for Cage s and Olson s centrality to these traditions in developing critiquing and innovating on the longform poetics of the past their work revolutionized the longform poetry of the 20th and 21st centuries Library Journal ,2006 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The Changing World of Contemporary South Asian Poetry in English Mitali P. Wong,M. Yousuf Saeed,2019-07-02 This collection uses a transnational approach to study contemporary English language poetry composed by poets of South Asian origin The poetry contains themes motifs and critiques of social changes and the contributors seek to encapsulate the continually changing environments that these contemporary poets write about The contributors show that English language poetry in South Asia is hybridized with imagery and figurative language adapted from the vernacular languages of South Asia The chapters examine women s issues concerns of marginalized groups such as the Dalit community and the people of Northeastern India social changes in Sri Lanka the changing society of Pakistan and the formation of the identity in the several nation states that resulted from the British colony of India The Athenaeum ,1914 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1861 Educational Times ,1880 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1973 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955 Contemporary Irish Poetry Elmer Andrews,2016-04-30 Contains 14 essays dealing with the poetry that has come out of Ireland since the mid 1960s The first half of the book is devoted to general issues and themes and takes account of the interrelationships of contemporary Irish poetry The second half concentrates on the work of individual poets The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department,1915 Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research

Publishers Weekly ,1973-10 Dylan Thomas Walford Davies,2014-04-15 This critical study covers the whole range of Dylan Thomas s writing both poetry and prose in an accessible appraisal of the work and achievement of a major and dynamic poet It interrelates the man and his national cultural background by defining in detail the Welshness of his poetic temperament and critical attitudes as both man and poet At the same time it illustrates Thomas s wide knowledge of and impact on the long and varied tradition of poetry in English In that connection it delineates and delimits Thomas s relationship to surrealism compares and contrasts his work with that of other poets of the 1930s and 1940s and shows how its power survives his early death in 1953 in the decade of the Movement poets and beyond Historicizing Modernists Matthew Feldman,Anna Svendsen,Erik Tønning,2021-06-17 Focussing upon both canonical figures such as Woolf Eliot Pound and Stein and emergent themes such as Christian modernism intermedial modernism queer Harlem Renaissance this volume brings together previously unseen materials from various archives to bear upon cutting edge interpretation of modernism It provides an overview of approaches to modernism via the employment of various types of primary source material correspondence manuscripts and drafts memoirs and production notes reading notes and marginalia and all manner of useful contextualising sources like news reports or judicial records While having much to say to literary criticism more broadly this volume is closely focused upon key modernist figures and emergent themes in light of the discipline s archival turn termed in a unifying introduction achivalism An essential ingredient separating the above recent tendency from a much older and better established new historicism in modernist studies at least is that the literary canon remains an important starting point Whereas new historicism is interested in history as represented and recorded in written documents and tends toward a parallel study of literature and non literary texts archival criticism tends toward recognised oftentimes canonical or critically lauded writers presented in Part 1 Sidestepping the vicissitudes of canon formation manuscript scholars tend to gravitate toward leading modernist authors James Joyce Ezra Pound Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein T S Eliot and Samuel Beckett Part of the reason is obvious known authors frequently leave behind sizeable literary estates which are then acquired by research centres A second section then applies the same empirical methodology to key or emergent themes in the study of modernism including queer modernism spatial modernism little magazines and online finding aids structuring them and the role of faith and or emotions in the construction of modernism as we know it

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide
