Of This Time Of That Place And Other Stories:

Of this Time, of that Place, and Other Stories Lionel Trilling, Diana Trilling, 1981-01-01 The Arrival of Jimpson and Other Stories Ralph Henry Barbour, 2020-08-03 Reproduction of the original The Arrival of Jimpson and Other Stories by Ralph Henry Barbour Reno (by the) in the Lake and Other Stories Jim Hartman, 2010-03-31
I guess in truth Reno by the in the Lake is my Autobiography Light The material is indeed autobiographical in that little has been gleaned from any outside source and it is definitely light both in serious content and the serious nature often portrayed by an autobiography So read on just for fun Reno Beach was a magical place in the 1920s 30s 40s and 50s a resort town that never really quite reached its prime It had however attained great stature in the hearts and minds of all it entertained especially in the imagination of a young boy who could see adventure even in the smallest buttonhole or banal blemish In his mind a vegetable garden became a wilderness plantation An overturned rowboat became a fortress a pirate s treasure cave or a magician s maudlin mansion A willow tree only recently uprooted by the wind and waves of an angry possessive lake trying desperately to reclaim its own this became the perfect home for Tarzan Jimmie of the Apes The fact that I m even writing this book belies the fact that the place and that little boy still live if only in my imagination The stories you re about to read are about that small waterfront community just east of Toledo Ohio on the western end of Lake Erie and how it s life death and frequent revitalizations affected the life of one small boy namely me The stories are absolutely true except as altered by an aging memory wishful thinking and delusions of grandeur not necessarily in that order and they represent some of the very best days of my life I ve been told that it s good to share your very best I hope you enjoy reading my stories nearly as much as I enjoyed living them The writing s been fun too Some names and places may have been altered to protect the innocent and or the guilty but not many Some may also be changed just because I ve forgotten or don t really know what I m talking about Please forgive me Many may recognize themselves a friend or family member in some of these stories and each one probably deserves whatever treatment or attention they received either good or bad This book is intended to be a Bathroom Book This is not a negative For those unable to grasp this creative terminology I provide the following explanation in the form of a prescription Take in small doses Continuous exposure could be hazardous to your health and could lead to an abrasive situation requiring an immediate application of Preparation H This does not imply that either you the reader or the writer is full of Anything Should you disapprove of any of the material in this book please feel free to remove the offending pages and put them to better use right there in the Reading Room solving the problems of the moment I m sure you understand Enjoy Life is short Don t waste it on seriousness The long exile, and other stories (What men live by ; Yermak, the conqueror of Siberia ; Desire stronger than necessity ; Stories of my dogs ; Early days ; Scenes from common life ; Stories from physics ; Tales from zoology ; Stories from botany ; Fables ; From the new speller ; Yasnaya Polyana school ; Who should learn writing of whom ... ; A dialogue among clever people ; Walk in the light while there is

Reproduction of the original The Hand of the Mighty and Other Stories by Vaughan Kester Brave and true; or, The story of Emmy Dutton. and other stories Gregson Gow,1892 The Ray of Displacement and other Stories Harriet Prescott Spofford,2015-04-24 A wonderful collection of the short stories by one of America s most underrated authors Harriet Prescott Spofford Including the stories In a Cellar and Circumstance Spofford was a regular contributor of short stories to the journal The Atlantic Monthly She was well known and well liked at the end of the 19th century for her vivid gothic and fantastic tales We are republishing these stories together with a new introductory biography of the author The Wingéd Darkness and Other Stories William Heinesen,1983 House of Bougainvillea and Other Stories Debadatta Satpathy,2014-02-26 From the very beginning I believed that every moment of our life has a story written in it because its unpredictableness breeds countless possibilities Its only because we are so tuned to our mechanical jobs that we do not keep a track of it As we grow old the stories are written on the hard disk and then deleted simultaeneously for we have better things to do than remebering silly episodes Therefore I turned to my childhood Where little incidents have shaped my life Where a girl taught me what is struggle Where a school showed me what is friendship And where a friend demonstrated the true worth of fellowfeeling This book has just captured those moments and some other stories as well some funny some poignant which either I have encountered or listened somewhere I have no pretension of being a great writer This book is written in a very day to day english because I feel ornamental language destroys emotions Being my first attempt I have also no idea about the rules of writing if something of that sort exists The tales are just the reflections of my feeling Hope the esteemed readers enjoy

Legendary Hawai'i and the Politics of Place Cristina Bacchilega, 2011-06-03 Hawaiian legends figure greatly in the image of tropical paradise that has come to represent Hawai i in popular imagination But what are we buying into when we read these stories as texts in English language translations Cristina Bacchilega poses this question in her examination of the way these stories have been adapted to produce a legendary Hawai i primarily for non Hawaiian readers or other audiences With an understanding of tradition that foregrounds history and change Bacchilega examines how following the 1898 annexation of Hawai i by the United States the publication of Hawaiian legends in English delegitimized indigenous narratives and traditions and at the same time constructed them as representative of Hawaiian culture Hawaiian mo olelo were translated in popular and scholarly English language publications to market a new cultural product a space constructed primarily for Euro Americans as something simultaneously exotic and primitive and beautiful and welcoming To analyze this representation of Hawaiian traditions place and genre Bacchilega focuses on translation across languages cultures and media on photography as the technology that contributed to the visual formation of a westernized image of Hawai i and on tourism as determining postannexation economic and ideological machinery In a book with interdisciplinary appeal Bacchilega demonstrates both how the myth of legendary Hawai i emerged and how this vision can be unmade and reimagined

A Humble Romance and Other Stories Wilkins Freeman Mary E., 2023-07-26 A Humble Romance and Other Stories is a collection of short stories first published in 1887. Widely popular upon publication, the stories tell of rural New England folks, mostly women. Each story is engrossing yet surprising in its simplicity of characters and plot. Far from beautiful heiresses or men on panting steeds, the main characters are mostly old spinsters and sometimes a plain niece or two.

How to Be Present in an Absent World Daniel Montgomery, 2020-02-25 Experience the fullness of life that Jesus promises by learning how to engage with the present, even in the increasing busyness of work and family life. Do you ever wonder how long can you keep grinding out eighty-hour work weeks, putting your marriage on the backburner, treating your employees like cogs in a machine, pushing your life aside before you realize your time is all up? At the heart of this collaborative project is the belief that the pain we experience is the result of absence: living disconnected from our authentic selves and lacking deep, meaningful relationships with others and with God. Daniel Montgomery, the founding pastor of Sojourn Community Church; Kenny Silva, a PhD candidate at Trinity International University; and Eboni Webb, who holds a doctorate of Clinical Psychology, pooled their efforts and expertise to focus on the problem of modern absence and the pain it causes us and those around us. This book is a guide for how to cultivate a self-awareness that empowers you to take ownership and engage in every area of influence. It's arranged into five sections, each focusing on one of the major areas of our lives where many of us struggle with absence: Time, Place, Body, Others, Story. How to Be Present in an Absent World provides biblical, practical ways to handle the daily pressures of life without denying or escaping the present. Its goal is to help you rediscover what it means to show up for your own life. With interludes that offer a deep dive into the neurobiology of presence, as well as principles and exercises that Dr. Webb employs in her clinical practice, Montgomery and his coauthors will equip you with the kind of self-understanding that allows you to realize God's design for human flourishing, whether in your church, in your job, or in your family.

The Hawk Is Hungry and Other Stories D'Arcy McNickle, 1992-08 These sixteen stories, ten of which have not been previously published, represent the work of one of the most influential Native American writers of the twentieth century, held by many to be the most important Native American to write fiction before N. Scott Momaday. Birgit Hans's introductory essay provides a brief biography of McNickle, sets the stories in the context of his better-known work, and provides insights into their literary significance. Together they constitute a collection essential to an adequate understanding of McNickle and of the development of Native American fiction
