Turner's Prize Colin Bateman,2016-02-01 Through world wars and civil strife the Bangor Express has never missed an issue but now it is losing money hand over fist and Rob Cullen fresh off the plane from his London news desk has absolutely no idea that he s the man to save it Lured back to Northern Ireland for the first time in 20 years by the demise of his one time mentor the Bangor Express makes Rob an offer he can t refuse and the Guardian reporter can t resist sticking around After all it has been a long time since Rob had a real story to get his teeth in to and with the Bangor Express that s just what he s going to get When local artist and Turner prize nominee Richard Turner returns to Bangor to open a retrospective at a small gallery not everyone is happy to welcome him home As Richard takes to the stage to make a speech he is greeted by violent heckling from his former teacher Pat Hadley Alix resolves to get to the bottom of the story behind this hostility and uncovers a deep rooted personal grudge it s not just a matter of stolen art but a matter of a stolen heart The Oxford Dictionary of

Idioms Judith Siefring,2005-11-10 Did you know that flavour of the month originated in a marketing campaign in American ice cream parlours in the 1940s when a particular flavour would be specially promoted for a month at a time And did you know that off the cuff refers to the rather messy practice of writing impromptu notes on one s shirt cuff before speaking in public These and many more idioms are explained and put into context in this second edition of the Oxford Dictionary of Idioms This vastly entertaining dictionary takes a fresh look at the idiomatic phrases and sayings that make English such a rich and intriguing language A major new edition it contains entries for over 5000 idioms including 350 new entries and over 500 new quotations The text has been updated to include many new idioms using the findings of the Oxford English Reading Programme the biggest language research programme in the world The entries are supported by a wealth of illustrative quotations from a wide range of sources and periods For example Rowling has not been asleep at the wheel in the three years since the last Potter novel and I am pleased to report that she has not confused sheer length with inspiration Guardian 2003 I made the speech of a lifetime I had them tearing up the seats and rolling in the aisles P G Woodhouse 1940 Many entries include boxed features which give more detailed background on the idiom in question For example did you know that taken aback was adopted from nautical terminology and described a ship unable to move forward because of a strong headwind pressing its sails back against the mast The text has been entirely redesigned so that it is both elegant and easy to use Anyone interested in the quirky side of the English language will have hours of fun browsing through this fascinating and informative volume

Ireland and Transatlantic Poetics Brian Caraher, Robert Mahony, 2007 Transatlantic poetics is the principal theme and the constructive burden of these essays The motive toward its articulation lies in the demand for cross national international and post nationalist comprehension of cultural relations and critical practices across modern Anglophone British Irish and North American literary developments literary filiations and literary history Anglophone literary study needs to articulate ever more clearly the poetics of literary practices including the cultural politics of literary histories and literary reading Ireland is a small island yet its finest writers have insistently articulated its modern culture within a transatlantic neighborhood stretching from continental Europe across the British and Irish archipelago to the western reaches of North America Modern Dublin is a cultural location for constructing transatlantic literary relations and poetics This collection foregrounds modern Dublin its writers its universities its literary journals its teachers and critics of English Studies as well as the contested critical construction of regional and international poetics and cultural politics that emerges from the often tense interaction of local and global literary practices and critical desires

Papercuts 1: The Dead and the Quick Colin Bateman, 2016-02-01 Through world wars and civil strife the Bangor Express has never missed an issue but now it is losing money hand over fist and Rob Cullen fresh off the plane from his London news desk has absolutely no idea that he is the man to save it Rob is back in Northern Ireland for the first time in 20 years for the funeral of his one time mentor the late editor of the aforementioned Express Tomorrow morning Rob intends to be on the first plane back to London but that is before an exceptionally good night out and the promise of 1 500 for just one day's work lures him into the Express offices It has been a long time since Rob had a real story to get his teeth into and with the Bangor Express that is just what he is going to get From armed robberies to arson attacks immigration raids to human trafficking there is no shortage of front page news in the seemingly sleepy seaside town Just as well Rob can rely on the Express crew to back him up They're like a family A dysfunctional highly unpopular poverty stricken family

Offers entries for over six thousand idioms including seven hundred new to this edition and provides background information additional cross references and national variants Identity Parades Richard Kirkland, 2002-01-01 Northern Ireland is a country of two distinct identities politically socially and culturally This text traces the two identities implicit inner contradictions and how they have manifested within Northern Ireland The Thriller and Northern Ireland since 1969 Aaron Kelly, 2017-03-02 For the past 30 years the so called Troubles thriller has been the dominant fictional mode for representing Northern Ireland leading to the charge that the crudity of this popular genre appropriately reflects the social degradation of the North Aaron Kelly challenges both these judgments showing that the historical questions raised by setting a thriller in Northern Ireland disrupt the conventions of the crime novel and allow for a new understanding of both the genre and the country Two essays on crime fiction by Walter Benjamin and Berthold Brecht appear here for the first time in English translation By demonstrating the relevance of these theorists as well as other key European thinkers such as Antonio Gramsci Louis Althusser and Slavoj Zizek to his interdisciplinary study of Irish culture and the crime novel Kelly refutes the idea that Northern Ireland is a stagnate anomaly that has been bypassed by European history and remained impervious to cultural transformation On the contrary Kelly's examination of authors such as Jack Higgins Tom Clancy Gerald Seymour Colin Bateman and Eoin McNamee shows that profound historical change and complexity have characterized both Northern Ireland and the thriller form Guilt Rules All Elizabeth Mannion, Brian Cliff, 2020-09-17 Irish crime fiction long present on international bestseller lists has been knocking on the door of the academy for a decade With a wide range of scholars addressing some of the most essential Irish detective writing Guilt Rules All confirms that this genre has arrived The essays collected here connect their immediate subjects contemporary Irish crime writers to Irish culture literature and history Anchored in both canonical and emerging themes this collection draws on established Irish studies discussions while emphasizing what is new and distinct about Irish crime fiction Guilt Rules All considers best sellers like Adrian McKinty and Liz Nugent as well as other significant writers whose work may fall outside of traditional notions of Irish literature or crime fiction The essays consider a range of themes among them globalization women and violence and the Troubles across settings and time frames allowing readers to trace the patterns that play a meaningful role in this developing genre

Papercuts 4: Hong Kong Phooey Colin Bateman, 2016-02-01 Through world wars and civil strife the Bangor Express has never missed an issue but now it is losing money hand over fist and Rob Cullen fresh off the plane from his London news desk has absolutely no idea that he's the man to save it Lured back to Northern Ireland for the first time in 20 years by the demise of his one time mentor the Bangor Express makes Rob an offer he can't refuse and the Guardian reporter can't resist sticking around After all it has been a long time since Rob had a real story to get his teeth in to and with the Bangor Express that's just what he's going to get Rob is having his usual at Bangor's Hong Kong Palace when the immigration police storm the restaurant hauling off several members of staff including waitress and local netball star Anna Rob can't sit back and let this bright young thing be deported and launches a campaign against the UK Border Agency via the Bangor Express And as if he didn't have enough on his plate Rob's blossoming romance with Alix is rudely interrupted by the arrival of his estranged wife and children

Papercuts 6: The Eagle Has Crash Landed Colin Bateman, 2016-02-01 Through world wars and civil strife the Bangor Express has never missed an issue but now it is losing money hand over fist and Rob Cullen fresh off the plane from his London news desk has absolutely no idea that he's the man to save it Lured back to Northern Ireland for the first time in 20 years by the demise of his one time mentor the Bangor Express makes Rob an offer he can't refuse and the Guardian reporter can't resist sticking around After all it has been a long time since Rob had a real story to get his teeth into and with the Bangor Express that's just what he's going to get Rob is standing outside a local carwash when a young woman jumps out of a van stopped at a red light and is knocked unconscious Rob rushes to her rescue and calls her an ambulance When Alix goes to visit her in hospital he discovers she is a prostitute who has been trafficked into Ireland from the Czech Republic Marja has managed to escape her kidnappers but her friend Anna is still captive at a local brothel The Bangor Express take matters into their own hands to set her free

The Contemporary Irish Detective Novel Elizabeth Mannion, 2016-05-30 Irish detective fiction has enjoyed an international readership for over a decade appearing on best seller lists across the globe But its breadth of hard boiled and amateur detectives historical fiction and police procedurals has remained somewhat marginalized in academic scholarship Exploring the work of some of its leading writers including Peter Tremayne John Connolly Declan Hughes Ken Bruen Brian McGilloway Stuart Neville Tana French Jane Casey and Benjamin Black The Contemporary Irish Detective Novel opens new ground in Irish literary criticism and genre studies It considers the detective genre's position in Irish Studies and the standing of Irish authors within the detective novel tradition Contributors Carol Baraniuk Nancy Marck Cantwell Brian Cliff Fiona Coffey Charlotte J Headrick Andrew Kincaid Audrey McNamara and Shirley Peterson

Papercuts 5: The Good, The Bad and the Quite Ugly Colin Bateman, 2016-02-01 Through World Wars and civil strife the Bangor Express has never missed an issue but now it's limping towards an inevitable doom until London based journalist Rob Cullen arrives on the scene Lured back to Northern Ireland for the first time in 20 years by the demise of his one time mentor the Guardian reporter can't resist fighting for the paper where he first made his name After all it has been a long time since Rob had a real story to get his teeth into and with the Bangor Express that's just what he's going to get It's just another day in the office at the Bangor Express struggling to make ends meet and arguing over who buys the buns when local nutter Magic Martin turns up with the breaking news that he's found a human skull on a piece of land at the end of the bay This is just the opportunity young reporter Michael has been waiting for to cut his teeth so he sets off with Martin to investigate After a close shave with a gun wielding farmer Martin unearths a 200 year old graveyard Perhaps Martin was onto something and there is a story to be told after all
