Off Limits 40 Artangel Projects:

Off Limits James Lingwood, 2002 Surveying 40 projects realised over the past decade by film makers writers visual artists composers choreographers and performers this text provides a unique overview of the special alchemy generated when a location becomes central to the development of a work of art Off Limits James Lingwood, Michael Morris, 2002 Surveying 40 projects realised over the past decade by film makers writers visual artists composers choreographers and performers this text provides a unique overview of the special alchemy generated when a location becomes central to the development of a work of art Artangel and Financing British Art Charlotte Gould, 2018-07-11 The Artangel Trust has been credited with providing artists with all the money and logistics they need to create one off dream projects An independent art commissioning agency based in London it has operated since 1985 and is responsible for producing some of the most striking ephemeral and site specific artworks of the last decades from Rachel Whiteread's House to Jeremy Deller's The Battle of Orgreave Artangel's existence spans three decades which now form a coherent whole in terms of both art historical and political periodisation It was launched as a reaction to the cuts in funding for the visual arts introduced by the Thatcher government in 1979 and has since adapted in a distinctive way to changing cultural policies Its mixed economic model the recourse to public private and corporate funds is the result of the more general hybridisation of funding encouraged by successive governments since the 1980s and offers a contemporary case study on broader questions concerning the specificities of British art patronage This book aims to demonstrate that the singular way its directors have responded to the vagaries of public funding and harnessed new national attitudes to philanthropy has created a sustainable independent model but also that it has been reflected more formally in their approach to site The locational art produced by the agency has indeed mirrored new distinctions between public and private spaces it has reflected the social and economic changes the country has gone through and accompanied the new cultural geographies shaping London and the United Kingdom Looking into whether their funding model might have had a formal incidence on the art they helped produce and on its relation to notions of publicness and privacy the study of Artangel gives a fresh insight into new trends in British site specific art The Practice of Public Art Cameron Cartiere, Shelly Willis, 2008-05-07 Wide ranging and timely The Practice of Public Art brings together practicing artists curators activists art writers administrators city planners and educators from the United Kingdom and United States to offer differing perspectives on the many facets of the public art process The Practice of Public Art examines the continual evolution of public art from monuments and memorials to socially engaged public art practice Topics include constructing new models for developing and commissioning public art works understanding the challenges of public art vs public design and unraveling the relationships between public artists and the communities they serve The Practice of Public Art offers a diverse perspective on the complex nature of public art in the twenty first century Performing Site-Specific Theatre A. Birch, J. Tompkins, 2012-10-10 This book investigates the expanding parameters for site specific performance to account for the form s increasing popularity in the twenty first century Leading practitioners and theorists interrogate issues of performance and site to broaden our understanding of the role that place plays in performance and the ways that performance influences it Commissioning Contemporary Art: A Handbook for Curators, Collectors and Artists Louisa Buck, Daniel McClean, 2012-11-19 The definitive guide on everything one needs to know about commissioning contemporary art In an age of blockbuster exhibitions and public art projects the most exciting artworks are often those that have been specially commissioned for a specific site or event This invaluable guide reveals and demystifies every stage of the commissioning process from the initial invitation to an artist and the financing of a project to the final installation of works Combining theoretical and conceptual considerations with practical ones the text is supplemented with copious quotations and insights from some of the best known artists curators commissioners and museum directors of today It is an essential guide for anyone involved in the process of commissioning new art private collectors foundations public bodies museums galleries and artists themselves as well as those fascinated by the inner workings of the contemporary art world

Restaging the Future Louise Owen, 2023-12-15 An examination of neoliberal ideology s ascendance in 1990s and 2000s British politics and society through its effect on state supported performance practices Post Thatcher British cultural politics were shaped by the government s use of the arts in service of its own social and economic agenda Restaging the Future Neoliberalization Theater and Performance in Britain interrogates how arts practices and cultural institutions were enmeshed with the particular processes of neoliberalization mobilized at the end of the twentieth century and into the twenty first Louise Owen traces the uneasy entanglement of performance with neoliberalism s marketization of social life Focusing on this political moment Owen guides readers through a wide range of performance works crossing multiple forms genres and spaces from European dance tours to Brazilian favelas to the streets of Liverpool attending to their distinct implications for the reenvisioned future in whose wake we now live Analyzing this array of participatory dance film music public art and theater projects Owen uncovers unexpected affinities between community based experimental and avant garde movements Restaging the Future provides key historical context for these performances their negotiations of their political moment and their themes of insecurity identity and inequality created in a period of profound ideological and socioeconomic change

For Creative Geographies Harriet Hawkins, 2013-10-08 This book provides the first sustained critical exploration and celebration of the relationship between Geography and the contemporary Visual Arts With the growth of research in the Geohumanities and the Spatial Humanities there is an imperative to extend and deepen considerations of the form and import of geography art relations Such reflections are increasingly important as geography art intersections come to encompass not only relationships built through interpretation but also those built through shared practices wherein geographers work as and with artists curators and other creative practitioners For Creative Geographies features seven diverse case studies of artists works and exhibitions made towards the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twentieth first century Organized into three analytic sections the volume explores the role of art in the making of geographical knowledge the growth of geographical perspectives as art world analytics and shared explorations of the territory of the body In doing so Hawkins proposes an analytic framework for exploring questions of the geographical work art does the value of geographical analytics in exploring the production and consumption of art and the different forms of encounter that artworks develop whether this be with their audiences or their makers Theatre in the Expanded Field

Alan Read,2013-12-05 Theatre in the Expanded Field is a fiercely original bold and daring exploration of the fields of theatre and performance studies and the received narratives and histories that underpin them Rich with interdisciplinary reference international eclectic and broad ranging in its examples it offers readers a compelling and provocative reassessment of the disciplines one that spans pre history to the present day Sixty years ago in 1962 Richard Southern wrote a remarkable book called The Seven Ages of the Theatre It was unusual in its time for taking a trans disciplinary new historical and avowedly internationalist approach to its subject nothing less than a totalizing view of its field Theatre in the Expanded Field does not attempt to mimic Southern s work but rather takes his spirit of adventure and ambition as its frame for the contemporary moment of performance and its diverse pasts Identifying seven ways of exploring the performance field from pre history to postdramatic theatre the book presents studies of both contemporary and historical works not as a chronological succession but in keeping with their coeval qualities as movements or generations of connection and interaction dissensus and interruption It does this with the same purpose as Richard Southern s original work to provide for the planning of responsive performance spaces now Illustrated throughout with line drawings Theatre in the Expanded Field is as richly rewarding as it is ambitious and expansive in it vision Art and the Home

Imogen Racz,2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts A Companion to Public Art

Cher Krause Knight,Harriet F. Senie,2020-03-24 A Companion to Public Art is the only scholarly volume to examine the main issues theories and practices of public art on a comprehensive scale Edited by two distinguished scholars with contributions from art historians critics curators and art administrators as well as artists themselves Includes 19 essays in four sections tradition site audience and critical frameworks Covers important topics in the field including valorizing victims public art in urban landscapes and on university campuses the role of digital technologies jury selection committees and the intersection of public art and mass media Contains artist s philosophy essays which address larger questions about an artist s body of work and the field of public art by Julian Bonder eteam Hajoe Moderegger and Franziska Lamprecht John Craig Freeman Antony Gormley Suzanne Lacy Caleb Neelon Tatzu Nishi Greg Sholette and Alan Sonfist

Contemporary Art and Memory Joan Gibbons, 2007-12-19 Whether exploring the intimate recollections which make up the artist s own life history or questioning the way the gallery and museum present public memory contemporary art it would seem is haunted by the past Contemporary Art and Memory is the first accessible survey book to explore the subject of memory as it appears in its many guises in contemporary art Looking at both personal and public memory Gibbons explores art as autobiography the memory as trace the role of the archive revisionist memory and postmemory as well as the absence of memory in oblivion Grounding her discussion in historical precedents Gibbons explores the work of a wide range of international artists including Yinka Shonibare MBE Doris Salcedo Keith Piper Jeremy Deller Judy Chicago Louise Bourgeois Tracey Emin Felix Gonzalez Torres Christian Boltanski Janet Cardiff Bill Fontana Pierre Huyghe Susan Hiller Japanese photographer Miyako Ishiuchi and new media artist George Legrady Contemporary Art and Memory will be indispensable to all those concerned with the ways in which artists represent and remember the past

Extended Temporalities Aa.

Vv., 2016-06-27T00:00:00+02:00 This book contains a series of reflections on the theme of temporalities in cinema in the world of art They do so interweaving various paths and various structures in order to arrive at different destination points Which temporalities one may wonder On the boundary between cinema and contemporary art where boundaries actually no longer exist the idea of temporality is affected by paths opened up in historical moments which are actually so recent as to be simply in front of our eyes Video for example derived from television has since been overtaken by the digital evolution yet does not relinquish its domestic function it re creates itself in new forms The same also applies to cinema Art is certainly not limited to this but since it is determined by its technical form in this it continually finds essence and continuity thus a temporality emerges which is determined by technology and by technological change Just as with the temporality determined by the spectator s viewing experience it reveals itself as being in part the personal essence of the subject Therefore they are extended temporalities since they are determined by the unique and unrepeatable combination of the length as predicted by the creator of the work and the unpredictable time management of the observer of the work sometimes bored thoughtful concentrated patient An extendable temporality
