rabbinic spatial imagination as well as places most notably the synagogue where rabbinic attention to space and place is suppressed or absent It concludes that these represent two different but simultaneous rabbinic strategies for re placing God and Israel strategies that at the same time allow God and Israel to find a place anywhere This study offers new insight into the centrality of space and place to rabbinic religion after the destruction of the Temple and as such would be a key resource to students and scholars interested in rabbinic and ancient Judaism as well as providing a major new case study for anthropologists interested in the study of space Investigation Into Federal Services Finance Corporation United States.
