My Story as Told by Water David James Duncan, 2002-08 Offers a loving tribute to the landscape plants and animals of his native Montana Stories Bryan W. Alaspa, 2015-01-08 What lurks inside a small boy's basement Why does that strange man at the bar say he has to get home before midnight What is life really like for a graffiti artist These are just some of the questions you might ask when you read this collection of short stories by Bryan W Alaspa Bryan Alaspa is mostly known for his novels and works of non fiction but he does dabble in short fiction Here for the first time is a short collection of even shorter stories Some of them scary some of them strange all of them entertaining Ursula, Under Ingrid Hill, 2004-01-01 Ursula Wong a racially mixed child falls down a mine shaft and rescue efforts go on against a background of stories about her remarkable ancestors Nature Conservancy, 1998 Bedtime Stories Robin Wickens, 2024-04-12 In the enchanting world of Bedtime Stories imagination knows no bounds and dreams come to life on every page Journey through a magical realm where children's fantasies flourish unveiling whimsical adventures and heartwarming tales that capture the essence of bedtime wonder From brave knights and kind hearted dragons to spirited princesses and mischievous fairies these charming stories will transport readers to a land where anything is possible Delight in the timeless charm of Bedtime Stories a collection that will spark the imagination and warm the hearts of both young and old alike In the Way of the Story Huw Thomas, 2021-12-08 You'll be doing all the work You'll be picking apart plots analyzing characters exploring the setting of biblical narratives and engaging with narrative levels and reader response theory And you'll be doing all the work This is a book about you the reader Drawing on narrative theory this book places readers in the way of the story reading biblical narrative through fresh eyes Using entertaining explanations of literary theory it liberates readers to read their own chosen Bible stories with a fresh understanding of how narratives work Practical activities will inspire the reader to develop their own understanding of stories and in doing so this book tackles hallowed and authoritarian interpretations that can sometimes get in the way of the story This is a book of clear explanation and practical application Called to Be Church Anthony B.

Robinson, Robert W. Wall, 2006-02-15 Biblical scholar Robert Wall and pastoral leader Anthony Robinson here join forces to bring the Acts of the Apostles forward to our time as a resource for congregational renewal and transformation Featuring both careful exegetical study and exciting contemporary exposition the fifteen chapters of Called to Be Church each first interpret the text of Acts as Scripture and then engage Acts for today's church The book dives into many of the most vexing issues faced by the church then and now such issues as conflict resolution pluralism and multiculturalism sexuality money church and state the role of the Holy Spirit and more Enhanced by study questions at the end of each chapter Called to Be Church will lend itself especially well to small group study within congregations Pastors lay readers students and ordinary believers alike will find the book helpful and inspiring Getting Children Writing Simon Brownhill, 2013-05-13 This is a fantastic book which provides creative and practical suggestions of how to engage all children in writing Sarah Martin Denham Senior Lecturer in Primary Education University of Sunderland This book is a practical guide designed to stimulate story writing in the early years and primary classroom It offers a collection of novel and effective Ideas which can be used by educators to energise excite and motivate children to willingly write stories across the 3-11 age phase Each chapter offers creative and innovative Ideas to get children writing stories including how to help children see the point of story writing how speaking and listening reading and phonics can be utilised to enhance written stories how technology can facilitate refreshing story writing how story writing can be physically interactive By combining theory with practice this book is ideal for those training to teach the 3 to 11 age range those beginning their teaching career and those who are established in their professional role Simon Brownhill is Senior Teaching Associate at the University of Cambridge Posthuman Research Practices in Education Carol Taylor, Christina Hughes, 2016-04-08 How do we include and develop understandings of those beyond the human aspects of the world in social research Through fifteen contributions from leading international thinkers this book provides original approaches to posthumanist research practices in education It responds to questions which consider the effect and reach of posthuman research The EC Archives: Shock SuspenStories Volume 1 Various, 2021-09-21 The classic EC series presented as a deluxe size trade paperback This high quality trade reprints the first six complete issues of the pulp comic classic Shock SuspenStories Featuring the titanic artistic talents of Al Feldstein Jack Kamen Jack Davis Joe Orlando Graham Ingles and Wally Wood with a foreword by Steven Spielberg Collects Shock SuspenStories issues 1-6 Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1905 Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney-Brown, 2019-10-16 Jean Vanier's spiritual vision and sense of humour shaped L'Arche but the organization was also informed by its surprising history with the United Church of Canada In Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney Brown explores the connections between the two organizations through diverse critical insights from Julia Kristeva Doreen Massey and Mikhail Bakhtin as well as Vanier's controversial articulation of the gift of weakness Tracing the five decade relationship between L'Arche and the United Church alongside evolving disability theories Whitney Brown examines both the fundamental importance of stories and the agency of people with intellectual disabilities Inversion a transformative overturning of expectations in social interactions can be upsetting or exciting challenging or inspiring she argues This book offers a fresh look at how L Arche and the United Church have worked to break down walls of difference illuminating how each tenders something unexpected to the other and to the world At a time when many are seeking new visions for society the long and complex relationship between Canada s largest Protestant denomination and L Arche offers both encouragement and a deeper way to approach questions of living in diverse communities Experiencing Environment and Place through Children's Literature Amy Cutter-Mackenzie, Phillip Payne, Alan Reid, 2014-06-11 Recent scholarship on children s literature displays a wide variety of interests in classic and contemporary children s books While environmental and ecological concerns have led to an interest in ecocriticism as yet there is little on the significance of the ecological imagination and experience to both the authors and readers young and old of these texts This edited collection brings together a set of original international research based chapters to explore the role of children s literature in learning about environments and places with a focus on how children s literature may inform and enrich our imagination experiences and responses to environmental challenges and injustice Contributions from Australia Canada USA and UK explore the diverse ways in which children s literature can provide what are arguably some of the first and possibly most formative engagements that some children might have with nature Chapters examine classic and new storybooks mythic tales and image based and or written texts read at home in school and in the field Contributors focus on exploring how children s literature mediates and informs our imagination and understandings of diverse environments and places and how it might open our eyes and lives to other presences understandings and priorities through stories their telling and re telling and their analysis This book was originally published as a special issue of Environmental Education Research

The Geographical Imagination of Annie Proulx Alex Hunt, 2010-11-23 This edited collection focuses on Annie Proulx s striking attention to geography place landscape and local environments Contributors consider Proulx s particular landscapes_ particularly those of Wyoming New England Texas and Newfoundland_ and the issues surrounding the significance of these regions and regionalism in contemporary culture and literature

Conquering the Sky Larry E. Tise, 2009-09-29 The nail biting account of the Wright brothers secret flights at Kitty Hawk and their unexpected rise to fame Despite their great achievements following their first powered flights in 1903 Wilbur and Orville Wright still enjoyed virtual anonymity until 1908 In seven crucial days in May of that year however the eyes of the world were suddenly cast upon them as they sought lucrative government contracts for their flying technology and then had to prove the capabilities of their machines In these pivotal moments the brothers were catapulted into unwanted worldwide fame as the international press discovered and followed their covert flight tests and reported their every move using rudimentary telegraphs and early forms of photography From the brothers rise to fame on the historic Outer Banks to the quickly expanding role of the world press and the flights repercussions in war and military technology Tise weaves a fascinating tale of a key turning point in the history of flight Emerging Markets from a Multidisciplinary Perspective Yogesh K. Dwivedi, Nripendra P. Rana, Emma L. Slade, Mahmud A. Shareef, Marc Clement, Antonis C. Simintiras, Banita Lal, 2018-04-11 This book examines prominent issues in the Emerging Markets EM from a variety of disciplines in order to make useful societal contributions through knowledge exchange EMs offer enormous opportunities but realizing them is both challenging and risky due to inherent uncertainties of such markets EMs also have unique characteristics that makes them different from developed countries This causes implications for both theory and practice These markets necessitate substantial adaptations of developed theories and approaches employed in the Western world This book investigates problems specific to emerging markets and identifies new theoretical constructs hypotheses re development and emphasizes institutional contexts The chapters in this book establish new conceptual and theoretical paradigms from multidisciplinary perspectives concentrated in the areas of information systems electronic government and digital and social media matters The book focuses on topics in these areas such as digital enterprises sustainability telemedicine and Information Communication Technology ICT and surveys the potential challenges and opportunities that may arise These concepts and topics covered in this book are vital for making the global economy more equitable and sustainable Travel Connections Jennie Germann Molz, 2012 This book offers a detailed and unified account of travelers lived experiences of travel and technology use and an ethnographically informed analysis of the social cultural and spatial implications of the intersection between travel and technology Tourism and Intercultural Exchange Gavin Jack, Alison Phipps, 2005-05-17 This book asks the question why is it that tourism matters It looks at how it is we do tourism and learn to be tourists when we are on holiday Tourism is a dynamic way of being that may facilitate or hinder intercultural exchange The ways in which we do tourism and the places in which we are tourists raise practical material and emotional questions about tourist life This book draws on both empirical work and a range of theoretical frameworks arguing that tourism matters precisely because of the lessons it can teach us about living everyday life with others
