Moulton,Thomas W. Dunlay,2002-01-01 Since the time of Columbus explorers dreamed of a water passage across the North American continent President Thomas Jefferson shared this dream He conceived the Corps of Discovery to travel up the Missouri River to the Rocky Mountains and westward along possible river routes to the Pacific Ocean Meriwether Lewis and William Clark led this expedition of 1804-6 Along the way they filled hundreds of notebook pages with observations of the geography Indian tribes and natural history of the trans Mississippi West This volume includes Lewis's and Clark's journals beginning in August 1803 when Lewis left Pittsburgh to join Clark farther down the Ohio River The two men and several recruits camped near the mouth of the Missouri River for five months of training acquiring supplies and equipment and gathering information from travelers about the trip upriver They started up the Missouri in May 1804 This volume ends in August when the Corps of Discovery camped near the Vermillion River in present day South Dakota Original Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, 1804-1806 Reuben Gold Thwaites,2001 Original Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition 1804-1806 Parts 1-2 Volume 7 This set was first published in 1904 from the manuscripts of the American Philosophical Society together with manuscript material of Lewis and Clark and from other sources including notebooks letters and maps and the journals of Charles Floyd and Joseph Whitehouse The Definitive Journals of Lewis & Clark: From Fort Mandan to Three Forks Meriwether Lewis,William Clark,Gary E. Moulton,Thomas W. Dunlay,2002-01-01 Since the time of Columbus explorers dreamed of a water passage across the North American continent President Thomas Jefferson shared this dream He conceived the Corps of Discovery to travel up the Missouri River to the Rocky Mountains and westward along possible river routes to the Pacific Ocean Meriwether Lewis and William Clark led this expedition of 1804-6 Along the way they filled hundreds of notebook pages with observations of the geography Indian tribes and natural history of the trans Mississippi West In April 1805 Lewis and Clark and their party set out from Fort Mandan following the Missouri River westward This volume recounts their travels through country never before explored by white people With new personnel including the Shoshone Indian woman Sacagawea her husband Toussaint Charbonneau and their baby nicknamed Pomp the party spent the rest of the spring and early summer toiling up the Missouri Along the way they portaged the difficult Great Falls encountered grizzly bears cataloged new species of plants and animals and mapped rivers and streams The Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition ,1983 When the Corps of Discovery left the vicinity of St Louis in 1804 to explore the American West they had only sketchy knowledge of the terrain that they were to cross existing maps often contained large blank spaces and wild inaccuracies William Clark painstakingly mapped every mile of the journey drawing from both direct observation and from the reports of Indians and a few fur traders On their return Lewis and Clark directed the execution of new maps detailing with remarkable accuracy the features of the country that they had traversed The Definitive Journals of Lewis & Clark: Down the Columbia to Fort Clatsop Gary E. Moulton, 2002-01-01 Since the time of Columbus explorers dreamed of a water passage across the North American continent President Thomas Jefferson shared this dream He conceived the Corps of Discovery to travel up the Missouri River to the Rocky Mountains and westward along possible river routes to the Pacific Ocean Meriwether Lewis and William Clark led this expedition of 1804-6 Along the way they filled hundreds of notebook pages with observations of the geography Indian tribes and natural history of the trans Mississippi West This volume covers the last leg of the party's route from the Cascades of the Columbia River to the Pacific Coast and their stay at Fort Clatsop near the river's mouth until the spring of 1806 Travel and exploration were hampered by miserable weather While in winter quarters Lewis wrote detailed reports on natural phenomena and Indian life These descriptions were accompanied by sketches of plants and animals as well as of Indians and their canoes tools and clothing The Definitive Journals of Lewis & Clark: From the Pacific to the Rockies Meriwether Lewis, William Clark, Gary E. Moulton, Thomas W. Dunlay, 2002-01-01 Since the time of Columbus explorers dreamed of a water passage across the North American continent President Thomas Jefferson shared this dream He conceived the Corps of Discovery to travel up the Missouri River to the Rocky Mountains and westward along possible river routes to the Pacific Ocean Meriwether Lewis and William Clark led this expedition of 1804-6 Along the way they filled hundreds of notebook pages with observations of the geography Indian tribes and natural history of the trans Mississippi West After a rainy winter the Corps of Discovery turned homeward in March 1806 from Fort Clatsop on the mouth of the Columbia River Detained by winter snows they camped among the friendly Nez Percés in modern west central Idaho Lewis and Clark attended to sick Indians and continued their scientific observations while others in the party hunted and socialized with Native peoples Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Pamela J. Farris, 2015-02-03 The latest edition of Pamela Farris's popular value priced text continues to offer pre and in service teachers creative strategies and proven techniques sensitive to the needs of all elementary and middle school learners Coverage includes the C3 Framework and the four sets of learning from the National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies Farris together with contributors who specialize in implementing successful teaching methods and theories demonstrate how classroom teachers can excite and inspire their students to be engaged learners The Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition: August 30, 1803-August 24, 1804 Meriwether Lewis, 1983-01-01 The journey of the Corps of Discovery under the command of Captains Meriwether Lewis and William Clark across the American West to the Pacific Ocean and back in the years 1804-1806 seems to me to have been our first really American adventure one that also produced our only really American epic The Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition now at last available in a superbly edited easily read edition in twelve volumes of an eventual thirteen almost two centuries after the Corps of Discovery set out This important text has not been fully appreciated for what it is because of two centuries of incomplete and inadequate editing All three editions previous to this excellent one from the University of Nebraska were flawed by significant omission Thus my gratitude to the present editor Gary Moulton and his assistant editor Thomas Dunlay for bringing what I believe to be a national epic into plain view at last For almost two hundred years their Lewis and Clark s strong words waited there but not there printed but not read our silent epic But words can wait now the captains writings have at last spilled out and fully in this regal edition When the Atlas of the Lewis and Clark Expedition appeared in 1983 critics hailed it as a publishing landmark This eagerly awaited second volume of the new Journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition begins the actual journals of those explorers whose epic expedition still enthalls Americans Instructed by President Jefferson to keep meticulous records bearing on the geography ethnology and natural history of the trans Mississippi West Meriwether Lewis and William Clark and four of their men filled hundreds of notebook pages with observations during their expedition of 1804 6 The result was in is a national treasure a complete look at the Great Plains the Rockies and the Pacific Northwest reported by men who were intelligent and well prepared at a time when almost nothing was known about those regions so newly acquired in the Louisiana Purchase Volume 2 includes Lewis s and Clark s journals for the period from August 1803 when Lewis left Pittsburgh to join Clark farther down the Ohio River to August 1804 when the Corps of Discovery camped near the Vermillion River in present South Dakota The general introduction by Gary E Moulton discusses the history of the expedition the journal keeping methods of Lewis and Clark and the editing and publishing history of the journals from the time of Lewis and Clark s return Superseding the last edition published early in this century the current edition brings together new materials discovered since then It greatly expands and updates the annotation to take account of the most recent scholarship on the many subjects touched on by the journals

Moulton,Thomas W. Dunlay,1983-01-01 Volume 8 of this prize winning new edition continues the return of the expeditionary party from their base at Camp Chopunnish on the Clearwater River in present Idaho back to St Louis At the outset they are hindered by deep snow but after returning to obtain help from Nez Perce guides they make rapid progress so much so that at their Travelers Rest Camp near the site of today s Missoula Montana the captains divide the party for separate explorations Lewis heads east to the Missouri River then north along the Marias to examine the northern extent of the Louisiana Purchase Clark goes southeast toward the Yellowstone to explore that river and to make contact with local Indians Lewis s party suffers various forms of ill luck grizzlies horse thieves and a violent encounter with a party of Piegan Blackfeet the only trouble of this kind on the expedition and Lewis is wounded by one of his own men in a hunting accident Clark's group has its own troubles although not as severe as those of Lewis and his men The two parties eventually reunite on August 12 in present North Dakota and continue downriver They revisit Indian tribes Mandans Hidatsas Arikaras and Yankton Sioux they had met on the way out and encounter traders and trappers going upriver They arrive back in St Louis to a triumphal welcome on September 23
