HAUSA FOLK LORE - West African folklore, tales and legends Various, 2009-08 When R Sutherland Rattray joined the School of Anthropology at Exeter College Oxford he had already published Chinyanja Folklore which documented the tales and customs of the Chinyanja of Central Africa He was also quite familiar with several West African languages Therefore on his transfer to West Africa learning about the Hausa language and culture became another string in his already full bow and it was only a matter of time before Hausa Folklore was published However understanding the Hausa culture requires an understanding of Islam itself a task that can seem near insurmountable when the student is from a Western background Hausa Folklore does not claim to stand alone a considerable library of Hausa literature already exists Hausa Folklore is an enrichment of this proud tradition which brings the Western world directly into contact with Hausa culture This volume tells of the origin of the spider of beautiful maidens of how hartebeest came by the teardrops under their eyes of witches of doctors riding hyenas on pilgrimages of the cause of thunder and more Some of these tales are more fairy than legend and others more folk than fairy Each story imparts a clear message about right and wrong while showing what colour and variety lies hidden in the monotone of the Sahara A percentage of the profit from the sale of this book will go towards organisations which offer educational scholarships in Africa So curl up with these unique West African stories from yesteryear with the knowledge that you have helped sponsor the education of an underprivileged African youth The Healing Heart—Families Allison M. Unconditional Love - My Father Killed My Mother... This is the True Story of How I Learnt to Forgive Him Natalia Aggiano,2013-04-15 Elva Aggiano was murdered in 1997 by her husband Bruno Of the four Aggiano children three vowed never to speak to their father again Remarkably their daughter Natalia renewed her relationship with Bruno and became his friend and companion until his death in 2066 This is her astonishing story Kind and loyal Elva was a bright young woman from a typical English seaside town who was swept off her feet by an older handsome Italian bodybuilder It was all she had ever wanted the promise of life as a loving mother and devoted wife

But a dark secret from her past left vulnerable to Bruno's brooding possessive nature and behind closed doors Elva's family idyll turned into a reign of terror of both mental and physical abuse for her and her children. Their daughter Natalia speaks for the first time about how the family suffered about her escape onto the streets aged 17 and her traumatic struggle to survive alone. Natalia finally persuaded Elva to run away along with her youngest son and for the first time Elva found the happiness and confidence that had always eluded her. But it was not to last. Giving way to Bruno's request to see his young son, Elva returned to the marital home where Bruno mercilessly stabbed her to death. Against all odds, Natalia found the courage to stand by her father even after he'd ripped the family apart. During often harrowing visits to Rampton high security psychiatric hospital, she learned to love Bruno for the first time. Her fascinating journey led Natalia to honour her mother's memory, finding a way to live forgiveness and unconditional love. Amazing Peter Andre. An extraordinary young woman and so selfless.
