A Strangeness in My Mind Orhan Pamuk, 2015-10-06 Since his boyhood in a poor village in Central Anatolia Mevlut Karatas has fantasized about what his life would become Not getting as far in school as he'd hoped at the age of twelve he comes to Istanbul the center of the world and is immediately enthralled both by the city being demolished and the new one that is fast being built He follows his father's trade selling boza on the street and hopes to become rich like other villagers who have settled on the desolate hills outside the booming metropolis But chance seems to conspire against him He spends three years writing love letters to a girl he saw just once at a wedding only to elope by mistake with her sister And though he grows to cherish his wife and the family they have his relations all make their fortunes while his own years are spent in a series of jobs leading nowhere he is sometimes attracted to the politics of his friends and intermittently to the lodge of a religious guide But every evening without fail he still wanders the streets of Istanbul selling boza and wondering at the strangeness in his mind the sensation that makes him feel different from everyone else until fortune conspires once more to let him understand at last what it is he has always yearned for Told from the perspectives of many beguiling characters A Strangeness in My
