Offerings At The Wall Artifacts From The Vietnam Veterans Memorial:

Offerings at the Wall Thomas B. Allen, 1999-07 On Veterans Day 1982 a unique monument was dedicated in Wash DC with 140 black panels engraved with the names of the more than 58 000 Americans who died in Vietnam Now as much a shrine as a monument the Vietnam Wall has become a pilgrimage site a place where people leave votive offerings in a variety too wide to categorize All of them have been collected preserved cataloged by the National Park Service This volume presents a selection of the mementos left at the wall ranging from combat boots weapons to baseballs bubble gum wrappers to a family photograph taken from the body of a dead Vietnamese soldier Carried to the Wall Kristin Ann

Hass, 2023-04-28 On May 9 1990 a bottle of Jack Daniels a ring with letter a Purple Heart and Bronze Star a baseball a photo album an ace of spades and a pie were some of the objects left at the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial For Kristin Hass this eclectic sampling represents an attempt by ordinary Americans to come to terms with a multitude of unnamed losses as well as to take part in the ongoing debate of how this war should be remembered Hass explores the restless memory of the Vietnam War and an American public still grappling with its commemoration In doing so it considers the ways Americans have struggled to renegotiate the meanings of national identity patriotism community and the place of the soldier in the aftermath of a war that ruptured the ways in which all of these things have been traditionally defined Hass contextualizes her study of this phenomenon within the history of American funerary traditions in particular non Anglo traditions in which material offerings are common the history of war memorials and the changing symbolic meaning of war Her evocative analysis of the site itself illustrates and enriches her larger theses regarding the creation of public memory and the problem of remembering war and the resulting casualties in this case not only 58 000 soldiers but also conceptions of masculinity patriotism and working class pride and idealism On May 9 1990 a bottle of Jack Daniels a ring with letter a Purple Heart and Bronze Star a baseball a photo album an ace of spades and a pie were some of the objects left at the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial For Kristin Hass this eclectic sampli Offerings at the Wall Thomas B. Allen, 1995 Shows artifacts left at the memorial including medals letters crosses combat paraphernalia and flags American Studies Janice A. Radway, Kevin

Gaines, Barry Shank, Penny Von Eschen, 2009-03-09 American Studies is a vigorous bold account of the changes in the field of American Studies over the last thirty five years Through this set of carefully selected key essays by an editorial board of expert scholars the book demonstrates how changes in the field have produced new genealogies that tell different histories of both America and the study of America Charts the evolution of American Studies from the end of World War II to the present day by showcasing the best scholarship in this field An introductory essay by the distinguished editorial board highlights developments in the field and places each essay in its historical and theoretical context Explores topics such as American politics history culture race gender and working life Shows how changing perspectives have enabled older concepts to emerge in a different context The Vietnam War in American Memory Christian Goodwillie, Jane F. Crosthwaite, 2009

From the very beginning in the 1770s singing was an important part of the worship services of the Shakers formally known as the United Society of Believers in Christ's Second Appearing Yet until the early nineteenth century nearly all Shaker songs were wordless expressed in unknown tongues or as enthusiastic vocalizations Only when Shaker missionaries moved west into Ohio and Kentucky did they begin composing hymn texts chiefly as a means of conveying the sect's unconventional religious ideas to new converts In 1812-13 the Shakers published their first hymnal This venture titled Millennial Praises included the texts without music for one hundred and forty hymns and elucidated the radical and feminist theology of the Shakers neatly distilled in verse This scholarly edition of the hymnal joins the texts to original Shaker tunes for the first time One hundred and twenty six of the tunes preserved in the Society's manuscript hymnals have been transcribed from Shaker musical notation into modern standard notation thus opening this important religious and folk repertoire to modern scholars Many texts are presented with a wide range of variant tunes from Shaker communities in New England New York Ohio and Kentucky Introductory essays by volume editors Christian Goodwillie and Jane F Crosthwaite place Millennial Praises in the context of Shaker history and offer a thorough explication of the Society's theology They track the use of the hymnal from the point of publication up to the present day beginning with the use of the hymns by both Shaker missionaries and anti Shaker apostates and ending with the current use of the hymns by the last remaining Shaker family at Sabbathday Lake Maine The volume includes a CD of historical recordings of six Shaker songs by Brother Ricardo Belden the last member of the Society at Hancock Shaker Village

Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 Analyzing the ways U S culture has been formed and transformed in the 80s and 90s by its response to the Vietnam War and the AIDS epidemic Marita Sturken argues that each has disrupted our conventional notions of community nation consensus and American culture She examines the relationship of camera images to the production of cultural memory the mixing of fantasy and reenactment in memory the role of trauma and survivors in creating cultural comfort and how discourses of healing can smooth over the tensions of political events Sturken's discussion encompasses a brilliant comparison of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the AIDS Quilt her profound reading of the Memorial as a national wailing wall one whose emphasis on the veterans and war dead has allowed the discourse of heroes sacrifice and honor to resurface at the same time that it is an implicit condemnation of war is particularly compelling The book also includes discussions of the Kennedy assassination the Persian Gulf War the Challenger explosion and the Rodney King beating While debunking the image of the United States as a culture of amnesia Sturken also shows how remembering itself is a form of forgetting and how exclusion is a vital part of memory formation

Documents That Changed the Way We Live Joseph Janes, 2017-05-26 Documents are milestones and markers of human activity part of who and what we are Our story can be told through the objects profound and trivial famous and forgotten by which we remember and are remembered Documents That Changed the Way We Live examines dozens of compelling stories that describe these documents their creation motivation influence importance historical and social context provenance and their

Spontaneous Shrines and the Public Memorialization of Death J. Santino, 2016-04-30 This is an edited volume of approximately 17 essays that deal with various types of spontaneous shrines and other related public memorializations of death The articles address events such as New York after 9 11 roadside crosses and the use of Day of the Dead altars to bring attention to deceased undocumented immigrants

Remembering the AIDS Quilt Charles E. Morris III, 2011-06-01 A collaborative creation unlike any other the NAMES Project Foundation s AIDS Memorial Quilt has played an invaluable role in shattering the silence and stigma that surrounded the epidemic in the first years of its existence Designed by Cleve Jones the AIDS Quilt is the largest ongoing community arts project in the world Since its conception in 1987 the Quilt has transformed the cultural and political responses to AIDS in the U S Representative of both marginalized and mainstream peoples the Quilt contains crucial material and symbolic implications for mourning the dead and the treatment and prevention of AIDS However the project has raised numerous questions concerning memory activism identity ownership and nationalism as well as issues of sexuality race class and gender As thought provoking as the Quilt itself this diverse collection of essays by ten prominent rhetorical scholars provides a rich experience of the AIDS Quilt incorporating a variety of perspectives critiques and interpretations

Places of Commemoration Joachim Wolschke-Bulmahn, 2001 Everyone is occupied consciously or unconsciously with identity one s origin and the question of one s place in humankind and society of the past present and future Identity and memory are not stable and objective things but representations or constructions of reality related to a particular interest such as class gender of power relations Identity is problematic without history and without the commemoration of history and of course such remembrance may distort historical events and facts When dealing with gardens a substantial part of our physical environment there are always unspoken questions of identity Places of Commemoration examines commemorative sites of different character including gardens landscapes memorials cemeteries and sites of former Nazi concentration camps detailing the ideas behind the creation of memorials and monuments and the struggles over the narratives they present

Memorials to Shattered Myths Harriet Senie, 2016 Memorials to the Vietnam War veterans Oklahoma City bombing Columbine school shooting and 9 11 terrorist attacks commemorate events that shattered myths of national identity Conflating memorials with cemeteries they celebrate victims as if they were heroes This new paradigm prompts an endless loop of mourning camouflaging history in a triumphal narrative

True Refuge Tara Brach, 2013-01-22 From the award winning author of Radical Acceptance comes a healing and helpful meditation and a gracefully written spiritual gem on awareness refuge and presence Spirituality Practice This is a precious gift filled with insight shared from heart to heart Thich Nhat Hanh How do you cope when facing life threatening illness family conflict a faltering relationship old trauma obsessive thinking overwhelming emotion or inevitable loss If you're like most people chances are you react with fear and confusion falling back on timeworn strategies anger self judgment and addictive behaviors But there is another way Beneath the turbulence of our thoughts and emotions exists a profound stillness a silent awareness capable of limitless love Tara Brach calls this awareness our true refuge because it is available to every one of us at any moment Based on a fresh interpretation of the three classic Buddhist gateways to freedom truth love and awareness True Refuge shows us the way not just to heal our suffering but also to cultivate our capacity for genuine happiness Through spiritual teachings guided meditations and inspirational stories of people who discovered loving presence during times of great struggle Brach invites us to connect more deeply with our own inner life one another and the world around us

Better Worlds Peter Roberts, John Freeman-Moir, 2013-02-21 Better Worlds Education Art and Utopia provides a fresh examination of utopia and education Adopting an interdisciplinary approach and drawing on literature and the visual arts as well as traditional non fiction sources the authors explore utopia not as a model of social perfection but as the active imaginative building of better worlds Utopian questions they argue lie at the heart of education and addressing such questions demands attention not just to matters of theoretical principle but to the particulars of everyday life and experience Taking utopia seriously in educational thought also involves a consideration of that which is dystopian Utopia this book suggests is not something that is fixed final or ever fully realized instead it must be constantly recreated and education as an ongoing process of reflection action and transformation has a central role to play in this process

The Uses of Art in Public Space Julia Lossau, Quentin Stevens, 2014-12-05 This book links two fields of interest which are too seldom considered together the production and critique of art in public space and social behaviour in the public realm Whilst most writing about public art has focused on the aesthetic cultural and political intentions and processes that shape its production this edited collection examines a variety of public artworks from the perspective of their actual everyday use Contributors are interested in the rich diversity of peoples engagements with public artworks across various spatial and temporal scales encounters which do not limit themselves to the representational aspects of the art and which are not necessarily as the artist curator or sponsor intended Case studies consider a broad range of public art including commissioned and unofficial artworks memorials street art street furniture performance art sound art and media installations

Beyond the Good Death James W. Green, 2012-03-15 In November 1998 millions of television viewers watched as Thomas Youk died Suffering from the late stages of Lou Gehrig's disease Youk had called upon infamous Michigan pathologist Dr Jack Kevorkian to help end his life on his own terms After delivering the videotape to 60 Minutes Kevorkian was arrested and convicted of manslaughter despite the fact that Youk's family firmly believed that the ending of his life qualified as a good death Death is political as the controversies surrounding Jack Kevorkian and more recently Terri Schiavo have shown While death is a natural event modern end of life experiences are shaped by new medical demographic and cultural trends People who are dying are kept alive sometimes against their will or the will of their family with powerful medications machines and heroic measures Current research on end of life issues is substantial involving many fields Beyond the Good Death takes an anthropological approach examining the changes in our concept of death over the last several decades As author James W Green determines the attitudes of today's baby boomers differ greatly from those of their parents and grandparents who spoke politely and in hushed voices of those who had passed away Dr Elisabeth Kbler Ross in the 1960s gave the public a new language for speaking openly about death with her five steps of dying If we talked more about death she emphasized it would become less fearful for everyone The term good death reentered the public consciousness as narratives of AIDS cancer and other chronic diseases were featured on talk shows and in popular books such as the best selling Tuesdays with Morrie Green looks at a number of contemporary secular American death practices that are still informed by an ancient religious ethos Most important Beyond the Good Death provides an interpretation of the ways in which Americans react when death is at hand for themselves or for those they care about

Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens, Karen A. Franck, 2015-08-11 Memorials are more diverse in design and subject matter than ever before No longer limited to statues of heroes placed high on pedestals contemporary memorials engage visitors in new often surprising ways contributing to the liveliness of public space In Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens and Karen A Franck explore how changes in memorial design and use have helped forge closer richer relationships between commemorative sites and their visitors The authors combine first hand analysis of key examples with material drawn from existing scholarship Examples from the US Canada Australia and Europe include official formally designed memorials and informal ones those created by the public without official sanction Memorials as Spaces of Engagement discusses important issues for the design management and planning of memorials and public space in general The book is organized around three topics how the physical design of memorial objects and spaces has evolved since the 19th century how people experience and understand memorials through the activities of commemorating occupying and interpreting and the issues memorials raise for management and planning Memorials as Spaces of Engagement will be of interest to architects landscape architects and artists historians of art architecture and culture urban sociologists and geographers planners policymakers and memorial sponsors and all those concerned with the design and use of public space Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2014-12-18 This comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion offers a unique look at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century Previous scholarship has largely focused on traditional beliefs and paid little attention to how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social context Employing a sociological approach Death and Religion in a Changing World describes how people from a wide variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies The book includes coverage of newly emerging social and religious phenomena that are only just beginning to be analyzed by religion scholars such as public shrines the role of the media spiritual bereavement groups and the use of the Internet in death practices The Unfinished Bombing Edward T. Linenthal, 2003-05-01 On April 19 1995 the bombing of the Alfred P Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City shook the nation destroying our complacent sense of safety and sending a community into a tailspin of shock grief and bewilderment Almost as difficult as the bombing itself has been the aftermath its legacy for Oklahoma City and for the nation and the struggle to recover from this unprecedented attack In The Unfinished Bombing Edward T Linenthal explores the many ways Oklahomans and other Americans have tried to grapple with this catastrophe Working with exclusive access to materials gathered by the Oklahoma City National Memorial Archive and drawing from over 150 personal interviews with family members of those murdered survivors rescuers and many others Linenthal looks at how the bombing threatened cherished ideas about American innocence sparked national debate on how to respond to terrorism at home and abroad and engendered a new bereaved community in Oklahoma City itself Linenthal examines how different stories about the bombing were told through positive narratives of civic renewal and of religious redemption and more negative narratives of toxicity and trauma He writes about the extraordinary bonds of affection that were created in the wake of the bombing acts of kindness empathy and compassion that existed alongside the toxic legacy of the event The Unfinished Bombing offers a compelling look at both the individual and the larger cultural consequences of one of the most searing events in recent American history Berlin - Washington, 1800-2000 Andreas Daum, Christof Mauch, 2005-12-26 Publisher description
