Gibowicz,2007-09 This book is about the military Sea Service Mess Night the Sea Services consisting of the Navy Marines and Coast Guard Mess Nights are traditional time honored events going back to at least the 18th Century Formal military dining has historically been a way to communicate to celebrate special events and a way to promote unity and camaraderie The Mess Night although a military formation and a formal event is also a great deal of fun Some of today s protocol and script is not exactly matching the past Today s Mess Night is a bit more regimented and programmed but basically reflects all that was included in the old days and also reflects some of procedures used during the days of sail This book is written because there are no books on Mess Nights this is a first Like many Sea Service customs and traditions this custom has been handed down from generation to generation unwritten Scripts and instructions were not necessary as Mess dinners were common The British Navy can claim a continuous unbroken tradition and they are basically the providers of the American tradition They host Mess dinners much more frequently than the Americans do and the entire Navy traditionally celebrates the anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar Americans have no set celebration and also have fewer Mess Nights Many officers are not even aware of Mess Nights This is because of several factors covered in the book Hopefully this book will stimulate greater interest in this important event As the alcohol rule for ships rule has been loosened it is particularly hopeful that shipboard Mess Nights can again become an event It would be most appropriate to celebrate the event for which the ship is named or to begin the tradition of celebrating Navy Day or other famous event such as those listed in this book      Journal of the United Service Institution of India ,1949      The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library (London),Jim Emmett,1981      A Chronological History of the Origin and Development of Steam Navigation George Henry Preble,John Lipton Lochhead,1883      History of Camp Lakeview National Guard Training Camp 1881-1931, Lake City, Minnesota Andru Peters,2023-01-20 History of Camp Lakeview National Guard Training Camp 1881 1931 Lake City Minnesota By Andru Peters History of Camp Lakeview National Guard Training Camp shares the history of Lake City founded in 1872 and its Camp Lakeview a space where Minnesota National Guardsmen and state militia members trained for fifty years in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries during our country s involvement in the Spanish American War Mexican Border War and World War I In this history notable soldiers and leaders are highlighted and their impact on history noted      Stories from small museums Fiona
