101 TO GRADUATE

FIRST COURSE HERE
GRADUATES SEPTEMBER
8th, 1944

First Course Here Graduates September 8
A milestone in the history of this station will have been reached when, on September 8 Course 101 will graduate and leave to reach further afield in the realm of flying. Perhaps the few weeks they will spend at A.C.T.S.'s will make them wish that once more they could be back here; gophers, ground loops, weeds and all but right now all thoughts are turned to Wings. And parties.

Arriving at St. Hubert's last January they came out here in the advance party and aside from actually learning the fly Barrandine and Master Ground School have done much towards the establishment of this station. As part of the advance party they indulged in a little gardening (I see the word loosely), a few of the boys shovelled coal, others mowed up the moss, (which may account for a lot) and all were the personification of Joe. However, March arrived and with long post fervor flying was begun with a relish. It will be notable that although they started with relish most of them will be pining the night of the Graduation Party.

Seriously, though, this must be a great day coming for those fellows who have undergone many setbacks and undoubtedly they will be relieved as well as happy to get their Wings. During their prolonged stay the course was lengthened, more weeds grew and it was this course that first endeared the great northern species to open the R3 at Hamlin.

To those left behind, the one who have kept them flying, there should be some little pride to know that we are organized, that we have been successful and that the first course is well on its way. So, to Course 101, congratulations. You have overcome greater hardships, and endured what must have seemed endless setbacks, and we wish you Success and Good Luck. You, above all deserve it. I I I I

C.O. POSTED

It is with regret that the personnel of this station receive the news of the forthcoming departure of G/C Searle, the C.O. of the unit since it became known as No. 13 S.F.T.S., early this year.

As the whole station has been actively aware of, and participated in, the G.C.'s wholehearted efforts to make this a unit that we can be proud of, we feel that it is unfortunate he has to go when things have at last begun to move smoothly.

G/C Searle is due to leave us on September 1st for his new station—No. 10 S.F.T.S., Dauphin, in Manitoba. The new C.O. is W/C N. S. Anderson, an old schoolmate of our present C.O. We expect to greet him sometime next month.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW

—Stand up straight there. Try and look like an airman at least." —a raspy voice on that one and only day each so often when there is a little sunshine and one has a slight semblance of happiness. Billings prevails, a summer comes from the Australian column lined up by the table that holds that elusive lure—"Who is he—himself?" someone remarks. Then again the VOICE: "If there is any more talking the privilege (the privilege mind you) of being paid will be withheld till next payday." Well, we know it's a privilege to be in the Service but we don't care to be reminded of it so often and that we might feel that we are doing something for our various countries.

An enlightening interlude to these momentous occasions is offered by our M.O. who really makes his 'point' in a manner which does please the boys.—One and all we thank him. Another personality known from the Guardhouse to Latrine is that "happy" person that serves us so delicately in the mess—Hey, you, can't you read —no seconds today. Pet that second dish of prunes down or I'll clock you with this bag."

Thus we go our weary way. These people are really a household word on this station, and part of the institution. Lovely Characters all!

Personality Of The Month

LAC RAJAHUNAR BAHADUR SINGH

Many of us who joined up to see the world, found that the world, as seen from the Airforce, consisted of (a) Manning Depot, (b) Trade School and (c) No. 13 S.F.T.S.

But now we are getting a bit of compensation. Since we cannot go to see it, the world is coming bit to bit, to us. Course 122 has brought us members of 3 different Services, and members of many more nationalities.

One of the most interesting of these "strangers" is Rajahunar Bahadur Singh. Born in the city of Bikaner, capital of the State of Bikaner, in North-western India, on January 11st, 1911, he is the second son of Colonel Niharanga Narayansingh, present Army and Finance Minister of that State. His grand uncle, the present ruler of the state, His eldest brother is a Captain in an Indian Cavalry Regiment.

He joined the Indian Air Force and had begun his S.F.T.S. there when he decided to join a group of volunteers to finish training in Canada. This meant reverting from Cadet Officer to LAC, but it also offered an opportunity to travel, and by February he was in Canada.

He is interested in sports generally, and ground hockey in particular. He had some journalistic experience in India.

He finds the business and entertainment centres of the large Canadian and American cities are quite similar to those found in the larger cities of his native land, where American films are the most popular of foreign movies. Only in the residential districts, and in the country has he found great differences of apparel, architecture and customs. The great climatic difference is the absence here of the yearly monsoon. Young men and women meet more freely here.

He is very pleased with this opportunity to see the rest of the world, and considers travel a valuable part of a sound education.

A sweet young thing: "I'm very disappointed. Everything I do seems to be wrong."

Any Airman: "Is that right? What are you doing Saturday?"
