Prophetic Faith:

The Prophetic Faith Martin Buber, 2015-10-27 The author brings to a focus his interpretation of biblical religion as an existential confrontation between God and man in which God calls man individual and collective to decision man responds and God judges Prophetic Faith of our Fathers Vol 3 , Process Theology and Prophetic Faith Bruce G.

Epperly, 2023-12-05 Being prophetic is often thought to be a matter of predicting the future creating charts of end times events and scaring people into accepting narrow authoritarian and other worldly images of God humankind and political involvement That is a distortion of what prophetic ministry has been and can continue to be In this booklet the second of three that integrate process theology with contemporary spiritual life and activity Bruce Epperly presents a prophetic vision and also a vision of prophetic ministry that is forward looking but not predictive or controlling challenging while offering freedom and positive in its outlook Epperly is a specialist in bringing difficult concepts to life for everyone He combines that skill with the short format of the Topical Line Drives series to present a call to prophetic ministry that invites everyone to action and applies the prophetic voice to lifegiving words and works for all people everywhere and also for the planet we live on This book may well be the call you need to hear to be a voice and a medium for positive change in our world The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers: pt. 1, Colonial and early national American exposition. pt. 2, Old World nineteenth century advent awakening Le Roy Edwin Froom, 1946 The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers Le Roy Edwin Froom, 1977 The

The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers: Pre-Reformation and Reformation; restoration, and second departure Le Roy Edwin Froom, 1946 Modern Jewish Thought on Crisis Ghilad H. Shenhav, Cedric Cohen-Skalli, Gilad Sharvit, 2024-01-29 This volume brings together scholars from a range of disciplines to explore the intersections between crisis scholarship and action The aim of this book is to think about the moment of crisis through the concepts writings and methodologies awarded to us by Jewish thinkers in modernity This book offers a broad gallery of accounts on the notion of crisis in Jewish modernity while emphasizing three terms interpretation heresy and messianism The main thesis of the volume is that the diasporic and exilic experience of the Jewish people turned their philosophers and theologians into experts in crisis management who had to find resources within their own religion culture and traditions in order to react endure and overcome short and long term

historical crises The underlining assumption of this book is therefore that Jewish thought obtains resources for conceptualizing and reacting to the current forms of crisis in the global European and Israeli spheres The volume addresses a large readership in humanities social and political sciences and religious studies taking as its assumption that scholars in modern Jewish thought have an extended responsibility to engage in contemporary debates Faith and Fratricide Rosemary Radford Ruether,1996-09-08 Since the Nazi holocaust took the lives of a third of the Jewish people of the world the Christian Church has been engaged in a self examination of its own historical role in the creation of anti semitism In this major contribution to that search theologian Rosemary Radford Ruether explores the roots of anti semitism from new perspectives Just faith Stephan de Beer,2018-12-01 The purpose of this scholarly book is to expand the body of knowledge available on urban theology It introduces readers to the concept of planetary urbanisation with the view of deepening an understanding of urbanisation and its all pervasive impact on the planet people and places from a theological perspective A critical theological reading of the urban is also provided deliberating on bridging the divide between voices from the Global South and the Global North In doing so this book simultaneously seeks out robust and dynamic faith constructs expressed in various forms and embodiments of justice The methodology chosen transcended narrow disciplinary boundaries situating reflections between and across disciplines in the interface between scholarly reflection and an activist faith as well as between local rootedness and global connectedness This was facilitated by the collected gathering of authors spanning all continents various Christian faith traditions and multiple disciplines as well as a range of methodological approaches The book endeavours to contribute to knowledge production in a number of ways Firstly it suggests the inadequacy of most dominant faith expressions in the face of all pervasive forces of urbanisation and it also provides clues as to the possibility of fostering potent alternative imaginaries Secondly it explores a decolonial faith that is expressed in various forms of justice It is an attempt to offer concrete embodiments of what such a faith could look like in the context of planetary urbanisation Thirdly the book does not focus on one specific urban challenge or mode of ministry but rather introduces the concept of planetary urbanisation and then offers critical lenses with which to interrogate its consequences and challenges It considers concrete and liberating faith constructs in areas ranging from gender race economic inequality a solidarity economics and housing to urban violence indigeneity and urbanisation the interface between economic and environmental sustainability and grass roots theological education Liberating Faith Roger S. Gottlieb,2003 Table of contents The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers Leroy Froom,2014-06-08 Leroy Froom give us a extraordinary series of the prophetic faith of our fathers This is a very deep investigation since the beginning in the bible about the gift of prophecy Volume 1 Part 1 Arguing the Apocalypse Stephen D. O'Leary,1998-08-20 Apocalyptic expectations of Armageddon and a New Age have been a fixture of the American cultural landscape for centuries With the approach of the year 2000 such millennial visions seem once again to be increasing in popularity Stephen O Leary sheds new light on the age old phenomenon of the End of the Age by proposing a rhetorical explanation for the appeal of millennialism Using examples of apocalyptic argument from ancient to modern times O Leary identifies the recurring patterns in apocalyptic texts and movements and shows how and why the Christian Apocalypse has been used to support a variety of political stances and programs The book concludes with a critical review of the recent appearances of doomsday scenarios in our politics and culture and a meditation on the significance of the Apocalypse in the nuclear age Arguing the Apocalypse is the most thorough examination of its subject to date a study of a neglected chapter of our religious and cultural history a guide to the politics of Armageddon and a map of millennial consciousness Reverberations of Faith Walter Brueggemann,2002-01-01

Explores more than 100 Old Testament themes Each entry states the consensus reading identifies what is at issue in the interpretive question and discusses the practical significance of the issue for the church today in part by suggesting contemporary connections to the ancient texts A Public Faith Miroslav Volf,2011-08-01 Covering such timely issues as witness in a multifaith society and political engagement in a pluralistic world this compelling book highlights things Christians can do to serve the common good Now in paperback Praise for the cloth edition Named one of the Top 100 Books and one of the Top 10 Religion Books of 2011 by Publishers Weekly Accessible wise guidance for people of all faiths Publishers Weekly starred review Highly original The book deserves a wide audience and is one that will affect its readers well after they have turned the final page Christianity Today 5 star review New World Recovery and Consummation of Prophetic Interpretation Leroy E. Froom,1954 Witness to Life Worth Living Aleksandar S. Santrac,2016-05-03 This book is an exposition of the basic themes of the work of Miroslav Volf the Yale ecumenical theologian who has written much about the ethics of embrace life worth living and human flourishing and my personal reflections on these themes The volume is the first of its kind So far there has been no attempt to systematize Volf s theology and ethics However the book is not just a simple description of Volf s work It tries to merge into one single theological reflection Volf s two basic paradigms the ethics of embrace and the concept of life worth living It also demonstrates a unique approach from the perspective of the personal and spiritual reflections of the author who shares a worldview similar to Miroslav Volf s The book is strengthened by many references to personal interviews and conversations with Miroslav Volf Thinking about the Prophets Kenneth Seeskin,2020-09-01 Rethinking the great literary prophets whose ministry ran from the eighth to the sixth centuries BCE Amos Hosea First Isaiah Jeremiah Ezekiel Second Isaiah and Job Thinking about the Prophets examines their often shocking teachings in light of their times their influence on later Western and Jewish thinkers and their enduring lessons for all of us As a noted scholar of Jewish philosophy Kenneth Seeskin teases out philosophical ethical and theological questions in the writings such as the nature of moral reasoning the divine persona divine providence the suffering of the innocent the power of repentance and what it means to believe in a monotheistic conception of God Seeskin demonstrates that great ideas are not limited by time or place but rather once put forth take on a life of their own Thus he interweaves the medieval and modern philosophers Maimonides Kant Cohen Buber Levinas Heschel and Soloveitchik all of whom read the prophets and had important things to say as a result We come to see the prophets perhaps in equal measure as divinely authorized whistle blowers and profound thinkers of the human condition Readers of all levels will find this volume an accessible and provoking introduction to the enduring significance of biblical prophecy Waiting for Gospel Douglas John Hall,2012-04-16

Christianity as faith centered in Jesus as the Christ came to be called got a foothold in the world and for a vital and vocal minority changed the world because it proclaimed a message that awakened men and women to possibilities for human life that they had either lost or never entertained That message the first Christian evangelists and Jesus himself according to the record called euangellion good news gospel For its first two or three hundred years Christianity was largely dependent for its existence upon the new zest for life that was awakened in persons who heard and were as they felt transformed by that gospel and at various and sundry points in subsequent history the Christian movement has found itself revitalized by the spirit of that same good news in ways that spoke to the specifics of their times and places The lesson of history is clear the challenge to all serious Christians and Christian bodies today is not whether we can devise yet more novel and promotionally impressive means for the transmission of the Christian religion let alone this or that denomination it is whether we are able to hear and to proclaim gospel We do not need statisticians and sociologists to inform us that religion and specifically our religion as the dominant expression of the spiritual impulse of homo sapiens in our geographic context is in decline We do not need the sages of the new atheism to announce in learned tomes and on buses that God probably does not exist The sea of faith has been ebbing for a very long time from the Introduction Prophecy without Contempt Cathleen Kaveny,2016-03-07

The culture wars have as much to do with rhetorical style as moral substance Cathleen Kaveny focuses on a powerful stream of religious discourse in American political speech the Biblical rhetoric of prophetic indictment It can be strong medicine against threats to the body politic she shows but used injudiciously it does more harm than good
